College of Fine Arts

HANDBOOK

1998
Subjects, courses and any arrangements for courses including staff allocated as stated in this Handbook are an expression of intent only. The University reserves the right to discontinue or vary arrangements at any time without notice. Information has been brought up to date as at 1 November 1997, but may be amended without notice by the University Council.

The offering of courses or subjects is subject to the availability of staff and sufficient enrolments. The College reserves the right to change the content of or withdraw any subjects at any time without notice. Limitations on the number of students in a subject may have to be imposed where the availability of equipment or studio or laboratory space is restricted.

CREDIT POINTS – IMPORTANT NOTE

From 1996, UNSW introduced a university wide credit point system for all subjects offered to both undergraduate and postgraduate students. The system means that a subject will have the same credit point value irrespective of which faculty's course it is counting towards. Students are able to determine the value of subjects taken from other faculties when planning their programs of study. The student load for a subject is calculated by dividing the credit point value of a subject by the total credit points required for the standard program for that year of the course. Student load is used to determine both HECS and overseas student fees. Students who take more than the standard load for that year of a course will pay more HECS.

Old subject measures have been replaced by new university credit points. Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of the credit point values shown for all subjects. However, if any inconsistencies between old and new credit point measures cause concern, students are advised to check with their faculty office for clarification before making 1998 subject selections based on the credit points shown in this handbook.

In 1998, the College of Fine Arts enters its 24th year as a tertiary art and design institution, having been a faculty of UNSW since 1990.

COFA's mission statement sets out the faculty’s focus:
Through accent on:
- diversity and integration across the domain of the visual arts and design
- excellence in art and design research, development and teaching
- an international involvement with art and design
- interaction with the art and design community
- UNSW, COFA will gain international acknowledgment as a leading faculty of Fine Arts.

Through the College's now well established structure of four professional schools: School of Art, School of Art Education, School of Art History and Theory and School of Design Studies, a comprehensive range of undergraduate, postgraduate and research courses are offered to an enrolment of around 1,200.

From January, 1997 the Bachelor of Applied Arts (Craft Arts) degree was added to the repertoire of the College’s undergraduate offerings. The core studies in this course are the responsibility of the School of Design Studies, with electives offered from across the College and the University.

The College is extremely proud of the quality of its staff, academic, technical, administrative and professional. It is also confident that the facilities and courses are the best possible.

Occupying a well equipped set of buildings on a site in Paddington, close to galleries and art/craft shops, along with being part of one of Australia’s leading universities, makes being a student both a delight and a significant challenge.

The challenge is to at least do as well as those who have gone before. In fact let's try to do even better. If as a new student you set this goal for yourself, you take advantage of what COFA through its art and design courses at Paddington have to offer, then you will surely make a success of your time at UNSW and reap the rewards.

K B Reinhard
Dean and Director
Schools of the College of Fine Arts
The University of New South Wales

The College of Fine Arts consists of four schools divided into a number of related discipline study areas through which the subjects and courses of the College are offered.

The School of Art
The School of Art consists of the studies of Painting, Drawing, Printmedia (including etching, lithography, relief and screen printing, digital imaging and print installation), Photomedia (including photo based media, digital imaging and photo/installation), Time Based Art (including film, computer animation, multimedia computing, sound/performance/installation and video), Sculpture (including clay, bronze casting, metal fabrication, object/installation, and bodyworks).

The School of Art Education
This school comprises studies in Art Education.

The School of Art History and Theory
This school includes studies in art history and theory and art administration.

The School of Design Studies
This school comprises studies in design (including graphics/media, applied/object, environments/spatial, design management and practice, and design history/theory) and applied arts (including ceramics, jewellery, textiles, and applied arts history/theory).

The Clement Semmler Library
The Clement Semmler Library offers both a specialist art collection and a research and information service catering for the needs of students and staff of the College of Fine Arts and the University of New South Wales.

The Library has a strong collection of books and serials on the visual arts and design and a substantial audiovisual collection which includes slides, video cassettes and interactive CD-ROMs.

Researchers have access to the library's specialist art and design bibliographic databases as well as a wide range of databases via the UNSW Library's database network. Access to contemporary Australian material is enhanced by in-house indexes to newspaper clippings and Australian art journals.

Access to the collection is via the UNSW Library's online catalogue, supplemented by locally produced printout catalogues for some AV material and an in-house, online slide catalogue.

Professional library staff are available to assist with a range of services designed to ensure that all users can make best use of the information resources available.

Ivan Dougherty Gallery
The Ivan Dougherty Gallery was established in 1977 by the Alexander Mackie College of Advanced Education at 200 Cumberland Street, The Rocks and was named after Major General Sir Ivan Dougherty, Chairman of the first College Council.

When funds were made available to refurbish the Albion Avenue Public School built in Paddington in 1894, part of the ground floor was developed as the Ivan Dougherty Gallery's new premises. These were opened on 16 June 1981.

The purpose of the Gallery is to provide an educational and cultural resource for the students and staff of the College of Fine Arts, The University of New South Wales and the general public. The Gallery mounts around ten to twelve group or thematic exhibitions per year of Australian and International contemporary art, occasionally with an historical component, incorporating all media and disciplines: painting, sculpture, printmedia, drawing, design, installation, photomedia, video, computer, performance and time based art.

A forum, organised in conjunction with each exhibition, facilitates an exchange of ideas between artists, theoreticians, curators and students. In addition, floor talks on the exhibitions are staged in the Gallery for the benefit of students and the wider community.

Committed to stretching the boundaries of current art practice, the Gallery also coordinates Live Actions, a series of events and performances by contemporary Australian performers and performance artists.

Gallery hours: Mon-Fri 10.00 am – 5.00 pm; Sat 1.00 pm – 5.00 pm. Closed public holidays.

All consultations are confidential. If the counsellor is unable to assist, referrals can be made to appropriate persons or organisations.

Equal Opportunity in Education Policy Statement

Under the Federal Racial Discrimination Act (1975), Sex Discrimination Act (1984), Disability Discrimination Act (1992) and the New South Wales Anti-Discrimination Act (1977), the University is required not to discriminate against students or prospective students on the grounds of sex, marital status, pregnancy, race, nationality, national or ethnic origin, colour, homosexuality or disability. Under the University of New South Wales Act (1989), the University declares that it will not discriminate on the grounds of religious or political affiliations, views or beliefs.

University Commitment to Equal Opportunity in Education

As well as recognising its statutory obligations as listed, the University will eliminate discrimination on any other grounds which it deems to constitute disadvantage. The University is committed to providing a place to study free from harassment and discrimination, and one in which every student is encouraged to work towards her/his maximum potential. The University further commits itself to course design, curriculum content, classroom environment, assessment procedures and other aspects of campus life which will provide equality of educational opportunity to all students.

Special Admissions Schemes

The University will encourage the enrolment of students who belong to disadvantaged groups through programs such as the University Preparation Program and the ACCESS Scheme. Where members of disadvantaged groups are particularly under-represented in certain disciplines, the responsible faculties will actively encourage their enrolment.

Support of Disadvantaged Students

The University will provide support to assist the successful completion of studies by disadvantaged group members through such means as the Aboriginal Education Program, the Supportive English Program and the Learning Centre. It will work towards the provision of other resources, such as access for students with impaired mobility, assistance to students with other disabilities, the provision of a parents' room on the upper campus, and increased assistance with English language and communication.

Course Content, Curriculum Design, Teaching and Assessment, and Printed Material

Schools and faculties will monitor course content (including titles), teaching methods, assessment procedures, written material (including study guides and handbook and Calendar entries) and audiovisual material to ensure that they are not discriminatory or offensive and that they encourage and facilitate full participation in education by disadvantaged people.

Equal Opportunity Adviser Scheme

The University will continue its Equal Opportunity Adviser Scheme for students who feel that they have been harassed or who consider they have been disadvantaged in their education by practices and procedures within the University.

Harassment Policy

The University is committed to ensuring freedom from harassment for all people working or studying within the institution. It will continue to take action, including disciplinary action, to ensure that freedom from harassment is achieved.

The Students’ Association

All students of the College are members of the Students’ Association from which students are elected as representatives on various College boards and committees. Within the University of New South Wales, the College of Fine Arts Students’ Association has a Memorandum of Agreement with other student bodies and Sporting Associations which ensures equity and a spirit of reciprocity.

The Association is financed by a compulsory fee collected by the University on behalf of the Association as part of the enrolment procedure and is administered by the Executive and staff.

The Association is involved with the organisation of activities that include an on-campus Art Materials Store, an off-campus gallery, Arthaus; lunch time activities (barbecues, films, bands, guest speakers). It supports clubs and societies such as The Temporal Visual Arts Society and the Christian Fellowship and encourages students to involve themselves in interest groups on and off campus.

Through representations on College boards and committees the Association may communicate with the Dean and Director on matters affecting the student body and plays an active role in the decision making process of the College.

The course aims:

• to provide an opportunity for students to undertake rigorous and demanding studies at tertiary level from a wide range of approaches and disciplines within the visual arts;
• to provide the opportunity for students to explore aspects of the visual arts through critical examination of the possibilities they offer and by use of available technological resources;
• to encourage students to develop an increased self-motivation and commitment to their studies;
• to provide an environment in which students may develop as far as possible the following characteristics and abilities both during and subsequent to their involvement in the course:
  – an understanding of concepts relevant to aesthetics and the visual arts;
  – an understanding of various media through practice and experimentation with such media;
  – a confidence and competence in decision making, together with an appreciative and informed awareness of viewpoints in the visual arts other than their own.
• to encourage students to realise their own intellectual and creative potential;
• to increase students’ awareness of, and sensitivity to, their environment.

This subject introduces the student to the broad experience of working with photomedia. The subject emphasises the development of a keen critical awareness in students by investigating the content and context of photographic images in contemporary visual art and culture. The questions of intent, content and context are focussed toward the development of the individual’s visual language. Students will have the opportunity to explore the use of image-making processes such as digital imaging and the opportunity to consider the relationship of photomedia to time-based media and three-dimensional form.

COFA3013
Printmedia 1
S2 HPW6 CP20
Prerequisite: Introductory Studies: Drawing, Painting, Printmedia

This subject will introduce students to basic concepts and skills in printmedia, developing a firm skills base from which they will expand in their continuing studies in the discipline. Students will be encouraged to understand both the inter-relationships of form and content and the creative possibilities of various media and techniques in both two and three dimensions. In line with current art practice, expression is encouraged through the use of traditional and contemporary print media including etching, digital imaging, lithography, paper moulding, photocopying, relief and screen printing. The importance of analytical observation will be emphasised. Students will be expected to attain a basic competence in printmedia by the end of session. Studio health and safety and the appropriate handling and presentation of prints will be covered.

Sculpture 1
S2 HPW6 CP20
Prerequisite: Introductory Studies: Photomedia, Sculpture, Time Based Art

This studio based subject provides the basic foundations for sculptural studies through a series of projects that are a trajectory into the students' personal creative enquiries. The projects foster a marriage of concept to process, intention to outcomes. Critical awareness and interpretive skills are developed along with an understanding of basic sculptural skills and languages such as metaphor, narrative, metonymy, space, materiality, form, mass, scale. The interdisciplinary nature of contemporary sculptural practice is emphasised, as well as exploratory applications of traditional forms and methodologies.

COFA3015
Time Based Art 1
S2 HPW6 CP20
Prerequisite: Introductory Studies: Photomedia, Sculpture, Time Based Art

Time Based Art is a cluster of units dealing with the complex multiplicity of artistic forms which use the passage of time as the essential element. Time Based Art 1 introduces key concepts in time based art with specific reference to experimental film, video art and installation, sound, performance and multimedia computing. The subject develops critical awareness by close study of histories of the moving image and the expressive use of technology and the human body. Concurrently the subject provides preliminary technical training in the various technologies used in the production of video, sound and performance works.

COFA3022
Drawing
S2 HPW3 CP10
Prerequisite: Printing Elective or Lithography Elective or Relief Printing Elective or Screen Printing Elective

This subject will provide a foundation of drawing skills and introduce students to a basic drawing vocabulary. A range of approaches will be taken and diverse media will be explored. Through the investigation of drawing process, students will be encouraged to develop an expression appropriate to, and integrated with, their major area of art practice.

COFA2007
Art History and Theory 3
F HPW2 CP10

This subject will critically examine aspects of art history and theory which can be seen as relevant to contemporary visual arts. Art History and Theory 3 will enable students to gain a critical understanding of the historical discourses and art practices which structure the understanding of the practice of art.

COFA3021
Drawing/Painting 2
F HPW8 CP40
Prerequisite: Drawing/Painting 1 or Drawing Elective or Painting Elective

In this subject students will investigate and imaginatively interpret significant concepts and connections of the disciplines of drawing and painting. In consultation with lecturers students will develop a program of studio studies which reflect their individual interests and enable them to view their work in relation to both art history and contemporary developments.

Printmedia 2
F HPW8 CP40
Prerequisite: Printmedia 1 or Etching Elective or Lithography Elective or Relief Printing Elective or Screen Printing Elective

In this subject students will investigate and imaginatively interpret the significant concepts and conventions of the disciplines within printmedia. In consultation with lecturers, students will begin to develop a program of printmedia studies which reflects their individual interests and which may be built upon and expanded in subsequent sessions. Various media, techniques and aspects of printmedia will be examined, and students will be encouraged to develop concepts relating to the characteristics of specific media. Workshop procedures, and documentation and conservation of prints will be covered.
Sculpture 2
F HPW8 CP40
Prerequisite: Sculpture 1 or Clay Sculpture Elective or Installation Elective or Sculpture Elective
This studio based subject supports the development of the individual student’s sculptural ideas and through seminars, tutorials and critical evaluation, broadens the students’ awareness of related issues in contemporary thought, sculptural theory and practice, and diverse areas of concern in the social and cultural environment.
Students may choose to produce divergent or interdisciplinary works such as spatial, temporal, ephemeral or performative installations, or develop particular sculptural forms or mediums such as bodyworks or bronze casting.
The emphasis at this stage is on an open-ended, exploratory investigation of sculptural language, the stimulation of the imagination, the development of creative ideas and rigorous studio methodologies. These are supported by the acquisition of skills pertinent to the students’ needs, including the presentation and documentation of completed works.

COFA3025
Time Based Art 2
F HPW8 CP40
Prerequisite: Time Based Art 1 or Animation Elective or Multimedia Computing Elective or Performance Elective or Sound Studio Elective or Video Elective
This subject develops the conceptual understanding and technical skills underpinning practice in time based arts. Screening programs and analysis of sound, the moving image and performance augment the students’ knowledge of the traditions and contemporary contexts of technological art forms. Students become familiar with the processes of video production, 16mm cinematography and editing and/or computer-based image and sound technologies. Students are directed to develop a body of work which integrates technical and conceptual approaches.

Third Year

COFA2008
Art History and Theory 4
S1 HPW2 CP10
This subject will explore the many interrelationships between artistic practices, whether drawing, painting, printmedia, photomedia, sculpture, or time based art, and critical and theoretical issues that arise out of these practices and have been used to ‘frame’ and comprehend them. Many modern and postmodern artists chose to carry a ‘toolbox’ of history and of philosophical assumptions into the studio with them. The overall aim is to enable students to gain a critical understanding of both the historical and contemporary discourses which have framed our understanding of the role and meaning of art.

COFA3800
Professional Practice
S2 HPW2 CP10
This subject will prepare students completing the BFA for professional practice as artists in Australia.

COFA3031
Drawing/Painting 3
F HPW8 CP40
Prerequisite: Drawing/Painting 2
In this subject students will concentrate upon their major creative interests. Students will be required to initiate and execute a body of studio work which demonstrates the relationship between their own work and current art practices and concepts. Students will be encouraged to analyse the relationship between perceived aims and results achieved in their studio practice.

COFA3032
Photomedia 3
F HPW8 CP40
Prerequisite: Photomedia 2
In this subject the student will concentrate on the production of a substantial body of work which demonstrates an understanding and refinement of the concepts and contexts central to their individual art practice. The works produced will be a culmination of intensive research and study within the area of photomedia. The investigation is initiated by the student and undertaken with lecturer supervision. It is expected that students will continue to refine their digital/analogue technical skills to a standard appropriate to the concerns in their work. Students are directed toward an analysis and critical awareness of current visual arts practices and issues. Interdisciplinary studies are encouraged where relevant to the projects undertaken.

Printmedia 3
F HPW8 CP40
Prerequisite: Printmedia 2
This subject will continue to build upon concepts and skills developed in previous sessions. Students will investigate the creative possibilities of media appropriate to the expression of individual ideas. Students will concentrate upon their major creative interests and will be required to initiate and execute a body of studio work which demonstrates the relationship between their own work and current art practices and concepts. A proposal outlining intended studies may be required.

Sculpture 3
F HPW8 CP40
Prerequisite: Sculpture 2
This studio based subject centres upon the students’ self initiated work programs which are devised in consultation with their lecturers towards the development of their emergent practice. Tutorials, the acquisition of advanced skills and studio research methodologies, the presentation of seminars by each student about the content and contexts of their practice are employed to achieve a thorough knowledge and critical awareness of contemporary sculptural practice and an ability to articulate the concerns of their art making.

Students are required to furnish support material and documentation of works produced during the subject, along with a body of work representative of the culmination of an intensive application of their studies.

COFA3035
Time Based Art 3

F HPW8 CP40

Prerequisite: Time Based Art 2

This subject furthers the students' knowledge of the art historical contexts and interdisciplinary skills necessary to time based art practices. Students are expected to develop an area of research relevant to their individual art practice. The students concentrate on producing a substantial body of work which demonstrates an understanding and refinement of the concepts and contexts central to their work. Specialised content extends the students' technical and conceptual skills in the use of experimental film, video, audio and multimedia computing technologies. Concurrently, the subject deepens the students' critical comprehension of time based forms through study and analysis of different art works in the screening and presentation programs.

History and Theory Electives

Timetable constraints do not allow all subjects to be offered every year, although endeavours are made to offer the full range over a three year period.

COFA2132
From The Age of Absolutism to The Enlightenment: Mannerism and the Baroque
Staff Contact: Head, School of Art History and Theory
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10
This moment in European history – a moment precipitating the colonisation of Australia – often regarded as marking the transition between feudalism and the modern State, will be explored through the centralization of absolute power by such monarchs as Louis XIV, the relationship between dynastic control, Enlightenment ideas and the growth of parliament and ways this led to reform, revolution and 'democracy'.

The interrelationship between Mannerist and Baroque art, within the 17th and 18th century shift of centre from Italy to France, will be examined in this context, together with ways such art became displaced by new concepts and genres of culture and revolutionary art.

COFA2136
The Avant-Garde and the Academy, the Politics of Colonialism and the 'Other' in Europe 1780-1850
Staff Contact: Dr Fay Brauer
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10
Following Napoleon's blaze of European and colonial conquests and his downfall, a waning of revolutionary fervour marked early 19th century reaction in Europe, in which church, monarchy and such authoritarian institutions as The Academy for Arts became reactivated, but subsequently contested.

The schism between Neoclassism and Romanticism, concepts of art-for-art's-sake, oppositions to academic art, the rise of 'Orientalism', the emergence of photography and formations of an 'avant-garde' are issues which will be examined in this context, through such artists as Ingres, Canova, Goya, Turner, Daumier and Delacroix.

COFA2140
Modernism and the 20th Century Experience of Modernity 1890-1950
Staff Contact: Dr Fay Brauer
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10
This subject has been constructed to explore the interrelationship between the rapidly changing conditions of technological modernity and modernist cultures.

This exploration will be undertaken through a close examination of individuals and particular groups of artists, such as the Cubists, Futurists, German Expressionists, Surrealists and Russian Constructivists, and the ways in which their art affirms, denies or interrogates modernity.

COFA2208
The Medieval and Renaissance Cultures of Europe
Staff Contact: A/Professor Alan Oldfield
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10
Within a shift from remote monastic settlements into towns from the 12th century, the emergence of urban cultures will be examined in relation to the organization of the artist's workshop, a domestication of religious imagery, the flourishing of fresco narrative, the emergence of secular patronage and its ramifications upon new genres of art and culture.

Humanism and the recording of the Antique, Nominalism and Neoplatonic philosophy, expansions of trade routes and global exploration, together with the rise of European and 'New World' power in such centres as Italy, Holland, Portugal and Spain, will define an historical context for the examination of Renaissance art and culture, and artists as diverse as Donatello, Piero della Francesca, Holbein, Jan Van Eyck and Bosch.

COFA2212
Early Christian, Islamic and Other Cultures
Staff Contact: Craig Judd
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10
Starting with the displacement of Rome by Ravenna and Constantine's Byzantium as the new centre of Christianity, the power of the Romanized Christian Empire will be traced, in conjunction with the flourishing of Early Christian, Carolingian, Romanesque and Gothic art and culture, until the fall of Constantinople to the Turks in 1453.

The shift from a rational scientific and materialist philosophy of ancient Greece and Rome to Christian faith and spiritual values, articulated by such theologians as St. Augustine and scholastics as Abelard and Thomas Aquinas, will be examined in relation to Mohammed's conquest of Mecca, the Muslim faith and the spread of the Islamic Empire.

COFA2218
The Art of Ancient Cultures: Assyria, Mesopotamia, Egypt, Persia, Greece and Rome
Staff Contact: Head, School of Art History and Theory
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10
Egyptian pharaoh pyramids, tombs and culture of death, the sculpture and friezes of Assyria and Mesopotamia will be examined in relation to the break-up of the Mycenaen world and matriarchal cultures, together with the shifts of dominance in the Eastern Mediterranean by the Persian Empire, until its defeat by the Greeks.

The supremacy of the Athenian Greeks, their rule of demos (democracy) and ethos (ethics) will be explored in relation to their new Classical Order articulated through temples and sculpture, philosophy, poetry and drama, together with the shift to Alexandria and Hellenism, and the ultimate displacement and appropriation of Greek culture by the Roman Empire.
COFA2227
Histories of Women Artists
Staff Contact: Dian Lloyd
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10
This subject will critically examine the issues of gender in art history from a number of perspectives.
Social and cultural analysis will be applied to the work of a variety of women artists. Art Historical perspectives will be subjected to a feminist reading.

COFA2276
The Painting of Modern Life: French and British Painting in Focus, 1850-1890
Staff Contact: Dr Alan Krell
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10
This subject focuses on Realist and Impressionist painting in the second half of the nineteenth-century in France and England. The work is considered within changing social, political and cultural contexts, with special attention paid to its critical reception manifested in reviews and cartoons. Questions to do with gender, class, sexuality, labour and leisure are examined in relation to Courbet, Manet, Morisot, Degas, Holman Hunt and Ford Madox Brown, among others, as well as lesser known figures such as Augustus Egg and Francois Salle.

COFA2284
Postindustrialisation, Postmodernity and Postmodernism
Staff Contact: Craig Judd
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10
Hyperreality, a society of spectacle and simulacra, an age of postindustrial technocracy, consumerism, obsolescence and the end of ideology are all terms used to characterise Postmodernity and distinguish it from The Modern.
While the conjunctions of Modernism to Postmodernism remains a contentious issue, their interrelationship will be examined through such artists as Augustus Egg and Francois Salle, as well as lesser known figures such as Augustus Egg and Francois Salle.

COFA2285
Art and Revolution: Visions of a New Order from Unity to Fragmentation
Staff Contact: Head, School of Art History and Theory
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10
This subject explores the role of art in revolutionary projects of the twentieth century. Radical shifts in power that occurred during the Nazi regime, Russian, Mexican and Chinese Cultural Revolutions all began with visions of a new social order. The need to visualise a new society has, in some cases, provided opportunities for diverse, experimental art practices, in others art has been reduced to little more than propaganda. Shifts in consciousness from utopian ideals to the crisis of 1968 will be examined in relation to the reformulation of political strategies after the ‘failed revolution’. Contemporary images and issues to be discussed include feminism, nuclear disarmament, environmentalism and the computer revolution.

Australian Art and Culture

COFA2108
Australian Art and Culture 1870-World War II: Nation Formation and Responses to Modernity
Staff Contact: Dr Joanna Mendelsohn
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10
The transition from established colonies to an emerging nation found expression in the art of the Australian settlers. Conventionally, this process is represented through certain landscape traditions, notably the rural ‘bush’ mythology. This subject examines the diverse art of the emerging nation, including the rural tradition along with other genres. The foundations of national culture were built on unresolved and troubling responses to modernity, on the one hand, and the displacement of Aboriginal peoples by European settlement, on the other.
Formations of nation leading to Federation will be explored in relation to the ‘open-air’ camps of painting and the Heidelberg School, aestheticism and the revival of classicism through such artists as Norman Lindsay, as well as the emergence of Modernism with such seminal figures as Grace Cossington-Smith. ‘The Second Phase of Modernism’, as Bernard Smith calls the period from the Great Depression to World War II, will be considered through such artists as Grace Crowley, Frank Hinder, Thea Proctor and Margaret Preston.

COFA2109
Contemporary Australian art and culture
Staff Contact: Dr Joanna Mendelsohn
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10
The artists and the art of contemporary Australia is explored in the contexts of local, regional, national and international art and cultural relations. Students will be expected to pay close attention to current exhibitions and to extend their familiarity with contemporary Australian art beyond the most readily accessible art exhibited in Sydney. This subject goes beyond a review of individual artists and artworks to focus on ways in which underlying and unresolved cultural concerns, consensus and conflict, as well as shifts in artistic practices are identified in contemporary art.

COFA2110
Australian Identity Formation Through Visual and Material Culture
Staff Contact: Dr Joanna Mendelsohn
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10
Australian artists and writers played a major role in shaping Australian notions of nationhood and identity. This subject critically examines theories of cultural and national identity, nationalism and nation formation through the interdisciplinary and intertextual study of Australian cultural production, with a particular emphasis on visual and material culture. Historical and contemporary works will be studied in the context of shifts in concepts of nation and identity.
COFA2232
Koori and Associated Cultures
Staff Contact: Peter McKenzie
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

"Koori", rather than 'Aboriginal', is the term used by indigenous people to emphasise their distinct identity. It is a generic term used long ago by the peoples of the central coast of what is now New South Wales. It has been widely adopted by the people of south eastern Australia. In other parts of Australia other terms are used.

Today we are witnessing transformations of Koori and other associated cultures. They have strong roots in tradition but they have adapted, and continue to adapt, to changing conditions and external influences. The purpose of this subject is to examine developments through a series of lectures by Koori artists and other relevant guest speakers.

COFA22259
Australian Art and Culture: Aboriginal and Colonial Art to 1870
Staff Contact: Head, School of Art History and Theory
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

As is now well documented, the colonization of Australia did not directly follow from early European explorers and traders voyages to Terra Australis, the great unknown land lying in the southern hemisphere, but from the political, economic and social circumstances of George III’s England at the end of the Enlightenment. Whilst myths of Terra Australis will be examined in this subject, the prime focus will be upon the process of colonization, the institution of a penal colony and its impact upon the indigenous Aboriginal population. The emergence of a colonial culture with such artists as Joseph Lycett, will also be examined, together with the shifts in society and culture, and representations of gender, aborigines and ‘migrant races’ which occurred during the Gold Rush period with such professional artists as John Glover, Eugene Von Guerard and Adelaide Ironside, and such growing patrons as the State’s Galleries.

COFA22260
Australian Art and Culture WWII–1973: Angry Penguins, Antipodeans and Abstractionists
Staff Contact: Dr Joanna Mendelssohn
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

Angry Penguins, including Albert Tucker, Arthur Boyd, Yosl Bergner and Joy Hester, will be examined in relation to their journal published by Max Harris and John Reed, and in conjunction with the ideological and material disruptions of World War II.

Amidst a Cold War context, the grouping of such artists as Arthur Boyd and John Brack under the banner of Bernard Smith’s Antipodean Manifesto, will be explored, in conjunction with American cultural imperialism and the growth of lyrical abstraction, the Charm School and the Contemporary Art Society’s debates around Sydney art as decorative surface, questions of social conscience, vapid consumerism and the Annandale Imitation Realists, together with such issues as representing ‘Australianness’.

COFA2274
Aboriginal Art
Staff Contact: Peter McKenzie
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

This subject will provide an historical overview of the variety of Aboriginal Art Forms that were practiced prior to European invasion; it will examine traditionally-based art forms that are still practised in the more remote parts of Australia; it will look to the innovative art forms that have developed in contemporary Aboriginal Australia; it will examine the ethnocentricity of European thinking that can inhibit appreciation of Aboriginal art; and it will address the problem of appropriation of Aboriginal imagery.

COFA2289
Reading the Country
Staff Contact: Head, School of Art History and Theory
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

Landscape has been regarded, since its inception as a genre of Western Art, as a means of transforming nature into culture. This subject examines different ways in which nature has been transformed into landscape in Western Art from the illuminated manuscripts of the Duc de Berry, the timeless arcadies of Poussin and Claude, the sublime landscapes of Friedrich and Eugene von Guerard to the abstract notations of Fred Williams. These landscapes will be compared with non-Western representations of nature by such Aboriginal artists as Clifford Possum, as well as the Navaro Indian and Chinese artists.

Such historical contexts as feudalism (with its social hierarchy based upon tenure of land), the development of geographer’s and surveyor’s instruments, the Enclosure Acts and colonisation, particularly of Australia, will provide the framework for such readings of the country. Analogies between visually representing the land and possessing it as territory will also be investigated, partially in light of the Mabo case.

Art and the Asia-Pacific

COFA2211
Peripheral Visions: Perspectives on Colonial and Postcolonial Art
Staff Contact: Dr David McNeill
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

This subject will investigate the effects of the spread of Euro-American ‘modernism’ through the so-called Third World during the 20th century and particularly during the period following World War II. It will analyse the ways in which different cultures selectively adopt and transform aspects of various modernist styles and the ways in which these styles are incorporated into indigenous visual practice. It will examine such matters as the relationship between economic imperialism and cultural production, the transition from colonialism to postcolonialism, the effects of tourism and the value of 'decentred' postmodern modes of understanding in a Third World context. Art of the Asia-Pacific region, Africa and Latin America will be addressed. Some general knowledge of the evolution of modern and postmodern art will be assumed.

COFA2250
Colonialism and Art: Orientalism and Primitivism
Staff Contact: Dr Diane Losche
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10
This subject will introduce students to issues involved in looking at the cultural activities and artefacts of non-Western cultures. The ways in which Western knowledge has sought to 'invent' other cultures in its own image or as its antithesis will be examined. The gaining of an understanding of the concept of ethnocentrism and colonialism will be central to the subject, as will the operation of the notion of 'the primitive' in modernist art.

COFA2252
The Arts of the Pacific: Image, Myth and History
Staff Contact: Dr Diane Losche
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10
In this subject students will explore the processes of change in the cultural and social contexts in which the arts of the Pacific region have been created and viewed since the 18th century meeting between European and local people. COFA2253
Perspectives on Contemporary Art in Asia

The Asian experiences of modernism and postmodernism, of participation in international art and art of the region will be examined. Case studies of major events such as the Asia-Pacific Triennial will be presented.

COFA2286
Art and the Cultural Revolution of China, Indonesia and Vietnam
Staff Contact: Head, School of Art History and Theory
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10
'Letting 100 flowers bloom and 100 schools of thought contend' was a seminal part of Mao Tse-tung's policy for promoting 'progress' amidst the arts and sciences to create a flourishing Socialist culture throughout China.

The cultural policy formulated by Mao Tse-tung in the 1950s will be examined in relation to the Cultural Revolution, launched in 1966, to use culture as a means of changing Chinese society towards a greater egalitarianism, and in conjunction with the decolonisation of the Philippines, Cambodia and Vietnam, the political dictatorship of Indonesia and the Vietnam War.

Critical and Cultural Theory

COFA2105
Seminar in Women's Studies
Staff Contact: Professor Liz Ashburn
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10
This subject will examine recent feminist art practices in Australia and overseas. The gaining of an understanding of feminism will be central to the subject. Feminist theories will be explored and applied to the work of artists and art historians. Issues such as the representation of the body, transgressive practices and censorship will be considered. The student will be encouraged to apply their study of women artists to develop a more complete understanding of their own art practice and of art production generally.

COFA2113
Pornography, Art and Politics
Staff Contact: Dr Jill Bennett
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10
This subject will explore the boundary between art and pornography and the social function of that boundary in western society. It will look at the ways in which bodies are eroticised and/or designated as 'pornographic' or perverse. Concepts such as fetishization, voyeurism, sadism and masochism will be discussed in relation to art history and contemporary art practice. The politics of pornography will be debated in relation to such issues as gender/feminism, child sexuality, censorship and AIDS.

COFA2114
Artwrite
Staff Contact: Dr Joanna Mendelssohn
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10
Artwrite is a magazine of student writing of the College of Fine Arts. In this subject students will learn to edit writing by students (produced in other subjects and written specifically for the subject). Through hands-on experience, students learn the intricacies of sub-editing, design, and lay-out on either Quark or Pagemaker. The end result is produced using desktop publishing software and it is also envisaged that future issues of Artwrite will appear on the World Wide Web.

In this subject, students learn to work together under pressure, and to achieve a common goal through compromise. This subject is a cooperative venture between the School of Art History and Theory and the School of Design Studies. The subject is available to students from all schools, but because of the nature of the task, numbers may be restricted.
COFA2254
The Artist and the Writer
Staff Contact: Dr Joanna Mendelssohn
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10
Note: Not available to BArtTh students.

The aim of the first unit of this two-session subject is to enable students to understand and appreciate some of the writings on art by poets, novelists or essayists which have been particularly influential in the shaping of artistic tastes and values.

Reading the works of 18th and 19th century literary figures such as Diderot, Hazlitt, Goethe, Baudelaire, Ruskin, Wilde et al., students will be expected to develop an understanding of the interdependence of art and literature, as well as its implication for both artists and writers. To illustrate the point, the literary production of visual artists such as Delacroix or Courbet will also come under close scrutiny.

COFA2255
Writing on Art
Staff Contact: Dr Joanna Mendelssohn
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10
Note: Not available to BArtTh students.

Following on from COFA2254, the second unit of this two-session subject will be concerned with the works of seminal 20th century writers who, from a nonphilosophical (systematic) perspective, have contributed to the definition of contemporary art and its understanding. With the works of poets (Rilke, Wallace Stephens or Paul Celan), novelists (Hermann Bloch, Kafka, Proust, Breton), essayists (Valery, Benjamin, Steiner), or artists (Cezanne, Braque or Klee), students will be given a wide range of writings on art to explore.

COFA2256
Psychoanalysis and Art
Staff Contact: Dian Lloyd
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

The subject is designed to provide students with knowledge of the theories of psychoanalysis which can be used in a study of visual arts. The theories to be studied include Carl Gustave Jung’s notions of the archetypes, Sigmund Freud’s psychoanalytic explanations of motivation, and feminist critiques of psychoanalysis. These theories are applied to an interpretation of dream images, popular visual culture and fine art. Issues addressed include the meaning of dreams, sexuality and difference, personality development and spirituality.

COFA2268
Introduction to Aesthetics
Staff Contact: Graham Forsyth
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

This subject will introduce students to aesthetics as a separate branch of Philosophy. From Baumgarten to Worringer. The most fundamental ideas of such key thinkers in art as Burke, Kant, Hegel, Schopenhauer, Nietzsche will be discussed in class and examined in both historical context and the contemporary.

COFA2270
Theories of Subjectivity and the Body
Staff Contact: Dr Jill Bennett
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

This subject will explore the ways in which our culture produces us as social subjects and as sexual identities. It will investigate the social construction of norms, taboos and perversions, covering such issues as sadism, masochism, incest and pornography. Particular attention will be paid to the role of visual culture in both the maintenance and subversion of norms. We will draw upon the work of a variety of theorists (Michel Foucault, Jacques Lacan, Sigmund Freud, Giles Deleuze, Kaja Silverman, the Marquis de Sade, Judith Butler, Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick and contemporary Queer theorists), in addition to discussing various artist and film makers.

COFA2291
Art and the Politics of Identity
Staff Contact: Professor Liz Ashburn, Craig Judd
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

This lecture and seminar subject focuses on the definitions of identities within art practices of the modern period (c. 1700 to the present). This subject will reference the visual and written languages that have informed notions of self, community and nation.

While briefly referring to pre-twentieth century conditions, this subject aims to provide students with an overview of the ways in which contemporary art (from c. 1970) has been employed to convey the politicalised information that constitutes 'identity'. The energy of the cultural pluralism of gay and lesbian art will be foregrounded to illustrate this theme within the histories of recent art. Because of the nature of the content, this subject will also examine 'low' art forms, such as cartoons and advertising, even fanzines, in an attempt to provide a wide context for the manifestations of the political in society. Students will be expected to write and speak about the moral, aesthetic and philosophical arguments that attend to art with political content.

COFA2292
Creative Writing for Artists
Staff Contact: Head, School of Art History and Theory
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

Many visual artists develop and maintain a writing practice that informs, supplements and enriches their art, and/or that complements work presented in exhibitions and artists’ books. In this subject, students read the writing of artists and develop their own writing directions and skills. Particular attention is paid to the forms of creative writing that many artists appear to find valuable, including short stories, poetry and autobiography.

COFA2293
Literature and Art
Staff Contact: Head, School of Art History and Theory
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

In this subject, literature about art, craft and design is read and discussed. Many writers of fiction have been fascinated by the creative process and have sought to explore their own experience of creativity, imagination, craft and art through their representations of visual artists and artwork. In doing so, they frequently present us with intriguing and sometimes surprising images of visual artists, their processes and their art. In this subject, novels, short stories and poems offer writers' insights to enrich and sometimes challenge our views of art and artists.

COFA2294
Women, Art and Power
Staff Contact: Professor Liz Ashburn
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10
This subject examines women's relationships to art. The subject investigates the depiction of women in art throughout history, making comparisons with contemporary depictions of women, and drawing in cross-cultural comparisons. Another way of considering women's relationships to art is to look at women's depictions of themselves and other women. Students will be encouraged to analyse critically the depiction and involvement of women in the construction of popular visual culture, such as advertising, television, comics, cartoons, film, pornography and the news media. Theoretical perspectives are based on feminism, semiotics, psychoanalysis and art theory.

COFA2295
Art and Activism
Staff Contact: Craig Judd
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10
Activism refers to the public manifestation of a politicised consciousness. If art is concerned with the transmission of widely held belief structures it can be argued that, from Neolithic times, art and propaganda have always been linked.

While briefly referring to pre-twentieth century conditions this subject looks at a wide range of cultural practices (the traditional arts to photography and performance, video, film and installation) from the 1960s. Essentially an historical survey of art with politicised content

Staff Contact: Head, School of Art History and Theory
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10
This subject will examine photography historically taking into account the diversity and ubiquity of the medium and the problems that this raises for linear chronological accounts. Areas to be covered in the medium's one hundred and fifty year history include changing technologies, genres, uses, aesthetic debates and the intersection of photography with larger historical forces. Specific topics include documentary and social reform, war photography, advertising, photojournalism and the rise of the illustrated press, the emergence of fine art photography, recurrent aesthetic themes and oppositional practices.

Installation, Structures and Spaces
Staff Contact: Head, School of Art History and Theory
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10
This subject will examine the nature of the physical surround of the art object. While the focus will be on installation work produced since the 1960s there will also be an examination of a range of cultural context and historical periods. In every case examined there will be an emphasis on the way in which the physical surround of the art object is conceptualized. Included will be the influence of the Theatre of Cruelty, past revolutionary Russian theatre and cinema, Dada and Surrealism on the conceptualization of installation and a comparison of the Oriental and European constructions of figure/ground relationships.

COFA2287
A History of Printmaking
Staff Contact: Head, School of Art History and Theory
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10
This subject is designed to give students the opportunity to learn about the art of printmaking through a critical analysis of the works and attitudes of artist printmakers. It will take the form of an historical overview of printmaking from the 15th century to the end of the 19th century, the emphasis being placed on European prints. It is designed to enable students to become familiar with developments in printmaking practice in the 20th century through the work of key practitioners. The interaction of printmaking with other art practices such as painting and photography will be explored as will the influence of the various commercial print technologies.

COFA2296
Art, Technology and New Media
Staff Contact: Head, School of Art History and Theory
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10
This subject explores the ways in which artists have responded to developments in technology and new media. A range of practices are examined from digital media to holography to techno-performance. In addition to investigating the work of specific artists, the subject investigates the ways in which museums and galleries are responding to the demands of new media and developing new strategies of presentation. The subject will also introduce a range of theoretical work on new media and on virtual reality. In particular it will debate the nature of 'virtual' experience, examining the temporal and spatial implications of operating within a 'virtual' environment. The subject incorporates a certain amount of hands-on experience and also demonstrations of artists' work.

Study Commitment

The Course

The Bachelor of Art Education is a four-year full-time degree course designed to meet the community's need for art and design educators in secondary schools and related institutions. The course incorporates flexibility in its structure in order that students may develop their individual potential as future art educators in a variety of roles, since secondary art teachers are required to fulfill many and varied responsibilities. They may function essentially as art critics and historians, practical art producers, art education specialists or they may operate within the school situation as generalists whose interests cover the visual arts, crafts and design as a whole. The opportunity exists within the course for students to focus on any of these roles.

The course also provides for students who wish to be practising art educators outside the high school area.

It is possible to complete the Bachelor of Art Education with honours. Students may apply for entry into the honours program at the beginning of session 5, though later year entry can be made under special circumstances. Students must have a fail free record and a distinction average in Core Studies in Art Education in sessions 3, 4, 5 and 6. Subjects

Core Studies

COFA4001
Child Growth and Development
S1 HPW2 CP10
The aim of the subject is to extend the student's understanding of children thus enabling wider decisions to be taken in respect of teaching and learning in the Primary School, particularly in the area of Art Education.

Theories of development, the determinants of development and approaches to studying development will be introduced. Physical, motor, cognitive, language, personal, social and moral development from birth to twelve years will be studied, including common patterns of development and the range of variations in development.

COFA4002
Adolescent Growth and Development
S1 HPW2 CP10
This subject fosters the prospective teacher's awareness of developmental processes and its relevance to education. It encourages a developmental perspective for the observation and understanding of secondary school pupils. Opportunity is given to exercise the skills of observation and reflection and to relate these to classroom practices and to current theoretical constructions about adolescence.

Aspects of adolescent development studies include biological, personality, social, cognitive and moral. The ideas of theorists such as Erikson, Piaget, Kohlberg and Bandura are examined at relevant points in the subject.

COFA4004
Foundations of Art Education
S1 HPW3 CP10
This introductory subject in art education provides students with the opportunity to examine basic concepts and issues in art educational theory and practice.

The subject uses a modular structure to consider introductory concepts, performances and values of art education through an examination of the contributing disciplines of philosophy, sociology and psychology as they affect education and art education both, in international and Australian contexts. Students will be introduced to a range of theorists including Bruner, Broudy, Dewey, Skinner, Neill and Smith and will examine material which is fundamental to the structure of the field of art education together with more speculative contributions including work by Wolpe, Grundy, Apple and Connell.

COFA4005
Teacher Development 1
S1 or S2 HPW3 CP10
This subject focuses on the planning, teaching and evaluation of school-based teaching/learning episodes. It provides a beginner's model for teaching practice and partly through micro-teaching sessions, develops students' competencies in basic skills for teaching. Some correlation is made with the subject, Child Growth and Development and Foundations of Art Education.

The subject is an overview of the teaching/learning process. Participants will plan objectives, consider resources and select learning experiences. They will also consider teaching strategies and evaluation of the teaching/learning situation.

COFA4010
Curriculum Studies in Art Education 1
S2 HPW3 CP10
This subject introduces students to traditional and contemporary concepts of and practices in curriculum. Using the four components of teacher, student, subject and setting as a framework students will develop art education curriculum proposals.

Through a combination of lectures, seminars and workshops the subject will look at factors that shape and influence secondary school curriculum.

COFA4011
Curriculum Studies in Art Education 2
S1 or S2 HPW3 CP10
Prerequisite: Curriculum Studies in Art Education 1

• where absences in excess of 3 classes occur, students may be given a fail grade (FL).

Selection of Major Studies in Core Subjects in Visual Arts
Following the completion of Introductory Studies in Session 1, placement of students in core study majors will be based on the Aggregate of Session 1 subjects and student preferences.
Students will be allocated to the highest preference that their Aggregate determines.

Failures
Students who fail a subject would repeat that subject or its equivalent.

Students who fail an Introductory Study in Session 1 will progress to Session 2 in the following manner:
(a) Where a core subject is offered in only one session students who fail will be required repeat that subject in the first available session.
(b) Students may take additional elective subjects in the following session to maintain Credit Points but will not be permitted to enrol in a major strand where the student has outstanding/failed pre-requisites.

Progression Rules
Where a student wishes to change their major study at the end of session two, approval will be given provided that:
(a) The student would have otherwise been eligible under the criteria set for the allocation of students to major disciplines;
(b) There are places available in the discipline area nominated;
(c) The student has satisfactorily completed a studio elective subject in the discipline area of the new choice, at distinction level or above;
(d) Where there are more applications for change than places in a given major the student’s result in their studio elective will be used to establish a priority list.
The Course

The Bachelor of Design is a 4 year degree with the opportunity to undertake honours study. This course will provide an education to students who wish to enter a range of different areas of the design profession, for example: design studios, advertising agencies, illustration, publications, interiors, theatre, exhibitions, festivals, display fittings and furnishings, decorative and applied design, film, television production and post-production.

In Year 1 students will be involved in a comprehensive and intensive range of 2D, 3D and 4D (or time based) experiences as well as the acquisition of historical, theoretical and technological skills and understandings. These include studying human individuals, society, the environment, and the application of computer skills to design.

In Years 2 and 3 students will extend their work on projects integrating the following: design in graphics/media, applied/object design and the design of environments. Historical, theoretical and technological contexts will be applied.

In Year 4 students' projects will integrate design studies and a period of work experience into a graduation project/exhibition.

This course recognises the College of Fine Arts' particular strengths, resources and requirements to provide an undergraduate course which places emphasis on an integrated approach rather than on narrow vocational specialisations. These strengths are its technology and applied arts base and its relationship with industry, its subjects in visual arts, art education and art theory, and the ability to offer design from a creative and flexible base.

Core Subjects

COFA5110
Design Studio Projects: Materials, Equipment and Processes
F HPW12 CP60
Corequisite: COFA5111

The aim of this subject is to introduce and demonstrate the multi-disciplinary and integrated nature of the design process. Students will be involved in a variety of projects which address the acquisition of basic design concepts and the language, and the materials, techniques and processes by which they are expressed. These projects will initially concentrate on mark-making and its potential as an element in 2D design. Following the development of these understandings, subsequent projects will incorporate 3D forms, spatial and temporal considerations through sequential imagery.

COFA5111
Design Seminar 1
F HPW2 CP10
Corequisite: COFA5110

In this subject students will be introduced to an analytical process whereby theoretical and philosophical understandings outlined in Contextual Studies are applied to the creative solution of a design problem. Further, students will be involved in critical analysis of solutions derived in order to develop the capacity to evaluate different design approaches.

COFA5112
History, Theory and Aesthetics of Design 1
F HPW2 CP10

The aim of this subject is to discuss and analyse work by different designers and artists to elucidate issues applicable to the aesthetics of design. The issues include:

- the idiosyncratic nature of certain designers' and artists' practices;
- basic philosophies of structures and materials as they are expressed as an element of design;
- the interrelationships of form, space, movement and time;
- simple structures, geometric forms and spaces as design elements;
- the experience of spaces and forms perceived through movement.

COFA5113
Interactive Systems Design and Responsible Management of the Environment
F HPW2 CP10

The aim of this subject is to introduce and develop understandings about patterns of human habitation. The relationship between 'nature' and society is examined in the context of pressures on resources, both past and present, for their implications for the quality of life. Students will develop moral and ethical frameworks within which to evaluate problems and define strategies for solutions.

Further, to continue investigation of notions about interrelationships of 'nature', society and the urban environment, and the need for responsibility in formulating models and strategies for the future. Socio-political processes are evaluated for their adequacy to respond to human aspirations and objectives and the design of alternatives is explored.

COFA5114
Design and Human Functioning: The Body at Work
F HPW2 CP10

The aim of this subject is to introduce students to basic concepts in psychological studies and their application in the design context. These concepts may include:

- the psychology of perception,
- theoretical approaches to the analysis of human behaviour as it relates to design,
- anatomy,
- anthropometrics, measurement of the physical and functional characteristics of the human body,
- analysis and measurement of the relationship between the human body and the design of the macro and micro environment.

COFA5115
Drawing: Object, Life and Landscape
S1 or S2 HPW3 CP10

This subject investigates the processes of drawing and rendering recognizable forms. Students will examine the human form, landscapes and objects in terms of structure, proportion, movement and surface qualities.

COFA5116
Introduction to Computers
S1 or S2 HPW3 CP10

This subject will introduce students to the computer, its languages and its potential as a design tool. They will develop basic computer literacy, keyboard skills and a variety of graphic techniques and skills.
The subject will also develop understandings and skills in:

- word processing;
- spreadsheet;

COFA5210
Design Studio: Graphics/Media 1
F HPW4 CP20
Prerequisite: COFA5110
Corequisite: COFA5211, COFA5212 & COFA5213

The aim of this subject is to develop students' perceptual awareness through observing objects, photographing and drawing them as pattern and diagram on a flat surface. Freehand and technical drawing will be explored in the development of plan, section and elevation, together with acquiring understandings of compositional possibilities in the use of black/white, positive/negative relationships and colour theory. These understandings will be applied to graphics projects resulting in finished artwork such as is used for poster design and other advertising.

Further, students will develop an ability to identify, analyse and resolve more complex design problems as well as experience coping with various tasks and challenges simultaneously. Students will undertake projects which require them to synthesize a variety of understandings, materials and processes, extending their skills in illustration, rendering and perspective to explore the potential for graphics design. Students identify projects which arise from understandings acquired in Contextual Studies, and will experience teamwork as a means of understanding the roles of communication and organisation in the design process. 2D & 3D CAD, materials and techniques in sculpture or those undertaken as individual research in the Core Options will also be applied in these projects.

CCOFA5211
Design Studio: Applied 1
F HPW4 CP20
Prerequisite: COFA5110
Corequisite: COFA5210, COFA5212 & COFA5213

The aim of this subject is to develop students' perceptual awareness through cutting, folding and joining flat materials to make the simple geometric solids. The process whereby flat flexible materials are transformed into structure is analysed for the inherent principles involved. These solids are then arranged in space and drawn freehand progressively employing tone, texture and colour to represent 3D form. The conceptual, material and sculptural understandings gained are used to develop designs in the decorative and applied arts.

Further, students will develop an awareness of compound forms. Projects will focus on various aspects of the fabricated environment, and students will construct models to examine the interrelationship of materials and fabrication techniques in their application to design. Students will undertake projects which require them to synthesize a variety of understandings, materials and processes, extending their skills in developing sculptural forms. Students identify projects which arise from understandings acquired in Contextual Studies, and will experience teamwork as a means of understanding the roles of communication and organisation in the design process. 2D & 3D CAD, materials and techniques in sculpture or those undertaken as individual research in the Core Options will also be applied in these projects.

COFA5212
Design Studio: Environments 1
F HPW4 CP20
Prerequisite: COFA5110
Corequisite: COFA5210, COFA5211 & COFA5123

The aim of this subject is to develop students' awareness of space, scale and movement. The principles of perspective drawing are introduced and investigated through freehand and mechanically constructed drawing. The ways in which horizontal and vertical planes define and articulate space are explored through scale drawings and models of simple spaces. Students analyse and record by video, and series of freehand drawings, their perception of movement through a sequence of spaces. Analysis of the conceptual and material understandings gained are then applied to integrating the aesthetic, spatial and functional aspects of connected volumes as for exhibition, theatrical or promotional events.

COFA5213
Design Seminar 2
F HPW2 CP10
Prerequisite: COFA5111
Corequisite: COFA5210, COFA5211 & COFA5212

In this subject students will continue to be involved in an analytical process whereby theoretical and philosophical understandings generated in Contextual Studies are applied to the creative solution of a design problem. Further, students will be involved in the critical analysis of the process and solutions derived in order to develop the capacity to evaluate different design approaches and solutions. Students will be expected to articulate such evaluations.

COFA5214
History, Theory and Aesthetics of Design 2
F HPW2 CP10
Prerequisite: COFA5112

From general understandings gained in History, Theory and Aesthetics of Design 1, more complex notions about form, space and movement are used to develop aesthetic understandings about the constructed and 'natural' environments. Students' understanding of the history of society as it relates to these is expanded to encompass considerations of the characteristics and relationships between internal and external spaces. This is undertaken through a process of tracing design issues through different periods and movements to reveal the manner in which they have been expressed.
COFA5215
Design and Social Theory
F HPW2 CP10
The aim of this subject is to introduce students to theoretical areas, such as sociology, and to explore their application in the design context. Concepts will be presented to assist in the analysis of the behaviour of social groups and target populations and issues such as 'green design'. Social responsibility and the ideology of the image will be explored. Students will be actively involved in observation, analysis and speculation concerning the social factors present in all aspects of the design process.

The Course

The Bachelor of Art Theory is a three year degree, with a fourth honours year, constructed to provide intensive study of art histories and theories, as well as to address the nexus between art theory, art practice and 'the art industry'. It will provide an education for those wishing to find employment as gallery curators, arts administrators, art consultants, art project officers, art writers and critics, as well as for those who wish to work as artists/theorists.

Graduates from the Bachelor of Art Theory will have the ability to make informed critical judgements about various forms of visual culture, with a particular emphasis on understanding the visual arts and historical/theoretical interpretation. Graduates will have benefited from the opportunity to combine their core theoretical and historical studies with studio-based subjects in art, craft and design and to draw on a wide range of electives offered within the University. They will have gained an understanding of, and experience in, the 'arts industry', ranging from public and commercial galleries and art museums, to journals and government funding bodies.

There are three components to the Bachelor of Art Theory:

Historical and Theoretical Studies are core subjects in which students gain an understanding of the major methodological tools and concerns in Art History. These subjects provide a framework for other studies in the degree.

Professional Contexts are core subjects which explore the institutional contexts in which art is exhibited, catalogued, collected, interpreted, evaluated and promoted. Although careers within the arts-related professions frequently require further study, these subjects provide 'hands-on' experience in writing and publishing, curating, and the avenues for funding, culminating in the Industry Placement.

Electives allow students to tailor their studies to their specific interests and career aspirations. While some students will seek to focus and deepen their studies, other will choose electives across a broad range of art and design subjects and subjects offered by the School of Art History and Theory and other schools and faculties of the University. General Education subjects contribute to the broad educational objectives of the degree.

Subjects

General Education

Students are required as part of their studies, to complete 112 hours of study in General Education subjects or their equivalent.

Core Subjects

The Bachelor of Art Theory degree is constructed around an integrated strand of Core Subjects. The Core Subjects provide intensive study in art histories, theories and philosophies as well as the institutional contexts in which art is exhibited, catalogued, published and promoted. Students enrol in four Core subjects Session 1, three in Session 2 and two in Sessions 3, 4, 5 and 6, totalling 15 subjects. The sequence of Core Subjects taken is subject to approval by the School.

Prerequisites

One or both of COFA2001 Art History and Theory 1; Mapping the Modern and/or COFA2002 Art History and Theory 2: Mapping the Postmodern and one or both of COFA6005 Theories of the Image and/or COFA6010 Theories of Art History and Culture are prerequisites for all other core subjects.

Elective subjects

Electives can be chosen from Art History/Theory electives (see subject descriptions on page ?? of this Handbook); Studio electives (see subject descriptions on page ?? of this handbook); and approved electives offered by the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences. Where Studio subjects are chosen, students must complete a strand comprising no less than three electives in a particular subject. Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences subjects may be taken as electives, subject to prerequisite requirements, or as a major sequence, defined as an approved progression of six subjects in a school or program.

Graduating Students' Exhibition

Students are permitted to exhibit in the Graduating Students' Exhibition with a copy of final year Research Papers submitted for display in the Library during the period of the Exhibition.

Core Studies: History and Theory Stream

COFA2001
Art History and Theory 1: Mapping the Modern
Staff Contact: Dr Alan Krell
S1 HPW4 CP10
This subject examines the production of art, art theory and art's meanings within changing social, political and cultural contexts. Commencing with the nineteenth-century and concluding with the outbreak of World War II. Mapping the Modern looks at different modes of visual representation ranging from Realism, Symbolism and Expressionism to early twentieth-century avant-gardes such as Futurism, Dada and Surrealism. These are considered against the backdrop of industrialisation, technological transformations, colonisation and international conflicts.

COFA2002
Art History and Theory 2: Mapping the Postmodern
Staff Contact: Dr David McNeill
S2 HPW4 CP10
Commencing with the art of totalitarian regimes, and tracing the transformations in art practice and theory from the 1940s to the present. Mapping the Postmodern examines major forms of cultural production in relation to changing social, political and economic patterns. Issues relating to Formalism, Pop, image and text, the 'de-materialisation' of art, and performance are addressed, as well as Feminist theories and practice, post-colonial culture, international exhibitions and the new technologies.

COFA6005
Theories of the Image
Staff Contact: Graham Forsyth
S1 HPW3 CP15
An introduction to ways of understanding and evaluating the making, reception and theoretical understandings of images in our culture. Different cultures and historical periods have treated images in radically different ways with different ways of understanding the way images relate to their producer(s), viewer(s) and to the world. There is also a philosophical concern with the nature of the image, how it is able to have meaning, to represent at all. How are we able to read images? Is it a natural process or culturally determined? These issues will be addressed by critically examining the different ways of understanding the artistic image in Western and Non-western arts, and in crucial developments in Western art history (including Renaissance perspective: the invention of photography: photo-mechanical reproduction: Modernism and abstraction: and feminist critiques).
COFA6010
Theories of Art History and Culture
Staff Contact: Dr Fay Brauer
S2 HPW3 CP15

Introduces art history and cultural analysis as forms of narrative, which aim to explain and integrate cultural objects into historical or other order. Draws upon and critically assesses the key methodologies [such as connoisseurship, periodisation, formalism, iconography, historicism and historical materialism, social history, psychoanalysis, semiotics, high culture/popular culture, ethnocentrism, and feminism]. These methodologies will be examined by reference to such historians as Wolfflin, Panofsky, Gombrich, Baxandall, Fry, Antal, Clark, and Pollock.

COFA6016
Approaches to Australian Art
Staff Contact: Dr Joanna Mendelssohn
S1 HPW3 CP15

This subject introduces some of the preoccupations of Australian art in the years since colonisation. Issues to be discussed include: the notion of the artist as a recorder in the 19th century and a tourist in the 20th; the search for a “Great” Australian artist; national identity and art; links between art and commerce; the idea of “modern” in an Australian context; and attempts to place Australian art in an international context.

COFA6015
Grand Narratives of Western Art
Staff Contact: Dr Fay Brauer
S1 HPW3 CP15

To tell progressive stories of art, ‘grand narratives’ have been formed in Western histories of art which have entailed ordering a selection of historical material into Eurocentric and ethnocentric evolutions. This subject is constructed to cut across wide historical fields and their periodisations to critically examine how these ‘grand narratives’ have been formed in western art and its histories. It sets out to focus upon the nature of historical material constituted as evidence for such ‘grand narratives’ as ‘classicism’ from Ancient Greece to Nazi Germany, mimesis in terms of ‘illusionism’ involving the Renaissance control of space and direction of the gaze. It will also explore the geopolitical nature of representing the environment through such genres as ‘landscape’ and ‘cityscape’, formations of gender, sexuality and the body through images of ‘the nude’, and notions of race as insinuated through such stylistic classifications as ‘orientalism’ and ‘primitivism’, and their connections with Western connotations of exoticism as eroticism.

COFA6030
Art and Cultural Difference
Staff Contact: Dr Diane Losche
S2 HPW3 CP15

The conceptualisation of difference, diversity and multiplicity, both within and across cultural boundaries, has occupied a central position in the historical trajectory of Art, particularly since the end of World War II and the advent of a variety of neo and postcolonialisms. Topics covered include the relationship of theories of ethnicity, gender, race, class, culture, knowledge and power to the complex history and practices of art. These will be addressed by critically examining Adorno, Benjamin, Freud, Irigaray and Marx, and theorists and artists of colonial struggle such as Khahlo, Rivera, Sartre and Fanon. The implications for art of such contemporary issues as multiculturalism will also be included.

COFA6035
Art and the Culture of ‘Everyday Life’
Staff Contact: Graham Forsyth
S2 HPW3 CP15

This subject examines the major structures and ways of thinking which have both constituted and transformed the practices of art, and criticism and evaluation of art in an era characterised by the pervasiveness of mass media and the aestheticization of everyday life. The subject explores the forms and significance of popular culture in the 20th century, focussing on such phenomena as consumerism, mass media, TV and advertising, subcultures, the city and the suburb. The interdisciplinary development of cultural studies provides tools for reading artistic strategies in the light of television, film, computer imaging, the popular press and advertising. The work of theorists such as Jean Baudrillard, Michel de Certeau and Meaghan Morris is applied to these areas and critically examined.

COFA6036
Theories of Meaning / Meaning of Theory
Staff Contact: Dr David McNeill
S1 HPW3 CP15

This subject will re-examine a number of theoretical approaches to the understanding of images and objects that have been addressed during the course. These approaches will be applied to a range of artworks produced in Australia and Internationally over the last decade or so. It will offer an overview of many of the contemporary developments, themes and issues that have concerned artists in the period up to and beyond postmodernism. Issues to be considered include: how objects and images come to have meaning; the ways in which artworks differ from other objects; the relations between language and visual images; the ways images and objects can be seen and the sort of viewer(s) they imply; the different forms of perceptual ‘address’ that we bring to artworks, including visual, tactile and kinaesthetic; and the significance of art images and objects in relation to the politics of information dissemination, gender, postcolonialism, class and ethnicity.

Core Studies: Professional Contexts Stream

COFA6105
Audiences for Art
Staff Contact: Dr Alan Krell
S1 HPW3 CP15

The subject exposes students to the different types of contemporary art exhibited locally – in public galleries, dealer galleries, contemporary art spaces, artist run initiatives, community centres and 'non-art' spaces such as shopping malls. Designed to reflect the diversity both of art and the institutions through which it is viewed, this subject is structured around an examination of works 'in situ'. Students are encouraged to engage with work in relation to specific contexts, to consider issues of taste and value and how these are mediated by place and modes of display.

COFA6110
The Production of Art
Staff Contact: Dr Jill Bennett
S2 HPW3 CP15

The emphasis in this subject is on a 'behind the scenes' exposition of art. It looks critically at the processes by which visual art is made available to viewing publics. These processes take into account a range of concerns (practical, strategic, ideological) that vary widely between institutions. Students are introduced to various professional art practices, through the processes of curating, managing, catalogue writing and production, exhibition display and handling of works. The infrastructure of the 'art industry', including the administration of State Museums and other art organisations, such as funding bodies, are presented as a subject for practical purposes, as well as critical consideration.

COFA6115
Genres of Art Writing
Staff Contact: Dr Joanna Mendelssohn
S2 HPW3 CP15

This subject examines different genres of writing on the visual arts, with an emphasis on contemporary practices. Newspaper reviews, journal criticism, scholarly catalogue essays, 'in house' catalogue notes, 'coffee table' art books and collaborative works between artists and writers are studied in terms of their connections to other genres of writing (for example 'journalese', fictional narrative, descriptive prose). The subject looks at these writings within specific cultural fields and their assumed sets of values. It also demonstrates how such categories play an active role in the shaping and production of meanings in art. Students also become participants in the writing, editing and design of the School of Art Theory's magazine, Artwrite.

COFA6120
Methods of Research and Writing on Art
Staff Contact: Graham Forsyth
S2 HPW3 CP15

This subject is primarily concerned with the teaching of skills necessary to conduct specific research projects. The focus is on methods of researching primary material as well as locating archival documentation, in order to evaluate and effectively utilise different forms of visual and theoretical 'evidence' for research projects. Topics include field work methods, such as oral history, together with knowledge of indexing procedures, statistical analysis and the utilisation of computer resources, as well as critical methodologies for appraising research material. The subject also includes topics to address the logical construction of 'a valid argument', the rhetorical promises of different genres of writing and the delineation of ideas.

COFA6046
Contexts, Professions and Practices
Staff Contact: Felicity Fenner
S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

This subject orientates students towards professional practice in arts administration, curatorship, writing and other arts-related professions. Students will critically consider the 'professionalisation' of the arts, and the notion of the arts and cultural 'industries'. They will investigate the nature of employment and practice, drawing on theoretical and case study approaches. They will examine the idea of professional skills, and have the opportunity to utilise some skills and knowledge-based tasks, such as developing exhibition and funding proposals, preparing budgets and reports, developing marketing and promotion strategies, preparing education and/or public programs, and seeking sponsorships. The aims of the subject are to prepare students for the Industry Placement, to help clarify career goals, to give students an understanding of professional practice, and to ensure that they develop the confidence in their preparation for working in the arts.

COFA6125
Industry Placement
Staff Contact: Dr Joanna Mendelssohn
S2 CP20

This subject is designed to give students 'hands-on' experience in a particular area of professional practice. In consultation with the subject co-ordinator, students are placed into an institutional framework for a specified period of time. This could be a commercial gallery, museum, artist run initiative, artist's studio or arts funding body. The student shall carry out one project while at the institution, and prepare a report at the end of the session on the placement.

Honours

Application for entry to the BArtTh Honours program is normally made in Session 6. The Honours program consists of a 4th year which is comprised of two Honours Seminars and a Thesis. Students must achieve no less than an average of 70% in Core subjects in Sessions 4, 5 and 6. Applicants who have completed an appropriate degree within the previous ten years at the College of Fine Arts or another institution, and satisfied all prerequisites, may apply to be admitted to the Honours year of the Bachelor of Art Theory.
Honours Seminars

COFA6140
Specialist Studies
Staff Contact: Dr Fay Brauer
S1 HPW3 CP20
This subject offers intensive investigation of theoretical writing, period, issue or theme. In consultation with a supervisor and the Honours co-ordinator, and subject to the approval of the Head of School, students may undertake Specialist Studies by attending and satisfying the requirements of another UNSW subject at an appropriate level.

COFA6141
Thesis
Staff Contact: Dr Fay Brauer
CP80
A research thesis of 15,000 words, or equivalent research project (for example, in curatorship), on an approved topic. Students are expected to consult with the Honours Coordinator in February about their topics and arrange supervision with a member of staff no later than mid-March, when work on the thesis should commence. Throughout the year students are expected to work closely with their supervisors and attend occasional thesis workshops.

COFA6142
Research Methodologies in Art History and Theory
Staff Contact: Professor Sue Rowley
S1 HPW3 CP20
This subject offers approaches to research design and methodology in the visual arts and culture. It critically examines the different ways of conceiving the domain, functions and definitions of art history to ultimately provide a diversity of tools for the construction of an Honours Thesis or project.

Structure of Course

The course is structured into three subject strands:

Core Studies: 205 credit points
Contextual Studies: 130 credit points
General Education: 30 credit points

The Core Studies are designed to help students explore the relationship between ideas, materials and processes. The intention in the Foundation Studio is to assist students to develop knowledge and skill in solving fundamental artistic problems through drawing, colour theory and craft design. Since drawing is basic to all artistic activity, students will be encouraged to use drawing to assist them in developing their ideas and to help them improve their creative problem solving strategies using media. All students in Year 1 complete a common core of studies.

In Year 2 students will elect a major sequence in their specialist study from textiles, ceramics or jewellery. Specialist subjects are identified under the title Design Craft with each of the specialist studies focusing upon knowledge, skills and understanding that will assist students to prepare as professional craft artists. Prospective students should check with the School. To assist students to gain knowledge and technical information about the science and technology of material and help them better understand the structure, workability and composition of materials, the School of Materials Science and Engineering contributes subjects to the course. The school offers, within the Core Studies, the subject Materials and Techniques in Design Craft 1 (Session 3. Year 2) as an introductory subject dealing with the science and technology of textiles, clay and associated materials, and metal. A second subject, Materials and Techniques in Design Craft 2 will allow students to elect one of either textiles, clay and associated materials or metal. Students will select the second subject that supports their specialist design craft study in textiles, ceramics or jewellery. Therefore, students majoring in textiles will enrol in the textiles strand of Materials and Techniques in Design Craft 2.

Contextual Studies provide students with fundamental and elective studies in history and theory of the craft arts, practical studies and professional development. The history and theory subjects aim to provide students with knowledge, appreciation and critical appraisal of specified historical achievements in European and non-European cultures by studying the applied arts within the social, economic and political context of those selected cultures.

The third strand, General Education Studies, are designed to meet University requirements for a General Education Program in undergraduate courses.

Honours Component

A student who has completed the second year of the full-time course with superior performance may make written application to the Head of School to enrol in the Honours subject in the third year, COFA7201 Project A (Honours), in addition to their normal program. A student who then achieves a high level of academic performance in the overall third year program may be admitted to the fourth year Honours program. The content of the Honours year subjects, COFA7202 Project B (Honours) and COFA7203 Research in the Applied Arts, will be planned in collaboration with the students' Project Supervisor.

Normally, students in the fourth year will be expected to complete the Honours year requirements in one academic year, terminating with the submission of a Project. The Project may be in the form of a thesis or exhibition or some combination as determined in consultation with the Project Supervisor and, where appropriate, the Head of School.

Applied Arts Study Electives

Elective studies will deal in-depth with issues of a theoretical nature concerning the craft arts in historical, contemporary and future-oriented social perspectives and in the application of theory to practice. Studio-oriented electives will include a theoretical examination of the nature of practice and critical inquiry that will extend knowledge, skill and understanding. Elective studies are organised into Group A (studio-oriented studies) and Group B (theoretically-oriented studies). Students will select a total of 3 subjects from both groups of which only 2 can be selected from Group A. Elective studies will be made available in Sessions 3, 4 and 5 and it is assumed selection will be made on the basis of availability, interest, relevance to core studies, ability to connect to other arts disciplinary areas or vocational relevance. Subjects in the Applied Arts Study Electives are not offered each year and students will need to consult the School to ascertain subject offerings in a particular year.

Project B (Honours) Full Year
F HPW6 CP90
Students accepted into the fourth year of the course (Honours) will be required to complete a research and development project in their specialist craft art area leading to a major presentation/exhibition. The project will need to be fully documented (words/visuals) and the documentation presented as an additional record. This record should identify a research area, methods for investigating the particular creative process and findings. The project will include regular meetings/discussions with a supervisor. At regular periods over the academic year members of the School will be invited to participate in some of these discussions to provide feedback. The project must be approved by the Head of School or the Head of School nominee.

Methods of research and planning a special project will also be discussed. Topics for examination will include: the historical perspective within which an examination and critical appraisal of contemporary crafts may be conducted; the relevance of contemporary craft arts within the broader visual arts field; the handmade object; critical writing in the craft arts; and the changing role of the craft artist in society.
Objectives of the General Education Program

The following objectives were approved by the Council of the University in December 1994:
1. To provide a learning environment in which students acquire, develop, and deploy skills of rational thought and critical analysis;
2. To enable students to evaluate arguments and information;
3. To empower students to systematically challenge received traditions of knowledge, beliefs and values;
4. To enable students to acquire skills and competencies, including written and spoken communication skills;
5. To ensure that students examine the purposes and consequences of their education and experience at University, and to foster acceptance of professional and ethical action and the social responsibility of graduates;
6. To foster among students the competence and the confidence to contribute creatively and responsibly to the development of their society;
7. To provide structured opportunities for students from disparate disciplines to co-operatively interact within a learning situation;
8. To provide opportunities for students to explore discipline and paradigm bases other than those of their professional or major disciplinary specialisation through non-specialist subjects offered in those other areas;
9. To provide an environment in which students are able to experience the benefits of moving beyond the knowledge boundaries of a single discipline and explore cross- and interdisciplinary connections;
10. To provide a learning environment and teaching methodology in which students can bring the approaches of a number of disciplines to bear on a complex problem or issue.

General Education requirements

The basic General Education requirements are the same for students in all single degree courses. Over the course of a degree program students:
• satisfactorily complete a minimum of 30 credit points of study in General Education subjects or their equivalent;
• undertake an additional fifty-six (56) hours of study which ensures that students examine the purposes and consequences of their education and experience at university, and fosters acceptance of professional and ethical action and social responsibility. This fifty-six hours of study may be distributed throughout the course, or exist as a separate subject, depending on the course.

Because the objectives of General Education require students to explore discipline and paradigm bases other than those of their professional or major disciplinary specialisation, all students are excluded from counting subjects toward the fulfilment of the General Education requirement, which are similar in content or approach to subjects required in their course.

Faculty requirements

Each faculty has responsibility for deciding what subjects are not able to be counted towards the General Education requirement for their students. College of Fine Arts students are required to undertake their General Education in other Faculties of the University. The Graduate Lecture introduces students to a range of ideas, attitudes and philosophies by exposing them to the views of a variety of distinguished artists, critics and art administrators, often from overseas.

Assessment is based on attendance, participation and satisfying of project requirements.

Project Requirements for the Graduate Lecture
(a) written assignment 1,000-1,500 words based on published list of assignment topics; or
(b) participation in formation and presentation of graduate lecture forum session.

Modernism/Postmodernism – Colonialism/Post Colonialism
Staff Contact: Dr David McNeill
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP12
Through an exploration of aesthetic theory and critical writing, this subject considers the complexities of such all embracing terms as modernism and postmodernism. An understanding of particular writers, theorists and artists, their historical contexts together with their discourses and debates is encouraged through an examination of a range of topics. These include modernism and the representations of modern life, modernism vs Communism and Fascism, modernism as Formalism, power/knowledge and deconstruction, centre and otherness, feminisms, post-industrialisation.
The Art and Culture of Everyday Life

S1 or S2 HPW2 CP12
This subject looks critically at the different formulations of art in relation to mass culture. It gives an overview of the social and technological development of mass culture including the advent of photography, film, television, advertising and the 'popular' press. Special attention is paid to the ways in which the relationship between art and mass culture has been conceptualised by such seminal thinkers as Michel de Certeau, Fernand Braudel, Paul Virilo and Jean Baudrillard.

Theories of Subjectivity and the Body
Staff Contact: Dr Jill Bennett
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP12
This subject will explore the ways in which our culture produces us as social subjects and as sexual identities. It will investigate the social construction of norms, taboos and perversions, covering such issues as sadism, masochism, incest and pornography. Particular attention will be paid to the role of visual culture in both the maintenance and subversion of norms. We will draw upon the work of a variety of theorists (Michel Foucault, Jacques Lacan, Sigmund Freud, Giles Deleuze, Kaja Silverman, the Marquis de Sade, Judith Butler, Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick and contemporary Queer theorists), in addition to discussing various artists and film makers.

Art and Cultural Difference
Staff Contact: Dr Diane Losche
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP12
The conceptualisation and evaluation of cultural difference has occupied a central position in western art and culture, particularly since the period of colonisation began. This subject sees cultural difference as a series of narratives and counter-narratives. Topics covered include the ways in which cultural difference has been addressed in art and literature by colonised subjects, the place of art in anti-colonial liberation movements of the twentieth century and French constructions of the Orient in sculpture and painting. Particular attention is paid to the writings of, among others, Walter Benjamin, Theodor Adorno, Luce Irigaray and Franz Fanon.

Current Issues in Art
Staff Contact: Head, School of Art History and Theory
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP12
This subject explores current issues in art, placing these issues in the contexts of current cultural concerns and theoretical frameworks. Drawing on recent work by Australian and international artists, the subject facilitates an attitude of self-reflexivity in students' own practice.

Pornography, Art and Politics
Staff Contact: Dr Jill Bennett
S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15
This subject will explore the boundary between art and pornography and the social function of that boundary in western society. It will look at the ways in which bodies are eroticised and/or designated as 'pornographic' or perverse. Concepts such as fetishization, voyeurism, sadism and masochism will be discussed in relation to art history and contemporary art practice. The politics of pornography will be debated in relation to such issues as gender/feminism, child sexuality, censorship and AIDS.

The degree recognises the significant changes that are taking place in the cultural sphere and prepares students for future employment in areas both inside and outside the traditional gallery/museum context. Practical, analytical and theoretical skills are developed in a program that emphasises vocational training within a wider cultural and critical framework.

It is intended that students graduating from this course will be equipped with the skills necessary to function in managerial, administrative, curatorial, art writing and other professional capacities within the visual arts industry.

The course consists of lectures, seminars and hands-on activities, a 10,000 word research paper and an industry placement of no less than 180 hours. Each subject normally requires attendance at a 3 hour lecture plus related research and assignment work. The research paper draws on the experiences of the internship but is an independent, supervised project that involves a time commitment at least equivalent to other core subjects.

Subjects

Core Subjects

COFA8120
Management and Organisation: Systems, Services and Survival
Staff Contact: Course Co-ordinator, School of Art History and Theory
S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15
This subject examines the management and administrative skills and knowledge required from individuals to take up positions as directors and managers of arts and related organisations. It covers aspects of management and organisational structures in existing institutions both large and small, public and commercial. It includes the establishment of new organisations and the planning and development of systems designed to ensure the delivery of services and the long term survival of arts organisations and institutions, their human and material resources and the ideas and ideals which drive them.

COFA8124
Cultural Property, Ethics and the Law
Staff Contact: Course Co-ordinator, School of Art History and Theory
S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15
This subject examines the ethical and legal implications of the interactions generated between artists, exhibiting spaces and the viewing/purchasing public in contemporary society. It enables the development of a broader critical perspective on the cultural, legal, political and moral contexts of gallery and museum management. Issues discussed include contracts, copyright, acquisitions and disposal of works, moral rights and censorship, conflict of interest, the responsibilities of trustees.

COFA8129
Writing for Different Cultures and Audiences
Staff Contact: Dr Joanna Mendelssohn
S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15
This subject is about the kinds of writing that those working in art institutions most commonly undertake: writing from the perspective of the institution. It recognises that writing may have many different functions and writers must learn to adapt their style, vocabulary and technique, according to who will read the product. Questions to be considered include the current debate on captions, writing for children and non-specialist publics, research techniques including oral history, press kits and media management, and different types of catalogues. The method of study is very much 'hands on'. It involves, among other things, the editing and layout of an edition of Artwrite, a magazine of student writing.

Elective Subjects

Subject to the approval of the Course Co-ordinator, students may elect subjects offered at an appropriate level by the Schools of Art, Art Education and/or Design Studies, and/or other Faculties of the University. The following electives are offered by the School of Art History and Theory.

S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

This subject considers two areas of design development. These are the theoretical and practical aspects of exhibition design and display techniques and the specific design demands of a gallery space. The ways in which the objectives of an exhibition may be identified are discussed, and all aspects related to project initiation and completion examined. These include planning and design management, budget formulation and controls, production and installation management, spatial requirements and evaluation, light and lighting.

COFA8128
The Development of Art Criticism in Australia
Staff Contact: Dr Joanna Mendelssohn
S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

This subject examines the history of art criticism and writing about art in an Australian context and considers how these practices reflect, diagnose and affect the nature of the visual arts. There is a constant evaluation of recent art criticism from a variety of sources and a questioning of what actually constitutes criticism. COFA8140
Marketing and Promotion
Staff Contact: Course Co-ordinator, School of Art History and Theory
S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

This subject focuses on issues in marketing for those working in arts and related fields. Topics covered include methods of audience research and ways of undertaking group surveys and their implementation. How to define the unique qualities of a target institution and create a public image around this separateness are issues explored, together with detailed studies of promotional and fundraising strategies.

COFA8141
History of Exhibitions of Australian Art
Staff Contact: Dr Joanna Mendelssohn
S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

This subject introduces issues in Australian art by a detailed examination of those art exhibitions which have attempted to define either Australian art or crucial moments in Australian art. The subject examines both the curatorial rationale behind the exhibitions and the art which was perceived by different generations as significant. Major exhibitions, here and overseas, will be considered in the context of a broader cultural history.

The set texts are readily available, but students are expected to familiarise themselves with the Mitchell Library and the Art Gallery of New South Wales Library, as many of the catalogues of early exhibitions are rare books.

COFA8142
Arts and Cultural Policy
Staff Contact: Course Co-ordinator, School of Art History and Theory
S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

This subject reviews the development of arts and cultural policy and policy implementation in Australia. Particular attention is paid to the role of the Australia Council and the development of national and regional infrastructure, and factors determining the level and allocation of public funding. Comparisons are drawn with other nations, particularly the United Kingdom, Canada and the United States of America.

COFA8143
Visual and Museum Cultures of the Asia-Pacific Region
Staff Contact: Course Co-ordinator, School of Art History and Theory
S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

This subject introduces a comparative study of contemporary visual art and museum cultures in the Asia-Pacific region. As arts professionals – curators, administrators, writers, etc – develop relationships with colleagues through the region, an understanding, not only of the visual arts but also of the museum sector, is becoming essential. Case studies of international exhibitions, and related arts programs, will be examined.

COFA8146
The Australian Art Market
Staff Contact: Head, School of Art History and Theory
S1 or S2 HPW 3 CP15

This subject investigates the ‘art market’ as a process of bringing art works to sale. It offers an historical overview from the Renaissance artists’ workshops and guilds and a detailed study of contemporary Australian art. The subject explores the development of patronage, taste and collecting, and the impact of these phenomena on the subsequent rise of the international art market. The collection of Catherine the Great exemplifies the relationship between art and power, a key theme of the subject. Her massive accumulation of artworks can be understood in the context of collecting as an instrument of diplomatic and cultural legitimacy. Patronage and taste are explored through studies of The Grand Tour, Chinoiserie and the appropriation of Asian style by Europeans, and the collecting by Australian entrepreneurs in the 1980s for investment and corporate profile. Key elements in the Australian art market under investigation in this subject include the fragmentation of the art market, Australian Movable Cultural Heritage, and artistic reputation. The subject assists students to understand commodification in the art world and the processes by which artworks are brought to sale.

COFA9002
Research Methods in Art, Design and Education
S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15
The aim of this subject is to provide students with a foundation study of research with particular emphasis on issues, problems and methods relevant to art, design and art education. Subject matter will include an overview of the nature of inquiry and an investigation of the quantitative and qualitative paradigms with particular reference to different research methods used in art, design and education. Areas covered include an overview of statistical methods, measurement and testing, survey and market research, and field-based approaches such as ethnography and action research. Strategies for analysing and interpreting research and conducting literature reviews will be covered. Students' understanding of the application of research methods to the study of problems in art, design and education will be developed through the preparation

COFA9006
Theoretical Frameworks in Art, Design and Education
S1 HPW3 CP15
This subject aims to introduce students to the theoretical frameworks which form the basis for the conception of visual arts education as a distinctive field. Theoretical frameworks in art education will be explained as a largely discontinuous collection of histories. These histories are united by ruling paradigms many originating outside of the field in the human sciences, and in the practices of the visual arts. Examples include, psychoanalytical approaches to creativity, anthropological and socio-cultural studies, and cognitive theories.

COFA9004
Curriculum in Art, Design and Education
S2 HPW3 CP15
This subject will provide students with modernist and post modernist theoretical frameworks of curriculum evaluation and critique. Curriculum as an educational construct is problematised. Curricula investigations aim to reveal and interpret the force, agency and power in curriculum policy and practice. Particular reference will be made to the critical methodologies of Habermas and the genealogical archeology of Foucault as appropriate to an interpretation of the visual arts in education.

Master of Fine Arts

The Master of Fine Arts course enables students of proven ability to engage in the sustained investigation at an advanced level of an area of interest or concern in their visual arts practice. This inquiry takes the form of a supervised research project and leads to the exhibitions, performance, publication or screening of artwork/s that are complete, coherent and appropriate to the stated inquiry. The significance of the research outcomes may be the contribution of new knowledge to the fine arts, the innovation of a distinctive methodology or approach in visual arts practice, or the new application of technologies in visual arts practice. The products of the inquiry should be the creation of high quality studio based work accompanied by a written component containing documentation of the project and its development.

MFA studies are available in the discipline areas of Digital Imaging, Drawing, Film, Installation, Multimedia Computing, Painting, Performance, Photomedia, Printmedia, Sculpture, Sound, Video. Studies in a combination of discipline areas are possible. Students work under the guidance of a qualified supervisor who is usually a member of the School of Art’s full-time lecturing staff. Regular seminars are held at which MFA candidates give a presentation of their research.

Some individual on-campus studio space is available to MFA students; all general College facilities and equipment may be accessed. Research students are encouraged to take an active part in College life.

Master of Design (Honours)

MDes (Hons)

The Master of Design (Honours) is a two year full-time, or four year part-time course in design research where candidates nominate a research thesis focusing on Graphics/Media Design, or Environments Design, or Integrated design, or Design Management, or Design History/Theory. The degree is aimed at providing candidates with an opportunity to complete their approved area of research in design as a critical enquiry into the theoretical underpinnings of design process, practice and/or product. The course requires research resulting in a written thesis.

The course is individually oriented and cannot be undertaken by coursework.

The objectives of the course are:

- to provide the opportunity for designers of proven ability to undertake advanced work in design, thereby extending their creative and research capacity from the base established in undergraduate and graduate studies;
- to foster a climate which encourages speculation, experiment and soundly based working procedures;
- to promote critical reflection on the relationship between designers, their work and society;
- to encourage students to take advantage of the supportive climate of the College whilst at the same time developing those capacities required in assuming their place within the wider community as practitioners.

Studies are available in the following areas for the Master of Design (Honours):

- Graphic/Media Design including photographic and computer imaging in both still and animated formats;
- Environments Design including interiors, exhibition, theatre and garden projects;
- Integrated Design with reference to the cross disciplinary nature of studio practice and/or theory;
- Design Management/Practice with reference to the integration of design management strategies toward the development of the Australian design culture;
- Design History/Theory with reference to the application of historical and theoretical methodologies to design process and product.

5. (1) On completing the program of study a candidate shall present for examination:

(a) a thesis embodying the results of the investigation;

(b) an exhibition or appropriate presentation of work embodying the results of the investigation. This mode of presentation will include appropriate, comprehensive documentation of the project hypothesis and all stages of the studio study.

(2) The candidate shall give in writing to the College Secretary two months notice of intention to present for examination.

(3) The advanced work shall present on account of the candidate's own research. In special cases work done conjointly with other persons may be accepted, provided the Committee is satisfied on the candidate's part in the joint research.

(4) Three copies of the documentation of the advanced work shall be presented in a form which complies with the requirements of the University for the preparation and submission of theses for higher degrees.

(5) It shall be understood that the College retains the three copies of the documentation of the advanced work submitted for examination and is free to allow the documentation to be consulted or borrowed. Subject to the provisions of the Copyright Act, 1968, the College may issue the thesis in whole or in part, in photostat or microfilm or other copy medium.

Examination

6. (1) There shall be no fewer than two examiners of the advanced work, appointed by the Committee, at least one of whom shall be external to the University unless the Committee is satisfied that this is not practicable.

(2) At the conclusion of the examination each examiner shall submit to the Committee a concise report on the advanced work and shall recommend to the Committee that:
(a) The thesis or project merits the award of the degree;
(b) The thesis or project merits the award of the degree, subject to minor corrections as listed being made to the satisfaction of the Head of School;
(c) The thesis or project requires further work on matters detailed in the examiner's report. Should performance in this further work be to the satisfaction of the Higher Degree Committee, the thesis or project would merit the award of the degree;
(d) The thesis or project does not merit the award of the degree in its present form and further work as described in the examiner's report is required. The revised thesis or project should be subject to re-examination;
(e) The thesis or project does not merit the award of the degree and does not demonstrate that re-submission would be likely to achieve that merit.

(3) If the performance in the further work recommended under 6.2(c) above is not to the satisfaction of the Committee, the Committee may permit the candidate to re-present the same thesis or project and submit to further examination as determined by the Committee within a period specified by it but not exceeding eighteen months.
(4) The Committee shall, after consideration of the examiners' reports and the results of any further examination, recommend whether or not the candidate may be awarded the degree. If it is decided that the candidate be not awarded the degree the Committee shall determine whether or not the candidate be permitted to resubmit the thesis or project after a further period of study and/or research.

Fees
7. A candidate shall pay such fees as may be determined from time to time by the Council.

Conditions for the Award

1. The degree of Doctor of Philosophy may be awarded by the Council on the recommendation of the Higher Degree Committee of the College of Fine Arts (hereinafter referred to as the Committee) to a candidate who has made an original and significant contribution to knowledge.

Qualifications

2. (1) A candidate for the degree shall have been awarded an appropriate degree of Bachelor with Honours from the University of New South Wales or a qualification considered equivalent from another university or tertiary institution at a level acceptable to the Committee.

(2) In exceptional cases an applicant who submits evidence of such other academic and professional qualifications as may be approved by the Committee may be permitted to enrol for the degree.

(3) If the Committee is not satisfied with the qualifications submitted by an applicant the Committee may require the applicant to undergo such assessment or carry out such work as the Committee may prescribe, before permitting enrolment as a candidate for the degree.

Enrolment

3. (1) An application to enrol as a candidate for the degree shall be lodged with the College Secretary one month prior to the date at which enrolment is to begin.

(2) In every case before making the offer of a place the Committee shall be satisfied that initial agreement has been reached between the School and the applicant on the topic area, supervision arrangements, provision of adequate facilities and any coursework to be prescribed and that these are in accordance with the provisions of the guidelines for promoting postgraduate study within the University.

(3) The candidate shall be enrolled either as a full-time or a part-time student.

(4) A full-time candidate will present the thesis for examination no earlier than three years and no later than five years from the date of enrolment and a part-time candidate will present the thesis for examination no earlier than four years and no later than six years from the date of enrolment, except with the approval of the Committee.

(5) The candidate may undertake the research as an internal student i.e. at a campus, teaching hospital, or other research facility with which the University is associated, or as an external student not in attendance at the University except for periods as may be prescribed by the Committee.

(6) The candidate will normally carry out the research on a campus or at a teaching or research facility of the University except that the Committee may permit a candidate to spend a period in the field, within another institution or elsewhere away from the University provided that the work can be supervised in a manner satisfactory to the Committee. In such instances the Committee shall be satisfied that the location and period of time away from the University are necessary to the research program.

(7) The research shall be supervised by a supervisor and where possible a co-supervisor who are members of the academic staff of the School, or under other appropriate supervision arrangements approved by the Committee. An external candidate within another organisation or institution will have a co-supervisor at that institution.

Progression

4. (1) The progress of the candidate shall be considered by the Committee following report from the School in accordance with the procedures established within the School and previously noted by the Committee.

(2) The research proposal will be reviewed as soon as feasible after enrolment. For a full-time student this will normally be during the first year of study, or immediately following a period of prescribed coursework. This review will focus on the viability of the research proposal.

(3) Progress in the course will be reviewed within twelve months of the first review. As a result of either review the Committee may cancel enrolment or take such other action as it considers appropriate. Thereafter, the progress of the candidate will be reviewed annually.

Thesis

5. (1) On completing the program of study a candidate shall submit a thesis embodying the results of the investigation.

(2) The candidate shall give in writing to the College Secretary two months notice of intention to submit the thesis.

(3) The thesis shall comply with the following requirements:

(a) it must be an original and significant contribution to knowledge of the subject;

(b) the greater proportion of the work described must have been completed subsequent to enrolment for the degree;

(c) it must be written in English except that a candidate in the Faculty of Arts may be required by the Committee to write a thesis in an appropriate foreign language;

(d) it must reach a satisfactory standard of expression and presentation;

(e) it must consist of an account of the candidate’s own research but in special cases work done conjointly with other persons may be accepted provided the Committee is satisfied about the extent of the candidate’s part in the joint research.

(4) The candidate may not submit as the main content of the thesis any work or material which has previously been submitted for a university degree or other similar award but may submit any work previously published whether or not such work is related to the thesis.

(5) Four copies of the thesis shall be presented in a form which complies with the requirements of the University for the preparation and submission of theses for higher degrees.
(6) It shall be understood that the University retains the four copies of the thesis submitted for examination and is free to allow the thesis to be consulted or borrowed. Subject to the provisions of the Copyright Act, 1968, the University may issue the thesis in whole or in part, in photostat or microfilm or other copying medium.

Examination
6. (1) There shall be not fewer than three examiners of the thesis, appointed by the Academic Board on the recommendation of the Committee, at least two of whom shall be external to the University.

(2) At the conclusion of the examination each examiner shall submit to the Committee a concise report on the thesis and shall recommend to the Committee that:
(a) the thesis merits the award of the degree;
(b) the thesis merits the award of the degree subject to minor corrections, as listed, being made to the satisfaction of the Head of School;
(c) the thesis requires further work on matters detailed in the examiner's report. Should performance in this further work be to the satisfaction of the Higher Degree Committee, the thesis would merit the award of the degree;
(d) the thesis does not merit the award of the degree in its present form and further work as described in the examiner's report is required. The revised thesis should be subject to re-examination;
(e) the thesis does not merit the award of the degree and does not demonstrate that resubmission would be likely to achieve that merit.

(3) If the performance in the further work recommended under (2)(c) above is not to the satisfaction of the Committee, the Committee may permit the candidate to submit the thesis for re-examination as determined by the Committee within a period determined by it, but not exceeding eighteen months.

(4) After consideration of the examiners' reports and the results of any further examination of the thesis, the Committee may require the candidate to submit to written or oral examination before recommending whether or not the candidate be awarded the degree. If it is decided that the candidate be not awarded the degree, the Committee shall determine whether or not the candidate be permitted to resubmit the thesis after a further period of study and/or research.

Fees
7. A candidate shall pay such fees as may be determined from time to time by the Council.
