Arms of
THE UNIVERSITY OF
NEW SOUTH WALES

Granted by the College of Heralds, London, 3 March 1952

Heraldic Description of the Arms

Argent on a Cross Gules a Lion passant guardant between four Mullets of eight points Or a Chief Sable charged with an open Book proper thereon the word SCIENTIA in letters also Sable.

The lion and the four stars of the Southern Cross on the Cross of St George have reference to the State of New South Wales which brought the University into being; the open book with SCIENTIA across its page reminds us of its original purpose. Beneath the shield is the motto 'Manu et Mente' ('with hand and mind'), which was the motto of the Sydney Technical College, from which the University has developed. The motto is not an integral part of the Grant of Arms and could be changed at will; but it was the opinion of the University Council that the relationship with the parent institution should in some way be recorded.
Subjects, courses and any arrangements for courses including staff allocated as stated in this Handbook are an expression of intent only. The University reserves the right to discontinue or vary arrangements at any time without notice. Information has been brought up to date as at 3 November 1992, but may be amended without notice by the University Council.

Index ...................................................................................... 277
The University of New South Wales, the second to be established in the state, is situated on 38 hectares in Kensington, an inner south-eastern suburb of Sydney. It has sub-campuses at Oatley and Paddington/Surry Hills as well as a number of research stations in other parts of New South Wales.

The University's academic activities are divided among the following faculties: applied science; architecture; arts and social sciences; biological and behavioural science; commerce and economics, engineering; law; medicine; professional studies and science; and the Boards of Studies in Science and Mathematics and Taxation. A wide range of first degrees, higher degrees and graduate diplomas are offered and there are appropriate research facilities within these units. The University also operates a number of research and teaching activities, a College of Fine Arts and a national school of management - the Australian Graduate School of Management, which offers higher degrees and other courses in management. UNSW also provides undergraduate and graduate courses at the University College (Australian Defence Force Academy).

The total number of students in 1992 was 28,331 made up of 20,110 proceeding to bachelor degrees, 6,094 to higher degrees, 137 to postgraduate qualifying, 1,117 to graduate diplomas and graduate certificates, 295 cross-institution and 578 seeking completion of non-award studies.

The number of staff (including casual staff) supporting these activities was 5,011 of whom 1,898 are teaching and research staff, and 3,113 are library, technical, administrative, clerical and other staff. The Library contains over 1,590,000 items. The University's total operating expenditure in 1992 was approximately $258 million. The University's building assets, including land, are valued at approximately $475 million, with the total value of assets, excluding library holdings, approximating $540 million.

Brief History

The University was incorporated by Act of the Parliament of New South Wales in 1949 as The New South Wales University of Technology. This name reflected the wish of the founders that the University should place special emphasis on science and technology and attempted to meet the urgent demand in Australia for increasing numbers of technologists and applied scientists.

The first courses, leading to the award of the degree of the Bachelor of Engineering, were begun in 1948 in civil, electrical, mechanical, and mining engineering. These courses were planned to give students full-time lecture and laboratory instruction at the University for approximately half the year, with planned industrial experience for the remainder. Courses leading to the award of the degree of Bachelor of Science were introduced in applied chemistry and chemical engineering for the 1949 academic year, and in applied physics and wool technology for the 1951 academic year. A first degree course in architecture was established in 1950, and in 1954 a further full-time bachelor of science course (in metallurgy) and a four-year degree course in applied geology leading to the award of the degree of Bachelor of Engineering (Geology) were offered. A four-year full-time bachelor of science in food technology also began in 1954.

Part-time degree courses were introduced in 1954 in applied biology, applied chemistry, applied geology, chemical engineering, civil engineering, electrical engineering, food technology, general science, industrial chemistry, leather chemistry, mechanical engineering and metallurgy to enable students to remain continuously in employment related to their studies throughout the course. A part-time course was begun in applied psychology in 1955, leading to the award of the degree of Bachelor of Science in psychology.

In 1957 full-time and part-time courses leading to the award of the degree of Bachelor of Commerce and providing for specialization in accountancy, economics, statistics or applied psychology were begun; advanced courses in business administration were introduced. At the same time the full-time degree courses in textile technology and industrial engineering and hospital administration were also begun. Although emphasis on science and technology remained a major objective, the University decided in 1958 that it should broaden its academic scope to include studies in the fields of humanities and medicine. Changes were made to the Act of Incorporation in 1958 and the name of the University changed to The University of New South Wales. Degree courses were begun in arts in 1960, in medicine in 1961, and in law in 1971; in 1977 higher degree and other courses in business and public administration were first offered by the recently established Australian Graduate School of Management.

The act incorporating the University gives the Council power to establish colleges and departments. Under these powers a college was established in 1951 at Newcastle (it became the independent University of Newcastle in 1965) and a college was established in 1962 at Wollongong (it became the University of Wollongong in 1975). Under an agreement between the University and the Commonwealth of Australia, first entered into in 1981, the University College (Australian Defence Force Academy) was set up in the Australian Capital Territory. Courses leading to the award of bachelor degrees of the University in arts, science, and engineering are taught by academic staff employed by the University. The undergraduate students are officer cadets of all three services. Higher degree work and research are also undertaken. All costs are met by the Department of Defence.

In 1990 the former St George Institute of the Sydney College of Advanced Education was amalgamated with the University and the three schools located at the St George campus at Oatley have been integrated into the Faculty of Professional Studies. The former City Art Institute, located at Paddington/Surry Hills was also incorporated within the University and is now the University’s College of Fine Arts.

The University of New South Wales Act 1968 and the University of New South Wales Regulations 1969, were repealed by the University of New South Wales Act 1989 which commenced on the 1st July 1990.

Government

The University is governed by a council of twenty-one members including parliamentary and ex-officio members, members elected by staff, students and graduates of the University, members appointed by the Minister for Education and one member appointed by Council. The principal academic body is the Academic Board which receives advice on academic matters from the faculties of applied science, architecture, arts and social sciences, biological and behavioural sciences, commerce and economics, engineering, law, medicine, professional studies and science, University College (Australian Defence Force Academy), the College of Fine Arts and the boards of studies. The faculties, colleges and boards are responsible for the teaching and examining of subjects within their scope and the Academic Board co-ordinates and furthers the work of the faculties and boards.

The chief executive officer of the University is the Vice-Chancellor and Principal. The Deputy Vice-Chancellors have overall responsibility for the work of the Central Administration and are responsible for academic operations, research policy and research management. The administrative work of the University is divided between the Registrar and Deputy Principal who is responsible for the provision of registrarial, property and administrative services and the Bursar and Deputy Principal who is responsible for the provision of financial and computing services. There are eleven full-time Deans (one for each faculty/board), Dean/Directors of the Australian Graduate School of Management and College of Fine Arts, and the Rector of the University College (Australian Defence Force Academy) who have considerable delegated authority in relation to their areas.

The University's academic organization includes ten Faculties and two Boards of Studies based at Kensington, Paddington and Oatley, NSW, and Canberra, ACT. The Faculties are groupings of schools, according to academic disciplines, through which the academic staff conduct all the undergraduate courses, higher degree programs and graduate diploma courses, and pursue research and scholarly investigations.

Faculties (and Boards having the responsibilities of Faculties) are established under the University By-laws. They are responsible for supervising teaching, conducting examinations and encouraging scholarship and research in relevant areas of study. Each faculty/board comprises the professors, associate professors, senior lecturers, and associate lecturers in the relevant departments, ex officio members, elected students, and other persons whom Council may appoint as members. The faculties/boards and their committees meet several times each year on scheduled dates.

Each faculty and board has a dean or director appointed by Council as the full-time head, responsible to the Vice-Chancellor for the administrative, financial and certain academic affairs of the faculty/board. The heads of schools and, in the University College, heads of departments, are also appointed by Council.

The University also maintains teaching and research at its teaching hospitals; field stations; the Institute of Administration at Little Bay; the Manly Vale Water Research Laboratory; the Randwick campus, where some of the Schools have facilities and the Institute of Languages is located; and the St George campus, where part of the Faculty of Professional Studies is located.

Detailed information on each Faculty, Board and School is available in the UNSW Handbooks, and a summary of courses offered by Faculties and Boards of Studies appears in the chapter ‘UNSW Courses’, later in this book.

Australian Graduate School of Management

In 1969 the Australian Government appointed a committee of overseas experts headed by Dr Richard Cyert to advise on the future needs for graduate management education in Australia. The committee recommended inter alia, that ‘a new national graduate school of management be established at the University of New South Wales'.

Late in 1973 the Australian Government announced that it would provide the financial resources necessary to proceed with the establishment of the proposed School. To undertake its planning the University appointed an Interim Board of Management, which completed its task early in 1976, and at this point was replaced by a permanent Board of Management. The fifteen members of the permanent Board include the Vice-Chancellor, the School’s Dean and Director (Professor F.G. Hilmer), the President of the Academic Board, representatives of the public and private sectors of employee and other organizations with interests in management education, and of the academic staff and student body of the School.

The School also has a Board of Studies which operates in similar manner to a faculty so far as the activities of the School are concerned.

The Cyert Committee saw as the basic aim of the new School ‘a need to enhance, at a national level, the effectiveness of Australian professional management now and in the future’. The achievement of this goal was seen as involving a number of programs, different substantially in their academic content and in the time and nature of their impact, but all emphasizing preparation for general management.

The committee recognized a need to produce educational materials uniquely designed to meet the needs of Australian management education, and for a program of research aimed at the development of new concepts and techniques to increase the effectiveness of Australian managers.

It saw the most immediate contribution to the development of management capacity as coming from short advanced management programs designed for those already holding important managerial responsibilities in both the private and public sector. These courses commenced in 1977.

The School introduced Masters degree programs in Business Administration (MBA) and Public Administration (MPA) designed to accelerate the development of talented young persons into top management positions. Enrolment of the first master candidates occurred at the beginning of 1977 and the first graduates were awarded their degrees in 1979. Following a comprehensive review of the Masters program in 1984, the School decided to offer only the MBA degree from 1985.

The School also has a doctoral program designed to meet the future needs of trained academic staff, not only to a limited extent for the national School itself but also for other Australian universities.

The School introduced the Australian Open Learning Program (AOLP) in 1987, designed as an innovative structure of modular, postgraduate management development courses for practising managers. The one year foundation course of four subjects is known as the Graduate Management Qualification (GMQ) and includes: Managing People, Accounting and Financial Management, Total Quality Management and Marketing Principles. Selected graduates of the GMQ may proceed to the Graduate Diploma in Management by undertaking an additional four subjects. These are: Enhancing Workforce Management, The Wealth of Organizations, Skills for Managing People and Law for Practising Managers. It is proposed that a final year will lead to an executive Masters degree.

University College
Australian Defence Force Academy

The University College was established by resolution of the Council on 2 February 1981 which ratified the draft agreement between the Commonwealth of Australia and the University of New South Wales to establish a University College within the Australian Defence Force Academy. The agreement was signed on 7 May 1981. The University College provides courses of study leading to the award of degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Engineering at pass and honours level. Opportunities are available for graduate study leading to the award of graduate diplomas, masters degrees and doctor of philosophy. Entry to the undergraduate courses of the Australian Defence Force Academy is by selection; candidates must have reached an approved academic standard and have met the particular requirements of the branch of the Services to which they have been recruited. Undergraduate courses in the University College are restricted to officer cadets and certain other members of the regular Armed Services although civilians may enrol in graduate courses. The undergraduate courses offered by the University College are listed later in the section Disciplines of the University and will be published in detail in the annual Australian Defence Force Academy Handbook. Enquiries relating to the University College should be addressed to the University College Secretary, Australian Defence Force Academy, University of New South Wales, Northcott Drive, Canberra, ACT 2600.

College of Fine Arts

The University's College of Fine Arts was established from the commencement of 1990 following the amalgamation of the former City Art Institute with the University. It is one of the largest and most distinguished art schools in Australia.

The College, which has the status of a faculty in the University, is located in Paddington, the heart of Sydney's artistic community, and offers undergraduate courses in fine arts, design, art education and art theory. These courses provide students with the opportunity to undertake rigorous and demanding studies at degree level in the major studio disciplines of the visual arts, aspects of design, art education and art theory. As well as providing opportunities for study at honours level, courses provide sound foundations for postgraduate study within the College or at other art schools in Australia or abroad.

The College also offers masters degrees by coursework in fine arts, art administration and art education, in addition to research opportunities in the studio disciplines, art theory and art education for students undertaking masters degrees at honours level. The opportunity also exists for study at doctoral level.

Board of Studies in Science and Mathematics

The Board of Studies in Science and Mathematics, which was established to facilitate the joint academic administration of the Science and Mathematics degree course by the Faculty of Biological and Behavioural Sciences and the Faculty of Science, considers and reports to the Academic Board on all matters relating to studies, lectures and examinations in the Science and Mathematics courses 3970 and 3977.

The Board of Studies in Science and Mathematics includes all members of the Faculty of Biological and Behavioural Sciences and of the Faculty of Science together with some members of specific Schools in other Faculties contributing to the Science and Mathematics course, a representative of the Centre for Liberal and General Studies, the Registrar or his nominee, and such other persons as Council may appoint.

The Deans of the Faculty of Science (Professor G Brown) and of the Faculty of Biological and Behavioural Sciences (Professor W O'Sullivan) serve alternately as Dean of the Board. The Co-ordinator of Studies is Associate Professor R J King.

Board of Studies in Taxation

The Board of Studies in Taxation was established in 1991 to supervise the ATAX program. The Board of Studies draws on staff from the Faculty of Law and the Faculty of Commerce and Economics at the University of New South Wales; and the University of Central Queensland contributes Distance Education design.

The Bachelor of Taxation degree is a purpose built degree designed to give a balanced education in the foundations of taxation and multi-skilling in essential component disciplines like commercial law, accounting, economics, administrative law and computer information systems.

Undergraduate teaching commenced at the beginning of 1991 and postgraduate teaching in 1992 with a Master of Taxation and two postgraduate diplomas, the Graduate Diploma in Advanced Taxation and the Graduate Diploma in Taxation Studies.

All courses are offered in Distance Education mode on a part-time basis, allowing ATAX to combine the efficiencies of innovative distance education delivery with the resources of a leading University.

The Asia Australia Institute will provide for the education of elites from the Asia Australia region. It will offer opportunities for intellectual refinement and sophistication, and personal acculturation with people from the countries of the region. It will contribute to the current need for involving Australians in the development of the idea of an Asian community. It will also contribute to the development of a new framework of ideas as well as new ideas and new forces in Asia. It will be the venue for a meeting and schooling of national elites and for the cultivation of personal connections across the national boundaries of Asia, in networks of intimate intellectual and professional associations, indispensable to a new Asian consciousness and a new regional intimacy. It will facilitate the process of Australia becoming part of the emerging Asian region.

The University Libraries

The main Library is situated on the upper Kensington campus and houses the Social Sciences and Humanities Library (enquiries, Level 4), the Physical Sciences Library (enquiries, Level 7), and the Law Library (enquiries, Level 8). The Biomedical Library is housed in the western end of the Mathews Building. The combined holdings of these four Special Libraries amount to some 1.5 million items.

Access to the collection is provided through the Library's online catalogue and via the campus-wide network. Other facilities include reference and reader education services, a photocopying service, an online search service, and a document delivery service.

Library facilities are also situated at other campuses, including:

- St George campus, Oatley
- College of Fine Arts, Paddington
- The Water Research Laboratories, Manly Vale
- The Australian Defence Force Academy, ACT

Libraries at these locations also provide a variety of services to staff and students.

The hours of opening of the UNSW libraries vary during the course of the academic year. For hours of opening at the Kensington campus telephone 697 2687.

Institutes

Asia Australia Institute

The Asia Australia Institute will provide for the education of elites from the Asia Australia region. It will offer opportunities for intellectual refinement and sophistication, and personal acculturation with people from the countries of the region. It will contribute to the current need for involving Australians in the development of the idea of an Asian community. It will also contribute to the development of a new framework of ideas as well as new ideas and new forces in Asia. It will be the venue for a meeting and schooling of national elites and for the cultivation of personal connections across the national boundaries of Asia, in networks of intimate intellectual and professional associations, indispensable to a new Asian consciousness and a new regional intimacy. It will facilitate the process of Australia becoming part of the emerging Asian region.

The Institute will address these needs in a small number of tightly integrated programs for emerging elites in industry, commerce, government, trade unions, media, academia and in cultural life.

Garvan Institute of Medical Research

In 1963 the establishment of the Garvan Institute of Medical Research fulfilled a long held desire of St Vincent’s Hospital to contribute to the international body of scientific knowledge in addition to its role as a provider of medical care.

Incorporated as an autonomous Institute under its own Act of Parliament in 1984, the Garvan is New South Wales' premier research institute. It is the only Institute outside Melbourne to receive 'Centre of Excellence' status with block funding from the National Health and Medical Research Council and is formally affiliated with St Vincent's Hospital and the University of New South Wales.

The Garvan Institute of Medical Research seeks to relieve human pain and suffering through intensive research into the molecular basis of health and disease. The Garvan integrates its basic and clinical resources to target four main areas:

- Cancer
- Diabetes, obesity and cardiovascular disorders
- Neurological orders
- Osteoporosis

These are all complex diseases with enormous social and financial costs for Australia and which depend on the application of a wide variety of sophisticated medical research techniques.

The Garvan is internationally recognised for its research achievements. Significant findings over the last few years have included:

- The exciting discovery of a new type of neurotransmitter receptor which may provide the key to unlock the secrets of Parkinson's disease, schizophrenia and other neurological disorders.

- Development of an understanding of the relationship between the levels of different growth factor and hormone receptors in breast cancer. Understanding this relationship should lead to improved treatment regimes for this devastating cancer.

- The finding that certain types of fat are closely related to the effectiveness of insulin. This discovery not only has significance for diabetes sufferers but also for those afflicted with functional metabolic problems related to obesity, high blood pressure and heart disease.

- The identification of the 'switch-on' region of a bone specific gene - an important step in understanding the molecular arrangement which leads to osteoporosis.

With 120 staff including 37 highly specialized post-doctoral researchers, the Garvan believes that medical research is a vital part of the Australian health care system where it can be integrated with both educational and full community service programs.

Institute of Administration

The Institute of Administration, established in 1960 by the Council of the University, is a self-funding unit within the University of New South Wales.

The Institute's mission is to improve the quality of management in Australia and worldwide through excellent courses conducted within a creative and friendly learning environment.

The Institute conducts a wide range of management development programs for executives from industry, commerce, government and the professions at its Executive Retreat at Little Bay.

The staff of the Institute are highly trained to provide friendly professional service to the participants of whom nearly fifty percent are from interstate and the Asia-Pacific Region.

In the design of its programs, the Institute gives emphasis to learning rather than teaching. The Institute does not have a full-time teaching faculty. Instead, it engages the services of management consultants and senior executives to conduct the sessions. By encouraging exchanges within a seminar and syndicate framework, rather than giving lectures, the session leaders act as catalysts to induce active involvement and learning by participants.

Free from their usual business and domestic involvements, participants are given the opportunity to reflect upon where they and their organizations are heading, where they should be heading, and they are given assistance to develop strategies to enable themselves and their organizations to achieve their goals and objectives.

The Institute's Executive Retreat is situated on the Coast Golf Club's course above the cliffs of Little Bay in the grounds of Prince Henry Hospital. It is 18 kilometres from the Sydney central business district and 9 kilometres from Sydney Airport. Its educational and residential facilities have been purpose-built for adult learners. They have a comfortable, casual elegance well matched by the magnificent and peaceful seaside setting.

In addition to its 'open' programs, the Institute also designs and conducts courses to meet the needs of specific organizations. Some of these courses are conducted off campus at sites nominated by the clients.

All courses conducted by the Institute exceed the minimum eligibility requirements of the Training Guarantee Act.

Some of the objectives of the Centre are to:

1. Provide a focus for, and to foster research concerning Aboriginal peoples and the law;
2. Develop and maintain a specialized collection of materials relating to Aboriginal peoples and the law;
3. Achieve publication of the results of research undertaken by individuals working with the Centre or independently of the Centre; to disseminate information concerning Aboriginal peoples and the law to interested individuals and bodies throughout Australia and abroad;
4. Organize and participate in conferences and seminars from time to time;
5. Encourage the development of curricula and teaching materials in the field of Aboriginal peoples and the law for use in the University of New South Wales and elsewhere.

The Centre operates a specialised resource library, providing books, articles, journals, videos and human resources relevant to Aboriginal studies/issues. ARRC also conducts the Aboriginal Australia courses, undertaken by over 800 students in 1992, through the Centre for Liberal and General Studies and Australian Studies. In this way, ARRC aims to introduce, wherever possible, an Aboriginal perspective via Aboriginal lecturers into the mainstream curriculum.

The Centre is presently located in Room 123 of the Library and has already gathered substantial resources which are constantly referred to by other students and academics. Since its opening the Centre's resources and staff expertise have also been well-utilised by other educational institutions, community groups, individuals, and by the electronic and print media. The Director of the Centre is Mr Paul Behrendt.

In accordance with the Centre's Constitution, which was formally approved by The University of New South Wales in 1984, a 16-member Advisory Committee monitors the progress of research projects and advises the Director on policy issues.

The research program of the Centre is organised on a project basis with each project being managed by a small group of academics and industry based practitioners.

Kingsford Legal Centre

Kingsford Legal Centre is a law clinic attached to the Faculty of Law. The Centre provides a clinical teaching environment for law students. The students work with the Centre lawyers to give legal advice and assistance to members of the local community unable to afford private legal assistance.

The Centre began operations in July, 1981. Currently it has 4 lawyers, one of whom, the Director, has the status of a lecturer in the Law Faculty. One of the lawyers is seconded from the law firm Freehill, Hollingdale and Page on a pro bono basis. The Centre is jointly funded by the Faculty of Law and the Legal Aid Commission of N.S.W. In its community legal centre function the Centre has been prominent in several areas, particularly antidiscrimination and domestic violence.

The subjects LAW7200 Clinical Legal Experience (Intensive) and LAW7210 Clinical Legal Experience, which require students to work at the legal centre, are electives for later year students; students can take the subjects in either session or during the summer, and attend the Centre one or two days each week. Students take instructions from clients, prepare necessary documents, undertake legal research and generally manage the clients' files, often in anticipation of a court hearing. In this way students can consolidate their study of the law by practical application. Small group classes and constant consultation with the lawyers provide an opportunity for students to analyse both their roles as lawyers and the role of law in society.

The centre's lawyers are accompanied by students to assist people in police custody at Waverley Local Court one day each week. Students also attend court hearings, client conferences and other activities relating to legal practice.

For further information regarding the Centre and clinical legal education please contact the Director on (02) 398 6366.

Centre for Liberal and General Studies

Following a review of general education within the University, Council established the Centre for Liberal and General Studies from the beginning of 1988. The Centre has responsibility, under the supervision of the Academic Board’s Undergraduate Studies Committee, for the administration of the University’s General Education Program.

This Program is designed to complement specialist studies undertaken in professional and major disciplinary courses by all students in first undergraduate degree programs. Students are required to take 56 hours of instruction in each of three categories of study. The third of these categories of study provides students with the opportunity to address, in a coherent and systematic way, some of the central issues of social responsibility and professional ethics they will encounter on graduation.

While it is the role and the task of the Centre’s staff to provide the general management and administration of the Program, subjects offered within the Program are taught by academic staff from the various Faculties and Schools of the University.

Details of the Program appear under General Education Requirement in the ‘UNSW Courses’ chapter of this book.
The Co-op Program

The Co-op Program was established to promote the University’s commitment to Education for Industrial Leadership.

An Office of Industry-Linked Education was established with the primary responsibility of overseeing and extending the innovative Co-op Program of scholarship-based, industry-linked undergraduate courses. This scheme now covers over 20 disciplines in the Faculties of Applied Science, Commerce and Economics and Engineering. Over 500 students currently hold $9,600 scholarships. The University receives around 1500 applications from the nation’s top school leavers for these awards.

The Office is also supporting the development of new postgraduate courses designed to improve the transition of graduate technologists and engineers to management roles.

The Office also works closely with the Foundation and the Alumni Association in the networking of the University’s many graduates.

International Student Exchange Program

The University of New South Wales has developed reciprocal exchange agreements with a number of international universities and actively encourages students to take part of their degree overseas. Currently students from the University of New South Wales can study at universities in Canada (University of Alberta, Edmonton), Germany (University of Bonn), and the United States of America (University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and the 8 campuses of the University of California). Exchange agreements have recently been signed with universities in Korea, Taiwan, Thailand, and Singapore: further agreements are being developed with universities in North America, Europe and Asia. In addition, students in specific courses can participate in restricted exchange agreements which a School or Faculty of the University of New South Wales has established with its counterpart at an overseas institution.

Undergraduate and postgraduate students with a satisfactory academic record may apply to study overseas under these exchange programs. During their period of exchange, students must remain enrolled at the University of New South Wales; they must pay full-load Higher Education Contribution Scheme and all Student Activity fees. The overseas university will waive tuition and administration fees for exchange students, but students are responsible for paying their own travel, accommodation and living expenses. Austudy and other scholarships can usually be continued whilst on exchange, and the University provides modest travel scholarships to selected students. As a condition of their exchange, students arrange for the subjects completed at the overseas university to be credited towards their degree course.

Students from the overseas university enrol as a non-award student at the University of New South Wales and undertake subjects for credit at their home universities. Visiting students pay all tuition and other fees in their home university and study at no charge at the University of New South Wales.

The University also administers the Danish International Study program affiliated with the University of Copenhagen. Under this scheme students in architecture, commerce and arts pay fees to undertake special programs in Denmark.

For further information on these and other programs being developed contact the International Student Centre, Building F9a, Union Road near the Round House. Phone 697 5333 or Fax 313 7207.

Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action Policy Statement*

The University is committed to the goal of freedom from discrimination in employment on the grounds of sex, marital status, pregnancy, race (defined as colour, nationality, or national or ethnic origin), homosexuality, physical or intellectual impairment and racial vilification. Discrimination against persons with HIV/AIDS is covered by the NSW legislation as discrimination on the ground of physical impairment. The University is required to ensure the absence of such discrimination by the Commonwealth Racial Discrimination Act 1975; the Anti-Discrimination Act, 1977 (NSW); the Commonwealth Sex Discrimination Act, 1984; and the Commonwealth Affirmative Action (Equal Employment for Women) Act, 1986. Under the University of New South Wales Act, 1989, the University also declares that it will not discriminate on the grounds of religious or political affiliations, views or beliefs.

Reflecting its commitment to freedom from discrimination in employment, the University will continue to ensure the absence of discrimination and to promote equal employment opportunity for women, members of racial minorities, and the physically impaired, as resolved by the University Council, and in accordance with Part IXA of the NSW Anti-Discrimination Act, 1977 and the Affirmative Action (Equal Employment Opportunity for Women) Act, 1986. To achieve equality of employment opportunity, the University will continue to implement, monitor and review its Equal Employment Opportunity and Affirmative Action Program (EEO/AA Program) developed in part for these EEO groups.

In accordance with equal employment opportunity and affirmative action principles, the University applies the principle of merit in the recruitment, selection, appointment, staff development and training, and promotion of staff in all job classifications. Only criteria related to the ability to do the job are used in recruitment, selection and promotion procedures. This merit system also covers the terms on which the University as an employer offers employment. The University's Equal Employment Opportunity Management Plan referred to as the EEO/AA Program since 1989, involves both positive steps to eradicate discrimination for the benefit of all staff, and programs for members of EEO groups which aim to remedy past disadvantage.

The EEO/AA Program 1993-1996 was developed in consultation with the University community, including women staff members and unions having coverage of University staff. The University will continue to consult these groups on the implementation, review and amendment (as appropriate) of the program.

In compliance with its statutory requirements, the University has analysed statistically all sections of its workforce to identify the employment patterns of EEO groups. It has also reviewed and will continue to review its personnel policies and practices in the areas of recruitment, selection and appointment, promotion, staff development and training, conditions of service and termination of employment. This information is contained in the University's 1990 EEO Survey, other research projects, and Annual Reports to the NSW Office of the Director of Equal Opportunity in Public Employment and the Affirmative Action Agency. The EEO/AA Program contains objectives and strategies developed to address identified problem areas, and procedures to monitor their implementation and effectiveness.

Progress on the implementation of the University's EEO/AA Program is contained in Annual Reports to the NSW Office of the Director of Equal Opportunity in Public Employment, the Affirmative Action Agency and to the Council of the University.

The University's Director of Affirmative Action (DAA), Professor J. Niland, is responsible for compliance with equal opportunity legislation. The DAA is assisted by the Director, Equal Employment Opportunity and other EEO Unit staff. The DAA is further assisted by the Advisory Committee on Equal Opportunity in Employment, which has as its terms of reference to advise the DAA on:

- the promotion of equal opportunity in employment and, in particular, on the introduction of programs in support of this aim;
- the effectiveness of any such programs introduced;
- ways in which present impediments to equal employment opportunity in the University might be removed;
- any other matters which it considers relevant to the principles of equal opportunity in employment and education in the University.

Anti-Discrimination and Affirmative Action legislation is designed to assist in creating and maintaining a fair and just society. The aim of the University's program is to prevent discrimination and promote equal employment opportunity and at the same time promote sound and cost effective management practices which ensure that the community's entire pool of talent is utilised to create an effective workforce.

The University has both a legal and moral obligation to provide a non-discriminatory workplace free from all forms of harassment. The success of the program depends on the continued co-operation of the whole University community in making equal employment opportunity a reality.

*Currently, there are proposed amendments to various Equal Opportunity Acts under consideration. This means the above policy
Equal Opportunity in Education Policy Statement

Under the Federal Racial Discrimination Act (1975) and Sex Discrimination Act (1984) and the New South Wales Anti-Discrimination Act (1977), the University is required not to discriminate against students or prospective students on the grounds of sex, marital status, pregnancy, race, nationality, national or ethnic origin, colour, homosexuality or disability. Under the University of New South Wales Act (1989), the University declares that it will not discriminate on the grounds of religious or political affiliations, views or beliefs.

University Commitment to Equal Opportunity in Education

As well as recognizing its statutory obligations as listed, the University will eliminate discrimination on any other grounds which it deems to constitute disadvantage. The University is committed to providing a place to study free from harassment and discrimination, and one in which every student is encouraged to work towards her/his maximum potential. The University further commits itself to course design, curriculum content, classroom environment, assessment procedures and other aspects of campus life which will provide equality of educational opportunity to all students.

Special Admissions Schemes

The University will encourage the enrolment of students who belong to disadvantaged groups through programs such as the University Preparation Program and the ACCESS Scheme. Where members of disadvantaged groups are particularly under-represented in certain disciplines, the responsible faculties will actively encourage their enrolment.

Support of Disadvantaged Students

The University will provide support to assist the successful completion of studies by disadvantaged group members through such means as the Aboriginal Education Program and the Supportive English Program of the Institute of Languages. It will work towards the provision of other resources, such as access for students with impaired mobility, assistance to students with other disabilities, the provision of a parents’ room on the upper campus, and increased assistance with English language and communication.

Course Content, Curriculum Design, Teaching and Assessment, and Printed Material

Schools and faculties will monitor course content (including titles), teaching methods, assessment procedures, written material (including study guides and handbook and Calendar entries) and audiovisual material to ensure that they are not discriminatory or offensive and that they encourage and facilitate full participation in education by disadvantaged people.

Equal Opportunity Adviser Scheme

The University will continue its Equal Opportunity Adviser Scheme for students who feel that they have been harassed or who consider they have been disadvantaged in their education by practices and procedures within the University.

Harassment Policy

The University is committed to ensuring freedom from harassment for all people working or studying within the institution. It will continue to take action, including disciplinary action, to ensure that freedom from harassment is achieved.
The range of courses offered by the University is indicated in the tables below. For details of the courses within each faculty consult the relevant UNSW handbook. A summary description of each course follows these tables.

Graduate Study

The University provides facilities for approved students to engage in advanced studies and research leading to the award of higher degrees and graduate diplomas.

The conditions for the various awards are administered by the Higher Degree Committee of the appropriate Faculty or Board of Studies under the general supervision of that Faculty or Board.

The higher doctorates of Doctor of Science*, Doctor of Laws* and Doctor of Letters# may be awarded for published work of distinguished merit in any of these fields.

The degree of Doctor of Philosophy is available in all Faculties and in the Australian Graduate School of Management. It requires the completion of a program of research over a period of at least three years' full-time study and the preparation of a thesis. The degree of Doctor of Medicine*§ requires either a similar program of study or may be awarded on the basis of published work.

The University also offers masters degrees* by research and by course work, as well as various courses leading to the award of a graduate diploma$. Details are outlined on the following pages.

Short intensive graduate and special courses are provided each year through IPACE (by updating and refresher courses for professional people), the Centre for Continuing Medical Education, and a number of Schools of the University. These courses cover a wide range of interests and details are advertised separately.

*For conditions of the award of this degree see the appropriate Faculty Handbook.

#For conditions of the award of this degree see later in the Calendar.

§For conditions of the award of a graduate diploma see the appropriate Faculty Handbook.

Faculty of Applied Science

Applied Geology, see Geology

Applied Bioscience

Biotechnology
Biotechnology is a well-established area of study concerned with the applications of some of the biological sciences (in particular, biochemistry, microbiology and genetics) to industry, agriculture and medicine.

It is an interdisciplinary field and draws not only upon the techniques and methodologies of the relevant biological sciences but also upon those of mathematics, computing science, the physical sciences and engineering. A major sequence in biotechnology can be associated with biochemistry, chemistry of microbiology, or with other subjects in the Science and Mathematics course 3970.

Formal graduate courses are offered to graduates with a diversity of backgrounds; these courses are the Graduate Diploma in Biotechnology 5015, and the Master of Applied Science (Biotechnology) course 8042.

Food Science and Technology
Food Science and Technology is concerned with securing optimum quality and quantity of the food supply. It is an interdisciplinary science with applications from areas of chemistry, biochemistry, biological technology, microbiology, agriculture, engineering, nutrition and commerce. There are full-time and part-time courses, leading to the award of the BSc 3060 and the BSc(Tech) 3070 degree respectively. First year courses in Food Technology are similar to first year of the Science and Mathematics course 3970 and transfer in either direction can usually be arranged at the end of first year without loss of standing. Students who have completed first year subjects including physics, chemistry, mathematics and biology are eligible for selection for admission to the second year of the Food Science and Technology course 3069.

There are four formal graduate courses: the Master of Applied Science courses in Food Technology 8030, Food Microbiology 8031 and in Food Engineering 8035; and a Graduate Diploma course in Food Technology 5020.

Chemical Engineering and Industrial Chemistry

Chemical Engineering
Chemical Engineering is the application of the principles of the physical sciences and of economics and human relations to fields in which matter undergoes change. The course in Chemical Engineering 3040 leads to the award of the BE degree by full-time and part-time study. It allows specialization in mineral engineering and in fuel and energy engineering. Minerals engineering is an extension of chemical engineering principles to applications in mineral engineering. Fuel and energy engineering involves the practical and economic applications of science and engineering to the production, processing and utilization of fuels and energy.

Industrial Chemistry
Industrial Chemistry is the discipline which translates the work of the research chemist into the activities of the chemical industry. It is concerned with the selection of the most suitable chemical process for converting available raw materials into the desired product and with the application of the selected process in the most economical way in terms of energy, personnel and money.

The industrial chemistry courses (3100, full-time BSc and 3110 part-time BSc(Tech)) are concerned with the development and use of inorganic and organic industrial chemicals and the special class of materials called polymers, eg plastics and elastomers.

The first year courses in Chemical Engineering and Industrial Chemistry are similar to the first year of the Science and Mathematics course 3970 and transfer in either direction can sometimes be arranged at the end of first year without loss of standing.

Petroleum Engineering
The Centre for Petroleum Engineering Studies, within the School, offers the only degree course (3045, leading to the award of Bachelor of Engineering) in petroleum engineering in Australia.

Petroleum engineering is based on drilling, reservoir and production engineering as applied to crude oil and natural gas resources. The petroleum engineer is concerned with the optimization of the recovery of these valuable hydrocarbons.

General
There are several formal graduate courses offered by the Centre for Petroleum Engineering Studies and the School of Chemical Engineering and Industrial Chemistry: the Master of Applied Science degree courses in Chemical Engineering and Industrial Chemistry 8015 and Fuel Technology 8060.

Geography

Geography is the scientific study of spatial variations in the structure, process, and organization of natural and human environments on the earth's surface. The three vocationally-oriented Applied Geography programs 3010 provide an analytical approach to understanding and investigating some of society's most pressing problems including the use and management of scarce resources, the interaction between people and environment, soil erosion and conservation, land use conflicts, and spatial inequalities in economic and social well-being.

Geography is also a major sequence in the Arts course 3400, where the emphasis is on the study of where and how man lives and of his activities in relation to his environment. A major sequence in the Science and engineering.
Mathematics course 3970 studies the relationships between humans and their physical environment, combining geographical studies, particularly in physical geography, with those in related disciplines, notably the biological and earth sciences. Geography may be combined with Civil Engineering in course 3730, or with Law in course 4770. Students may enrol through the School of Geography in the following formal graduate courses: Master of Applied Science in Geographic Information Systems 8024; Master and Diploma in Remote Sensing 8026, 5026; Master and Diploma in Rangeland Management 8025, 5025; Master of Environmental Studies 8045; Master of Environmental Management 8046.

Geology

Geology is ‘the science of the earth’, and as such covers a broad spectrum of knowledge on the constitution and evolution of our planet. Applied Geology involves a specific interest in the use of earth science for the benefit of humanity; including for example, the search for and evaluation of metallic ore-bodies and accumulations of fossil fuels, or the application of geological knowledge to a range of engineering and environmental problems.

The Applied Geology course provides a comprehensive education in all aspects of earth science. It leads to the award of a Bachelor of Science (BSc) degree over four years full-time study, with honours for students who perform with academic merit. Reciprocal courses are offered through the Board of Science and Mathematics in Geology (double major) (3970/2500), Earth and Environmental Science (3970/2527) and courses that combine a single major in Geology with Physics, Chemistry, Mathematics, Botany and Zoology (3970). These courses are all of three years full-time duration leading to a BSc at Pass level. An optional fourth year leading to Honours is available for students of high academic standing. Geology is also available in the combined Science/Law course (4770) and is a minor component in the Arts course (4700).

There are four formal Master of Applied Science degree courses (offered by the Department of Applied Geology) in Engineering Geology/Hydrogeology/Environmental Geology (8020); Geological Data Processing (8094) - in association with the Key Centre for Mines; Hydrogeology and Groundwater Management (8021) and Waste Management (8085) both in association with the Centre for Groundwater Management and Hydrogeology. A Graduate diploma in Waste Management (5070) is also available.

Materials Science and Engineering

Materials Science has been designated as a priority area for increased investment by the Federal Government. In order to meet the expected growth of the materials industry in Australia, particularly in the more sophisticated applications such as electronic and electrical ceramics, high temperature materials, surface coatings, machine tool materials and engineering polymers, increases in the number of graduates and postgraduates are anticipated over the coming decade. In addition, if Australia is to be competitive in the area of advanced materials, the materials manufacturing industry in this country will have to be developed and restructured, and this can be expected to also create new positions for materials graduates.

The School’s teaching programs involve three areas: ceramic engineering, metallurgical engineering and materials engineering.

Ceramic Engineering
Ceramic Engineering is concerned with all aspects of the production of ceramic materials and products including their structure and properties, manufacture and application. There are two courses: Ceramic Engineering (3025 full-time BE) and Ceramics (3030 part-time BSc(Tech)), covering the development, production and application of chemically inorganic materials (except metals and alloys), which are normally rendered serviceable through high temperature processing.

Materials Engineering
Materials engineering is a broad ranging discipline which applies the principles of science and engineering to the development of metallic, ceramic and plastic materials and to their manufacture into goods and their subsequent performance in service. It is founded on the relationship between structure and properties, an understanding of which permits materials to be engineered to specific end use requirements. The course in Materials Engineering 3615 consists of four years full-time study.

Metallurgical Engineering
Metallurgy is concerned with the processing and properties of metals and properties of alloys. It is a combination of pure science (in which the aim is to investigate the fundamental nature of metals and the reactions in which they take part), and engineering (in which the aim is to design and operate processes and produce materials to serve people's needs). Metallurgical Engineering contains two specializations. Process Metallurgy focusses on the production and refining of liquid metals, whereas Physical Metallurgy is concerned with understanding, modification and control of the physical properties of metallic materials.

There are two undergraduates courses in Metallurgical Engineering, a four year full-time course 3125 leading to the award of the BMetEC degree and a six year part-time course 3130 leading to the award of the BSc(Tech) degree.

Metallurgy subjects from the above courses may also be taken in the Science and Mathematics course 3970 as detailed in the Science Handbook. These subjects provide a suitable background for teaching specialization in Engineering Science at secondary schools.

Metallurgy In Double Degree Programs
Metallurgy subjects are available in the materials science option of the combined degree course BE BSc in Mechanical and Industrial Engineering. The Engineering courses offered in these programs are Aeronautical Engineering 3611, Industrial Engineering 3661, Mechanical Engineering 3681 and Naval Architecture 3701.

Mining Engineering

Mining Engineering is a branch of engineering concerned with the assessment, development and management of mining operations. A full-time course leading to the award of the BE degree in Mining Engineering 3140 prepares students for careers in the coal mining, metalliferous mining, quarrying or petroleum industries.

There are formal graduate courses: Mining and Mineral Engineering 8055 and Mining Geomechanics 8056, leading to the award of the degree of Master of Applied Science, and in Mining and Mineral Engineering 5040, leading to the award of a Graduate Diploma.

Mining Management

The Key Centre for Mines offers part-time programs leading to Master of Mining Management (8075) or a Graduate Diploma in Mining Management (5057).

The Mining Management programs are designed to give mining personnel the opportunity to extend their career paths into management levels. Course work modules can be selected from Business Management and Science and Technology streams offered by the Key Centre, the School of Mines, other academic units of the University and approved correspondence subjects from the Association of Professional Engineers and Scientists of Australia (APESA).

Safety Science

Safety Science is concerned with the application of a range of scientific disciplines to the improvement of occupational health and safety. These studies provide the basis for improved workplace design and management to ensure occupational and community safety.

The Department of Safety Science offers four graduate courses, leading to the award of the degree of Master of Safety Science 8671, Master of Engineering Science (Industrial Safety) 8545, the Graduate Diploma in Safety Science 5480, and the Graduate Diploma in Ergonomics 5485. The Centre is also active in research in the areas of safety engineering, safety management, ergonomics, biomechanics and dermatitis. Opportunities are available for graduate research leading to the award of the degrees of Master of Science 2775, Master of Engineering Science 2695 and Doctor of Philosophy 1665.

Textile Technology

The Textile Technology course 3170, leading to the award of the BSc degree, is essentially a study of the basic sciences and engineering, together with a broad training in the whole range of textile sciences and technologies. Students can specialize in textile chemistry, textile physics, or textile engineering.

The aim of the course is to train undergraduates and graduates comprehensively in all the textile sciences and technologies.

A formal graduate diploma course in Textile Technology 5090 is available.

Textile Management

The Textile Management course 3175 provides for comprehensive study of all the textile sciences and technologies after basic studies in physics, chemistry and mathematics. Specific management studies are undertaken through Accounting and Financial Management, Economics, Marketing and other commerce subjects. The course prepares graduates for technical and general management roles in the textile and related industries.

Wool and Animal Science

Wool and Animal Science is concerned with the sector of agriculture which deals with the production of wool and meat from sheep and cattle, the management of pastures which provide food for grazing animals and the preparation for sale, specification and marketing of wool. The BSc degree course 3220 covers the application of scientific, economic and business management principles in the wool and pastoral industries. The course includes study of biology, chemistry, biochemistry and mathematics together with a broad education in the applied sciences of agronomy, nutrition, genetics, reproductive biology, health, ecology, wool science and technology and management.

Graduates are engaged in a wide range of careers in private industry and public organizations concerned with the wool and agricultural industries.

A formal graduate diploma course in Wool and Pastoral Sciences 5080 is available and students may enrol through the Department in the Master and Diploma in Rangeland Management, 8025, 5025.

Faculty of Architecture

Studies in the Faculty of Architecture are concerned with the design, technology, history and management of the built environment.

Architecture

The School offers courses which reflect the advances in science and technology and the changing needs of society. The courses foster conceptual abilities in design and encourage students to develop their own interest and creative abilities.

For students who seek registration and professional recognition, the School offers the Bachelor of Architecture degree course 3260; for those who wish to specialize in a particular field of architecture without qualifying for registration as an architect, the School offers the Bachelor of Science (Architecture) degree course and the Bachelor of Science (Architecture) degree course at honours level 3265.

In addition to the research degrees of Doctor of Philosophy 1130 and Master of Architecture 2200, the School offers a formal graduate course the Master of Architecture 8142.

Building

The School of Building provides degree courses that prepare students for professional and executive employment within two of Australia’s largest industries, the building industry and the property industry. Careers in both private enterprise and the public sector are available to building graduates in a wide variety of areas. These include the management and supervision of building developments, building technology, and economics, the production of building materials, property development, property management and building research.

The Bachelor of Building degree course 3330 is offered on a semester basis, and students are required to complete a minimum of eight semesters including six months of appropriate industry experience. Subjects in the course are broadly grouped into four major streams, viz construction, building economics, studies, building science, management studies and building technology, and economics.

In addition to the research degrees of Doctor of Philosophy 1140 and Master of Building 2210, the School offers formal graduate courses, the Master of Project Management 8115 and Master of Construction Management 8125.

Industrial Design

Industrial design involves the research and design of the whole range of consumer and capital products used by people. Products as diverse as telephones and cranes, gas fires and exhibition systems, toothbrushes and motor cars. Ideally, the industrial designer works as part of a team involving engineering, production and marketing.

The four year Bachelor of Industrial Design course prepares students for professional and executive employment in areas involving the research, design and development of new manufactured products. Whilst it is anticipated that most graduates will be initially employed in an industrial design capacity either in manufacturing companies or consultancies, it is likely that some graduates may subsequently choose to specialize in aspects of marketing, engineering, product management or design management.

The industrial design and ergonomics subjects make up almost half the course. Approximately 20 percent of subjects are taken within the Faculty of Commerce, School of Marketing, and 25 percent within the fields of science and engineering. The General education Program comprises 7 percent of the course.

The course is operated in a co-op mode. Selected industrial and commercial companies provide industrial briefings, consultations and evaluations for studio project work.

A MSc(Industrial Design) 8146 coursework degree is available for graduate engineers, architects and other designers. A MID 8145 degree by coursework and thesis is available for graduate industrial designers. Research degrees within the field of industrial design are also available at Masters and PhD levels.

Landscape Architecture

Landscape Architecture is a professional discipline which is based on an understanding of the natural sciences. Graduates will be able to share in society’s responsibility towards the environment.

Landscape in its broadest sense of encompasses all external spaces comprising natural topography and vegetation as well as modified environments constructed for our enjoyment and comfort. Opportunities for graduates to contribute professional advice vary in scale through the design of domestic gardens, urban plazas and thoroughfares, regional parks and new cities to national considerations of land use and environmental policies. Creative design ability, based on an appreciation of natural systems and society’s requirements can bring about management plans for natural areas or the planned modification of areas to provide external spaces which are both practical and enjoyable.

The degree course in Landscape Architecture 3380 is designed to introduce students to landscape architecture through an understanding of the components and processes at work in primitive environments, and of the philosophies and techniques which have been developed in a continuous effort to improve this environment. In the later years of the course emphasis is given to creative design work of a kind appropriate to Australian conditions. Programs are related to the subject matter of concurrent lectures, and culminate in an examination of landscape problems of regional and national significance.

In addition to the research degrees of Doctor of Philosophy 1160 and Master of Landscape Architecture 2220, the school offers courses leading to the award of the Graduate Diploma in Landscape Planning 5215 and Master of Landscape Planning 8135.

Town Planning

Town planning has as its focus the equitable and efficient distribution of resources including: the planning of new communities, improvement of the existing environment and the management of change in the structure and social fabric of towns, cities and regions.

The Bachelor of Town Planning degree course 3360 prepares graduates for a wide range of professional responsibilities in the work of national, state and local government agencies, consultants, business organizations and the community.

The Master of Town Planning degree 2230 is a research degree with qualifying and concurrent coursework for graduates without a primary degree in town planning.

Graduate School of the Built Environment

The Graduate School provides opportunities for interdisciplinary postgraduate research and advanced study in the area of the built and natural environment across the various disciplines that make up the Faculty of Architecture.

Areas of built-environment research of particular interest to the School include Urban Design and Planning, Urban History, Urban and Building Conservation, Housing, Environment/Behaviour Relationships and Facilities Planning and Management. Research students follow a largely self-determined program of study with joint supervision arranged from the wide range of expertise available within the Faculty and, where necessary, from elsewhere in the University.

In addition to the research degrees of Doctor of Philosophy 1120 and Master of the Built Environment 2240, the School offers a course leading to the award of Master of the Built Environment (Building Conservation) 8130. An additional course is Housing Studies currently being planned.
Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences

A major sequence in Australian Studies is offered within the undergraduate program: it must be taken in conjunction with a major sequence in a School or Department within the Faculty, and aims to provide an interdisciplinary context in terms both of materials and methods for students who wish to specialize in the Australian area. The Faculty also offers an honours program in Australian Studies and a Masters program at both pass and honours level.

Chinese

The Chinese subjects are offered in the Languages Unit as part of a major sequence in Asian Studies needing an additional 12 credit points in Asia-related subjects to satisfy Faculty requirements. Three streams of subjects are designed to cater for students at all levels, including beginners. They aim to help students to become literate in Modern Standard Chinese so that they can combine language skills with their specific area of interests. Professional language courses are offered in the techniques of translating and interpreting.

The English courses are designed to suit not only candidates for Honours and pass students taking a major for the Arts degree but also those wishing to study the subject for only one or two years. Major and Honours courses are offered in literature, in language and linguistics, and in literature, language and linguistics. As well as traditional English Literature subjects, literature students have the opportunity to study non-British literature and a variety of theoretical and transdisciplinary approaches to literature, and to take creative writing subjects. The School also contributes to the Faculty's Master of Arts by Coursework program (Course 8200). The research degrees of MA at honours level 2280 and Doctor of Philosophy 1200 are also offered.

European Studies

A major sequence in European Studies is offered within the undergraduate program: it must be taken in conjunction with a major sequence in a School or Department within the Faculty, and aims to provide an interdisciplinary context in terms both of materials and methods for students who wish to specialize in the European area. The Faculty also offers a combined honours program in European Studies; enrolment for the PhD is available to suitably qualified students who wish to complete an interdisciplinary research project.

French

The French courses cover language and linguistics, literature and thought, and studies in French civilization and culture.

The language subjects, designed for students at all levels, including beginners, aim to help students acquire a command of modern French, while options introduce aspects of linguistics and specialized language use. In literature subjects, training is given in techniques of analysis and criticism. Subjects in civilization studies focus on ideas and trends of thought pertaining to particular socio-historical contexts in France and the French-speaking world, as well as on French-Australian relations since the discovery of Australia. The school also contributes to the Faculty's Master of Arts by Coursework program (course 8200). The research degrees of MA at honours level 2290 and Doctor of Philosophy 1210 are also offered.

German Studies

The Department of German Studies offers a wide range of subjects in German language, literature, history and culture, linguistics and literature, designed for students both with and without previous knowledge of the language. The basic aim of a major sequence is to help students acquire a high level of communicative competence in German as well as a critical introduction to the historical development of German society and culture. A sequence in "German for Professional Purposes" aims at providing proficiency in a business context; it is offered both as a major sequence in the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences and in co-operation with the Faculty of Commerce and Economics. A range of subjects taught in English on "German History, Literature and Civilisation" is offered to students who do not wish to embark on a study of the language. The School also contributes to the Faculty's Master of Arts by coursework program (course 8200). The research degrees of MA at honours level 2311 and Doctor of Philosophy 1231 are also offered.

History

The History courses are concerned with aspects of modern history: Asian, Australian, British, European and American, Middle Eastern. Concurrently they deal with approaches to problems of historical explanation, and with techniques for dealing with source materials. The school also contributes to the Faculty's Master of Arts by Coursework program (course 8200) and is responsible for the Asian Studies Program. The research degrees of MA at honours level 2320 and Doctor of Philosophy 1240 are also offered.
Indonesian

The Languages Unit offers Indonesian language subjects for beginners as well as for students with HSC Indonesian. Indonesian can be taken as a three year sequence, or for one or two years only. The subjects aim at the highest possible command of speaking and listening skills, with a professional orientation at the advanced levels. The broad relationship between Australia and Indonesia is emphasised.

Linguistics

Not only may students specialise in linguistics within the School of English, but a major interdisciplinary sequence in Linguistics is offered within the Faculty. This program offers subjects both in theoretical and descriptive linguistics, and in practical applied areas suitable for intending teachers. In addition to the MA in English Linguistics offered by the School of English, an MA in Applied Linguistics is offered within the Faculty.

Music

Music courses and degrees offered by the Department of Music include a Bachelor of Music (BMus), BMus with honours, a major in Music as part of the Bachelor of Arts degree, BA honours, MA and PhD by research. The Department also offers a Master of Music MMus postgraduate coursework degree. The combined BMus BEd and the combined BA BEd (with a Music major) are also offered in association with the School of Education Studies. Music courses without prerequisites are available as upper level options within the BA degree. The Music Department also offers a course Music in its social contexts, for the Centre for Liberal and General Studies. The Music Department has a strong public performance tradition centred in University of New South Wales Opera, The Australia Ensemble resident at the University of New South Wales and the Collegium Musicum Choir, and encourages student vocal and instrumental groups including the University of New South Wales Orchestra.

Philosophy

Philosophy is a wide-ranging subject which includes the study of metaphysics, epistemology, logic, ethics, aesthetics, and the foundations of the sciences, social theories, and the humanities. It is also available in the Science and Mathematics course 3970, where it is possible to major and to take honours in philosophy.

Political Science

The School of Political Science is concerned with the study of political ideas, institutions, and activity. As the study of one aspect of society, it is loosely linked with other social sciences such as history, sociology and economics; and with philosophy and law. Some of its more important branches of study are political institutions, political theory and philosophy, comparative government and area studies, international relations and foreign policy, political sociology and environmental, gender and media politics. Political Science I is devoted to a study of modern governments including those of Australia, Post-Communist systems and China, as well as an introduction to the history and analysis of Western political thought, Australian political culture, environmental politics and political sociology. Upper Level subjects cover such fields as political theory, area politics, political culture, public policy, political language, international relations and foreign policy studies in political economy and development politics, as well as further studies in Australian politics, society and electoral systems. As political science contains much that is controversial, emphasis is placed on critical appraisal and analysis. Some subjects offered by the School are of particular interest to students in other faculties, especially Commerce and Law.

Russian Studies

The Department of Russian Studies offers courses in the language, literature, history and culture of the Russian people. Language and literature courses are available both for beginners and for students already possessing a knowledge of Russian.

Science and Technology Studies

Science and Technology have been among the most powerful forces for social and cultural change which the world has seen. The disciplines of Science and Technology Studies seek an understanding of the nature of scientific and technical knowledge, their development from ancient beginnings to the present time, and the cultural, socio-economic and political impact of science and technology on industrial and post-industrial societies. Although the subjects offered in the School provide specialized training in the fields of Science, Technology and Society, and the History and Philosophy of Science and Technology, they can also provide an additional dimension to other major sequences in Arts or Sciences, where an understanding of the nature of science and technology and their social dimensions is desired as an important preparation for life in modern society.

Science and Technology Studies can be taken as a major sequence in the Science course 3970 as well as in the Arts 3400 and Social Science 3420 courses.

Social Science and Policy

The School of Social Science and Policy is an interdisciplinary unit which provides for training and research in the social sciences with an emphasis on policy analysis and policy making. Policy analysis is concerned with "finding out what organizations (whether government, private or community) do, why they do it, and what difference it makes". Policy making involves solving problems "through a process of creativity, imagination and craftsmanship." The School of Social Science and Policy seeks to link the various social sciences (ie. economics, political science, sociology, history, etc.) to the policy process.

Many graduates will proceed to careers in Commonwealth, State or local government. Others will contribute to the policy-making process in unions or community organizations. Career opportunities exist in private corporations, consulting groups or international organizations. Graduates interested in proceeding to the PhD may go on to academic employment.

The School is responsible for the Bachelor of Social Science Degree (BSocSc) 3420, offers a graduate diploma in Policy Studies (GradDip) 5280 and two higher degrees; the Master of Policy Studies (MPS) 8248 and the PhD 1295.

Sociology

Sociology is concerned with the study of the structure of society as a whole and social relations in general. Its subject matter is diverse, overlapping not only with that of other social sciences - economics, politics, psychology and anthropology - but also with the subject matter of other disciplines - philosophy, history, medicine, the natural sciences, town planning, law and education. The major emphasis is the development, first, of a critical awareness of society and of sociological theory and, second, of a sociological imagination, and the tools and techniques for studying social phenomena.

Spanish and Latin American Studies

Subjects in Spanish and Latin American studies are available in language, literature, history, film and linguistics. Major sequences may be followed either in language and literature and/or history. In the case of language, entry to one of three streams depends on whether a student has no knowledge, some knowledge or an advanced knowledge of the Spanish language. Literature subjects offer a thematic approach to texts from Spain and Latin America. Subjects in Spanish history, art and film are presented in a wider, European context, and subjects in Latin American history reflect the broader issues of imperialism and underdevelopment. A major in Spanish and Latin American history may be completed with no knowledge of Spanish but a reading knowledge of the language is a prerequisite for entry to the honours year.

Theatre and Film Studies

The Department of Theatre and Film Studies is concerned with the theoretical and historical study of theatre, film and, to a lesser extent, television as performance arts. Whilst extensive practical work is undertaken, this is not in order that students achieve proficiency as actors or directors, but in order that they may develop a critical language for the discussion and analysis of theatre and cinema as performance events and reach a fuller appreciation of the production processes in the respective media. The Department also contributes to the Faculty's Master of Arts by Coursework program (course 8200). The research degrees of MA at honours level 2261 and Doctor of Philosophy 1181 are also offered.

Faculty of Biological and Behavioural Sciences

Biochemistry and Molecular Genetics

Biochemistry is concerned with an understanding of life processes, especially with regard to molecular aspects of living organisms. It is a distinct discipline which bridges biology and the physical sciences. It requires a background of biology and chemistry and, to a lesser extent, of mathematics. Biochemistry in turn is an essential element in the study of all disciplines in the Faculty of Medicine, and in biological technology, botany, microbiology and zoology. Biochemistry is a major component in the Science and Mathematics course 3970. Medical students may also interrupt their course to specialize in biochemistry for the award of the additional degree of Bachelor of Medical Science (BMedSc) 3830. In addition a limited number of medical students may undertake a BSc degree course with a major in biochemistry as part of the Combined Science and Medicine course 3820.

Biological Science

Biological Science encompasses all aspects of plants and animals including their relationship to each other and to the environment. The courses leading to the award of a science degree in Biological Science range from cell biology, plant and animal physiology through ecology, genetics and taxonomy, to entomology and evolutionary studies. These studies are particularly relevant in the fields of agriculture, forestry, wildlife management, conservation and related environmental sciences.

Biological Science may be taken as a major or a minor study in the Science and Mathematics course 3970.

Microbiology and Immunology

Microbiology is the science that is concerned with the nature and behaviour of microscopic and sub-microscopic life forms known as fungi, bacteria and viruses. These micro-organisms may affect life in many ways; some are the causative agents of human, animal and plant diseases; many are important in agriculture; while others are used in the production of a variety of foods and beverages. Molecular genetics is an important approach in many fields. In some areas of the subject the study of Immunology is important to an understanding of the ways in which man and animals may combat or avoid microbial diseases. Microbiology may be taken as a major or a minor study in the Science and Mathematics course 3970, and medical students may specialize in it in the Bachelor of Medical Science course 3830. The subject is also a component of the medical and biological technology courses, and of the food technology and other Applied Sciences courses.

Psychology

Psychology is an established scientific discipline concerned with the description, explanation and understanding of behaviour. It is also an area of professional practice. Psychology has many applications, especially in clinical, organizational, educational and industrial settings.
basic course covers such topics as learning, physiological psychology, perception, social psychology, abnormal psychology, personality, cognitive processes, research methods, psychological assessment, counselling, and computing. There is some choice in the supporting subjects to allow students to develop their special interests. The four-year professional program leading to the award of the degree of Bachelor of Science (Psychology) 3431 meets the academic requirements for professional recognition.

Psychology may also be taken as a major sequence and as an Honours program in the Science and Mathematics course 3970 and in the Arts course 3400. Psychology may also be combined with Anatomy, Computer Science, Neuroscience or Physiology in the Science and Mathematics course 3970, and with Social Science and Policy in the Social Science course 3420. Completion of an Honours program in psychology meets the academic requirements for professional recognition.

Students wishing to pursue careers in research and teaching in psychology undertake graduate studies leading to the award of the degree of PhD. Professional training at the graduate level is available in the Master of Psychology (Clinical) 8251 and the Master of Psychology (Applied) 8252 courses.

These combined courses involve Education studies each year along with either Arts or Science subjects. The Education studies include the philosophy of education, educational psychology and the sociology of education with a particular concentration on curriculum studies, methods of teaching and teaching practice in the fourth (final) year. The final year is conducted mainly at the School of Teacher Education, St. George campus. The combined courses not only qualify students for high school teaching but also expose them to a wide range of educational issues which would provide a suitable background for either further research or administration in education.

Four formal graduate courses are available leading to the awards of Bachelor of Education with Honours 8905, the Master of Education 8910, Master of Educational Administration 8960 and Doctor of Education 1975.

Suitably qualified candidates are accepted for research programs leading to the award of the degree Master of Education (Honours) 2990, Master of Educational Administration (Honours) 2945 or Doctor of Philosophy 1970.

Health Services Management (Kensington Campus)

Health Administration requires some degree of proficiency in many disciplines: architecture, law, public health, economics, statistics, political science, management science, psychology and sociology. All of these are necessary in the training of hospital and health service administrators and are provided in the courses offered by the School of Health Services Management. There are full-time and part-time courses leading to the award of the degree of the Bachelor of Health Administration 4040, and three formal graduate courses: the Master of Health Administration 8900; the Master of Health Planning 8940 and the Master of Public Health 9045. Two of these degrees (MHA, MHP, MNA) can be studied internally (on a full-time or part-time basis) or, if the student lives outside the Sydney Metropolitan Area, can be studied externally on a part-time basis. The MPH can only be studied internally, and is administered by the School of Health Services Management in conjunction with the Faculty of Medicine.

Suitably qualified candidates are accepted for research programs leading to the award of the degree of Master of Health Administration 2960 or Master of Public Health 2965/2845 or Doctor of Philosophy 1950.

Information, Library and Archive Studies (Kensington Campus)

The School of Information, Library and Archive Studies offers courses for librarians and archivists, conservators and preservation administrators. Librarians work in libraries and related information centres in educational, research, commercial, industrial and government organizations to discern and provide for the information needs of their users from any part of the world's published literature in any format. Archivists work in government, educational, commercial and industrial environments to assist organizations with the management of the records and archives resulting from their operations, to organize those records and archives, to preserve them from physical deterioration, to assist inquirers to retrieve information from the archives, and to advise on methods of keeping current records. Applications of modern information technology strongly influence the materials to be stored and the methods to be used in both librarianship and archives administration. The School also offers the only course in Australia to be specifically devoted to the training of library and archive conservators and preservation administrators leading to the award of Bachelor of Information Studies (Conservation) 4090. Specialist personnel in this area analyse the underlying reasons for the chemical and physical deterioration of information media, undertake treatments and repairs to protect materials from further damage, and in collaboration with librarians and archivists establish systems aimed at slowing down the rate of deterioration of information ranging from books to electronic records. Application of modern information technology strongly influences the materials to be stored and the methods to be used in librarianship, archives administration, conservation, and preservation administration. The School offers four graduate programs of study: a Graduate Diploma in Information Management-Librarianship 5591, another in Information Management-Archives Administration 5601, and masters degree courses in Librarianship-Library Management 8920/2960 and Librarianship-Information Science 8922 which provide education in broad areas of specialization beyond the basic professional level. A general masters degree in Librarianship is also offered 8920.

Suitably qualified candidates are accepted for research programs leading to the award of the degree of Master of Archives Administration 2985, Master of Librarianship 2980 or Doctor of Philosophy 1990.

Social Work (Kensington Campus)

Professional social work is a world-wide occupation and discipline concerned with helping individuals, families, groups, organizations, communities and societies, to deal with social problems, and to develop more satisfying and equitable social conditions generally. The Bachelor of Social Work degree course 4030 is a preparation for the professional practice of social work. In this first professional qualification, the student gains understanding of the main dimensions of contemporary and future social work practice at the various levels and in the various fields of social work intervention. Features of the course are a problem-solving approach in the first year, and a range of electives on selected aspects of social work in the last two years. An integral aspect of the program is organized learning in the field under the guidance of a field instructor, usually in a social agency.

The combined Bachelor of Social Work/Bachelor of Laws course 4785 qualifies students for the professional practice of both social work and law. In this six year program core legal and social work components are taken over the first four years. In the final two years students choose from a wide range of specialised social work and law electives. The final social work placement is undertaken in a legal setting.

Formal study may be continued by way of the Master of Social Work 8930. Suitably qualified candidates are accepted for research programs leading to the award of the degree of Master of Social Work 2970 or Doctor of Philosophy 1980.

Sport and Leisure Studies (St George Campus)

The School offers programs in Sports Science and Leisure Studies. The Bachelor of Sports Science 4120 has major studies in Exercise Science and Sports Coaching.

Students enrolled as Exercise Science majors undertake specialised course units, including major sequences in Exercise Physiology, Exercise Programs and Prescriptions and Fitness Assessment and Data Analysis. Students enrolled as Sports Coaching majors undertake specialist course units, including major sequences in Principles of Coaching and Socio-Psychological Perspectives.

In the Bachelor of Leisure Studies 4140 students undertake specialist course units such as Leisure Studies, Outdoor Recreation, Recreation Programming, Adaptive Recreation and Leisure for the Aged. The program supports the specialisation with a broad experience in human and community studies appropriate for people entering the leisure industry.

The School also offers a formal Master of Sports Science program 9340. Suitably qualified candidates are accepted for research programs leading to the award of the degree of Master of Sports Science (Honours) 9341 or Doctor of Philosophy 1930. Graduate courses allow students to specialise in particular areas of the discipline including Exercise Physiology, Motor Learning, Sports Psychology and Administration.

Teacher Education (St George Campus)

The School offers an Associate Diploma program in Business Computing 7210 which provides students with computer skills appropriate for such positions as account clerks, stock controllers, software support, database managers and other positions at similar levels which benefit from the application of Business Computing. Students study commercial and industrial information systems and learn to implement them using microcomputers. On completion, students are able to operate, maintain, develop, and modify commercial, industrial, and administrative microcomputer-based information processing systems.

The School offers a four-year program for intending primary school teachers leading to the award of Bachelor of Education. It prepares students to teach grades Kindergarten to Year 6. The program is designed as a professional degree carried out in two parts: Years 1-3 are designated Bachelor of Teaching 4101 and comprise three years full-time study as pre-service preparation. This is followed by a period of relevant professional experience. Year 4 is designated Bachelor of Education 4102 and is undertaken on a part-time basis over two years.

A program leading to the award of a Graduate Diploma of Educational Studies 5610 is available to qualified teachers. It aims to provide the skills, knowledge and attitudes necessary to teach effectively with computers and about computers. The Graduate Diploma of Education (Secondary Teaching) course 5560 is available to most graduates on a one year full-time basis, in selected secondary teaching areas. The school also services the fourth year of the BA BEd, BMus BEd and BSc BEd double degree programs.

The School also offers a Master of Education (Teaching) program 8965 which has, in addition to a generalist mode, specialisations in Computer Education and Science Education. Suitably qualified candidates may undertake research programs leading to the award of Master of Education (Teaching) 2995 or Doctor of Philosophy 1940.

Faculty of Science

The Schools of the Faculty contribute programs to the Science and Mathematics course which lead to the award of the degree of Bachelor of Science. The School of Optometry also offers a course leading to the award of the degree of Bachelor of Optometry 3950.

Chemistry

Chemistry, the study of matter, is a fundamental and central science, and provides an essential background to a wide range of scientific and technological disciplines. Chemistry involves the synthesis, purification, analysis, physical properties, and chemical reactions of compounds, and the interpretation of all behaviour at the atomic and molecular level. The School of Chemistry consists of four Departments (Analytical, Inorganic and Nuclear, Organic, and Physical Chemistries) and a First Year Unit.

Chemistry may be taken as a major or a minor study in the Science and Mathematics courses 3970 and 3972 and in the combined Science Law course 4770. Chemistry is also present as a major requirement in courses offered by other Faculties, e.g. Applied Science, and Engineering.

Opportunities are provided for graduate research leading to the award of the degrees Master of Science 2910 and Doctor of Philosophy 1870. There are two formal graduate courses: the Master of Chemistry 8770 and the Diploma in Food and Drug Analysis 5510.
Mathematics

Mathematics is about the relationships between quantities that can be measured. Pure Mathematics studies the different types of relationships, while Applied Mathematics uses what we know about these connections to describe the real world, and Mathematical Statistics is concerned with doing mathematics in the presence of uncertainty. Mathematics is basic to the study of all disciplines which use quantitative methods, and to some others of a more qualitative kind. As a consequence, mathematics courses are available in nearly all Faculties of the University and are essential for courses under the control of the Board of Studies in Science and Mathematics, and the Faculties of Engineering, Applied Science and Architecture. Mathematics, of course, is also a discipline in its own right and may be studied as such or in close combination with other disciplines (eg economic planning, management and environmental studies) either in the Science and Mathematics course 3970 or the Arts course 3400. A B/ComBSc double degree program is available which permits students to combine a degree in Finance with a degree in Mathematics. There are two formal graduate courses (by coursework): a master of Mathematics 8740 and a Master of Statistics 8750 offered by the Faculty of Science.

Optometry

Optometry is the art and science of vision care. The School of Optometry offers the Bachelor of Optometry course 3950, the sole course in New South Wales which leads to professional qualification as an optometrist. Students may also undertake the combined course leading to the award of the degrees of Bachelor of Science Bachelor of Optometry 3951. The Master of Optometry offers one subject, Ocular Therapy, in 1993.

Physics

In this University the research interests in Physics are represented by five Departments. The Department of Applied Physics is concerned with the application of physical science to the solution of technological problems, notably in regard to materials and instrumentation in acoustics. The Department of Astrophysics and Optics is working in the related fields of astronomy and applications of optical techniques. The Department of Biophysics makes use of physical methods in the study of biological and medical systems. The Department of Condensed Matter Physics is concerned principally with the study of semiconductors and surfaces as well as metals at low temperatures. The Department of Theoretical Physics has interests in condensed matter theory, statistical mechanics, particles and fields, and atmospheric & ionospheric physics.

The Physics program 0100 within the Science and Mathematics Course 3970 allows some degree of specialization in the areas represented by the Departments. There is also the possibility of combining a major in Physics with that of another discipline, eg Geology. Special provisions are made in program 0161 for Physics to be studied in conjunction with Computer Science. Four year programs in Medical Physics and in Atmospheric and Climate Science (Physical) were introduced in 1991 into the Advanced Science Course.

Physics is also present as a major requirement in courses offered by other Faculties, eg Engineering.

Australian Graduate School of Management

The AGSM offers a two-year full-time graduate course in management leading to the award of the degree of Master of Business Administration 8350 and a research degree of Doctor of Philosophy 1350, which normally involves at least three years of full-time study on a research project. For practising managers, the AGSM offers a two-year part-time Graduate Diploma in Management 5950 which is the Foundation stage of a proposed executive Masters degree. The AGSM also provides continuing education facilities for managers and, through activities in this area, maintains close contact with contemporary management. These activities include the Development Program for Managers, which is a residential course broadly designed to prepare executives for the responsibilities of general management; Short Courses, on specific topics or functional areas of management in which the School has special expertise; and Seminars, of a more exploratory nature.

Board of Studies in Science and Mathematics

The Board supervises the Science and Mathematics course 3970, the Business Information Technology course 3971, the Science and Mathematics (Advanced Science) course 3972, the Science and Mathematics (Advanced Science Medical Biophysics) course 3973, the Science and Mathematics (Environmental Science) course 3976, the Optometry course 3950 and the Psychology course 3431. The Science and Mathematics course offers programs containing units presented by the Schools of the Faculty of Biological and Behavioural Sciences, the Schools of the Faculty of Science as well as the following Schools from other Faculties: Chemical Engineering and Industrial Chemistry, Geography, Metallurgy, Mines, Department of Biotechnology, Applied Science; Philosophy, Science and Technology Studies Arts; Accounting, Economics Commerce; Electrical Engineering, Computer Science and Engineering, Mechanical and Manufacturing Engineering Engineering; Anatomy, Community Medicine, Pathology, Physiology and Pharmacology Medicine; and the Centre for Liberal and General Studies. Additional programs are available in ecology, genetics and marine sciences.
College of Fine Arts

The College offers undergraduate studies for the degree of Bachelor of Fine Arts 4800 which is designed for those seeking to make a career in visual arts, Bachelor of Art Education 4801 which provides the initial tertiary education for art educators in schools and related institutions, Bachelor of Design 4802 designed for students seeking to become professional designers and a Bachelor of Art Theory 4803 for those wishing to become art theoreticians or historians.

General Education Requirement

The University requires that all undergraduate students undertake a structured program in General Education as an integral part of studies for their degree.

Among its objectives, the General Education program provides the opportunity for students to address some of the key questions they will face as individuals, citizens and professionals.

There are differing requirements for general education for students commencing before, in, and after 1988. Students must complete a program of general education in accordance with the requirements in effect when they commenced their degree program. Students should consult the appropriate course authority or the Centre for Liberal and General Studies in Morven Brown Building, Room G58.

The program requires students to undertake studies in three categories of the program: The key questions addressed by the Program are:

Category A: The External Context: An introduction in non-specialist terms to an understanding of the environments in which humans function.

Course Requirement: 56 hours
1. Australia and the Development of the World Economy. How do we, can we, generate wealth?
2. Human Inequality. How can we, ought we, distribute wealth, status and power?
3. Science and Civilization. What steps should we take, and what policies should we adopt, in science and technology?
4. Ecosystems, Technology and Human Habitation. What effects do our wealth generating and techno-scientific activities have on the environment?
5. Mass Media and Communication. What are the effects of the new mass media of communication?

Category B: The Internal Context of Assumptions and Values: An introduction to, and a critical reflection upon, the cultural bases of knowledge, belief, language, identity and purpose.

Course Requirement: 56 hours
1. The Self and Society. How do we define ourselves in relation to the larger human community?
2. Changing Conceptions of Human Nature and Well-Being. How do our conceptions of human nature and well being influence both individual and social behaviour?
3. The Pursuit of Human Rationality. What are the prevailing conceptions of and challenges to human rationality?
4. The Use of Language, Images and Symbols. How do language, images and symbols function as means and media of communication
5. The Computer: Its Impact, Significance and Uses What is the impact of the computer on human society and culture?
6. Beliefs, Values and the Search for Meaning. Which systems of belief and configurations of values are most conducive to the survival and enhancement of the human species and the planet earth?

Category C: An introduction to the design and responsible management of the human and planetary future: An introduction to the systems over which human beings exercise some influence and control. This category is required only of students in four-year professional and honours programs

The central question to be addressed by students in a systematic and formal way is: For what purpose or purposes will I use my intellectual skills, my expertise, or my technological prowess?

Will these abilities be used, for example:

• in a creative and innovative way?
• to widen the circle of human participation in the benefits they bring?
• to break down the barriers of exclusion and discrimination?
• to enhance the prospects for survival of the human species?
• to enhance the capacity of the planet earth to sustain life?

All students in courses of four or more years must address these issues in their course. Information about how the Category C requirement is satisfied is provided by course authorities and is specified in faculty handbooks: the Category C program varies between Faculties, and in some Faculties, between Schools.
Identification of Subjects

A subject is defined by the Academic Board as 'a unit of instruction approved by the University as being a discrete part of the requirements for a course offered by the University'.

Each approved subject of the University is identified by a sequence of eight characters, consisting of a four character alphabetical prefix which identifies the organizational unit responsible for administering the subject, and a four digit numeric suffix which identifies the subject.

Subject identifiers are approved by the Registrar and the system of allocation is based on the following guidelines:

1. The authority offering the subject, normally a School of the University, is indicated by the four character alphabetical prefix.
2. Each subject identifier is unique and is not used for more than one subject title.
3. Subject numbers which have previously been used are not used for new subject titles.

Subjects taught are listed in full in the handbook of the faculty or board of studies responsible for the particular course within which the subjects are taken. Subject descriptions are contained in the appropriate section in the handbooks.

Appropriate subjects for each school appear at the end of each school section.

The identifying alphabetical prefixes for each organizational unit are set out on the following pages.

HSC Exam Prerequisites

Some subjects have enrolment prerequisites based on the NSW HSC. Students who are unsure whether they meet these prerequisites should contact the appropriate school office for clarification.

The University, in common with other large organizations, has established rules and procedures which are designed for the benefit of all members of the University. In some cases there are penalties (e.g., fines or exclusion from examinations) for non-compliance. Students requiring further information about the procedures described below should, initially, contact the Student Centre at their campus.

General Conduct

The University has not considered it necessary to formulate a detailed code of rules relating to the general conduct of students. Enrolment as a student of the University, however, involves an undertaking to observe the regulations, by-laws and rules of the University, and to pay due regard to any instructions given by any officer of the University.

Admission and Enrolment

Student Centres are located on each campus. These are the initial referral points for information on undergraduate and graduate courses admission requirements, undergraduate and graduate courses and enrolment procedures. Information may be obtained at Student Centres about admission to first year undergraduate courses, special admission, admission with advanced standing and admission based on overseas qualifications. Applications are also received from UNSW students who wish to transfer from one course to another, or seek any concession in relation to a course in which they are enrolled.

It is essential that the closing dates for lodgement of applications are adhered to. For further details see the section on Enrolment Procedures and Fees Schedules 1993.

Kensington Campus

The Student Centre is located on the lower ground floor of the Chancellery building, adjacent to the Library lawn. It is open from 9.00am to 5.00pm Monday - Friday. Faculty Handbooks and the Calendar may be purchased here.

A Cashier also operates at the Enrolment Centre during the enrolment period. Students wishing to enrol as research degree candidates should first consult the Head of the School in which they wish to study. An application is then lodged on a standard form and the Postgraduate Section, after obtaining a recommendation from the Head of School, refers the application to the appropriate Faculty or Board of Studies Higher Degree Committee.

Admission to Undergraduate Courses

Those seeking entry to undergraduate courses in any university in NSW or the ACT are required to lodge a single application form with the Universities Admissions Centre (Locked Bag 500, Lidcombe, 2141) by the end of September (late applications are accepted until the end of October on payment of a late fee). Provision is made on the application form for applicants to indicate up to six preferences. Students are notified of the result of their applications and provided with information regarding procedures to be followed in order to accept an offer of a place at this University. Enrolment is completed at the Enrolment Centre, Unisearch House, 221 Anzac Parade, Kensington.

Deferment of First Year Enrolment

Students who have received an offer of a place may request deferment of enrolment for one year and will usually receive permission providing they do not enrol in another tertiary course in that year. Deferments are not granted for undergraduate courses offered at the College of Fine Arts.

First year students who enrol and subsequently discontinue their whole course without failure will be permitted to re-enrol the following year providing they do not enrol in another tertiary course in that year. They must confirm their intention to re-enrol by lodging an application with the Universities Admissions Centre.
Admission Requirements

Admission to all courses in the University is subject to selection on the basis of the Tertiary Entrance Rank (TER) (see below).

Students who are candidates for the New South Wales Higher School Certificate in 1993 may be considered for admission if they have sat at least ten units in approved subjects including English.

Subjects currently approved by the University are:

Group A:
All courses within this group are acceptable for inclusion in the aggregate including 2 unit general and 2 unit unrelated courses.

Aboriginal Studies  Indonesian
Agriculture  Industrial Technology
Ancient History  Italian
Arabic  Japanese
Bahasa Indonesian/Malaysia  Korean
Business Studies  Lithuanian
Chinese  Macedonian
Classical Greek  Mathematics
Computing Studies  Modern Greek
Croatian  Modern History
Czech  Music

Estonian  Society and Culture
French  Slovenian
General Studies  Spanish
Geography  Studies of Religion
German  Textile and Design
Health and Physical Education  Turkish
Hebrew  Ukranian
Home Science  Vietnamese
Hungarian  Visual Arts

Group B:
Only ONE course (i.e. 2 units) from this group may be counted for selection purposes.

Joint Schools/TAFE Courses:
  Accounts Clerical
  Electronics Technology
  Small Business Practices
  Travel Agency Practice
  Classical Ballet
  Mathematics in Practice
  Science for Life

PLEASE NOTE:
Any Board determined courses NOT listed above have not yet been approved by the University for inclusion in the TER.

The University reserves the right to amend entry requirements without prior notice.

Calculation of Tertiary Entrance Rank (TER)

The TER will be based on the scaled aggregate and will inform students of their relative positions within the overall ranking of all HSC candidates.

The University's scaling method will take the Board of Studies standardised examination mark and the moderated school assessment for each course, and average the two to produce the course score. Scores for each 2 unit paper will then be standardised using a mean of 50. Where there is no school assessment, the examination mark only will be used. The scaling process will then determine weightings for courses according to the quality of their candidatures and the scores for each subject will be adjusted accordingly. For 3 and 4 unit related courses the scaled scores are determined from distributions of scaled scores in the common papers.

The best ten scaled unit scores will be selected and added together to produce an aggregate which is then converted to a TER.

The scaled aggregate can include any combination of units from Group A (see Admission Requirements) but no more than two units from Group B. Students may sit for more than two units from Group B but no more than two units will be included in the calculation of the scaled aggregate and therefore the TER.

Prerequisites

In addition some degree courses, as listed in the following table, require a student to have achieved a prescribed standard in specified Higher School Certificate subjects before an offer of a place will be made. These are called course prerequisites.

Further, some subjects have subject prerequisites based on results in the Higher School Certificate. Students who satisfy the course prerequisites but do not satisfy the subject prerequisites for all subjects in the course, may still receive and take up an offer of a place in the course except for Medicine (see below). They will not, however, be permitted to enrol in the particular University subject until the required prerequisite has been met.

Some introductory subjects will be available to students who have not met subject prerequisites at the Higher School Certificate but it should be noted that inclusion of one or more of these subjects in the first year program could prevent completion of a course in minimum time.

Subject prerequisites in the Medicine Course

For students entering the Medicine course failure to meet the subject requirements will result in their being given a one year deferment in order that they may achieve the required standard before commencing their course.

The following table lists all the undergraduate degree and diploma courses offered by the University other than those which are offered at the University College of the Australian Defence Force Academy, Canberra, and indicates those Higher School Certificate courses which, if completed at a satisfactory standard, will enable students to meet the prerequisite requirements of all compulsory subjects in that course.

Note

Where reference is made to 2 unit Mathematics, this does not include Mathematics in Society or Mathematics in Practice unless otherwise stated.

Where reference is made to 2 unit Science (any strand) or (Chemistry) etc this refers to an appropriate 2 unit course in Biology, Chemistry, Geology or Physics and does not refer to 2 unit Science (General) or Science for Life.

Admission Based on Equivalent Qualifications

Most applicants seeking admission to the University have completed the New South Wales Higher School Certificate. The University also accepts other qualifications, including:

1. Interstate Year 12, provided that applicants have achieved the equivalent of the current NSW TER required for entry to the particular course and satisfied course prerequisite subjects.

2. Overseas secondary and/or tertiary qualifications may be assessed by the University as meeting the equivalent level for admission to a particular course.

3. NSW TAFE Certificate, Advanced Certificate, Associate Diploma or Diplomas: applicants holding completed approved TAFE qualifications are eligible to be considered for admission. Trade certificates are not acceptable for admission purposes.

4. Registered Nurse Training (Hospital Based). Registered Nurses who completed hospital-based training are eligible to be considered for admission to some courses. Completion of Enrolled Nurse training is not acceptable for admission purposes.

5. Previous Tertiary Studies
A person who has successfully completed the equivalent of at least two whole year degree level subjects at any recognised tertiary institution will be considered on the basis of academic performance.

6. Foundation Studies Certificate
International students may qualify for admission to undergraduate courses by successfully completing the Foundation Studies Certificate, or a recognised equivalent course. The Foundation Studies Certificate is offered by Unisearch Ltd, and is conducted at two locations, the Kensington Campus of the University and the Riverina campus of Charles Sturt University in Wagga Wagga.

Special Entry to the University

Some avenues of special entry are available for (i) Older students, (ii) Aboriginal students and (iii) educationally disadvantaged students. These avenues of special entry are described below.

Older Students

There are three avenues of special entry available for older students.

(a) Applicants who are 20 years of age or older may qualify for entry to the University by completing 10 semester units of study in the Tertiary Preparation Certificate Course conducted by the NSW Department of Technical and Further Education. To be eligible for admission to all Applied Science, Science and Engineering courses, and for Commerce and Economics courses, the TPC must include Mathematics I, II and III with a minimum mark of 60 in each.

For further information on the TPC, contact a counsellor at a TAFE College.

(b) Applicants who are 21 years of age or older may qualify for entry to the University by obtaining a Tertiary Entrance Rank in 5 units of approved subjects at the New South Wales Higher School Certificate examination. Special Adult Matriculation is undertaken at a college of TAFE.

(c) Applicants over the age of 21 may also apply for admission to certain courses on successful completion of the University Preparation Program (UPP). The UPP involves attendance at the University for two hours per week (day or evening) for 28 weeks or, alternatively, for four hours per week (day or evening) for 14 weeks in Session 2 only. The UPP is designed to help students develop the skills and strategies needed to cope with the demands of tertiary study.

Students wishing to apply for Applied Science, Commerce, Economics, Engineering, or Science courses will be required in addition to take the Mathematics Preparation Program (MPP) during the Summer Session if they have not previously satisfied the HSC Mathematics prerequisite.
Points to Note

- Entry to the Medicine course is not possible via the TAFE Tertiary Preparation Course, a 5 unit HSC program or the University Preparation Program.

- Completion of a 5 unit HSC, the TPC or UPP does not ensure entry. Selection into all courses is based on academic merit in competition with other applicants. Some Faculties also consider other factors such as employment or may require applicants to submit a portfolio or attend an audition or interview.

- Certain courses have prerequisites. Refer to the section on Prerequisites.

- Any application for admission based on results in a 5 unit HSC program, the TPC or UPP must be made through the Universities Admissions Centre, Locked Bag 500, Lidcombe 2141.

- Any enquiries concerning the above should be directed to the University's Admissions Office telephone 02 697 3089.

Aboriginal Student Support Program

The University provides a special admission program for Aboriginal and Islander people. This program is open to persons of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Island descent and offers admission to all undergraduate courses at the University. It is not necessary for applicants to have attempted the HSC or equivalent in order to apply for admission under this program.

All enquiries relating to this scheme should be directed to the Co-ordinator, Aboriginal Student Support Program. Telephone 02 697 3805.

ACCESS Scheme

The ACCESS Scheme is a special method of entry to the University of New South Wales. It is designed primarily to assist school leavers of high academic potential whose education has been disadvantaged by circumstances beyond their control over a substantial period of time. It is available for admission to all undergraduate courses at the University and is open to all permanent residents of Australia.

Under the Scheme students who can demonstrate that their education has been severely affected by social, environmental or physical conditions for a period of at least a year, will be considered for places in courses below the normal course cut-offs. Those admitted within the Scheme will receive special assistance during their first year at University.

Further information about the Scheme may be obtained from the ACCESS Scheme Co-ordinator, telephone 02 697 5434 or from the Undergraduate Admissions Section, telephone 02 697 3089.

Enrolment as a Non-Award Student

See section 1.7., Enrolment Procedures and Fees Schedule, 1993, below.

Enrolment Procedures and Fees Schedules 1993

These rules apply to the following categories of students at the University:

- those proceeding to an undergraduate award;
- those proceeding to a postgraduate award or undertaking a postgraduate qualifying program;
- those undertaking cross-institutional study at UNSW for credit towards an award in which the student is currently enrolled at another Australian tertiary institution;
- those undertaking study as part of the Study Abroad program;
- those undertaking study as part of a formal exchange agreement between UNSW and certain overseas institutions;
- those enrolling in formal subjects but who will not be counting such subjects towards a formal University award (ie non-award enrolment).

1. Enrolment and Variations in Enrolment

All students must lodge an enrolment form each year. Students who fail to enrol in accordance with advertised procedures or who enrol after the nominated date will incur a fee penalty. At the time of lodging the enrolment form and with permission of the course authority, the student enrols in a course and in subjects appropriate to the student's year of course and discipline area. The student also provides demographic information, collected in statistical form, for the Department of Employment, Education and Training, and incurs Student Activity Fees and liability under the Higher Education Contribution Scheme. Details of Student Fees are provided below.

1.1 New Undergraduate Enrolments

Students applying for entry into the University must lodge an application for selection with the Universities Admissions Centre, Locked Bag 500, Lidcombe 2141.

Those who are selected will be required to complete enrolment at a specified time before the start of Session 1. Application forms and details of application procedures may be obtained from the Student Centre at your campus.

1.2 Re-enrolling Undergraduate Students

Students who are continuing courses (or returning after approved leave of absence) should enrol in accordance with the procedures set out in the 1993 Enrolment Booklet available from the Student Centre and from course offices.
Completion of enrolment after the last working day before the beginning of Session 1 will incur a penalty.

1.3 Re-enrolment deadlines – restrictions on late enrolment
Students must enrol in accordance with the enrolment schedule for their course and no later than the Friday before the commencement of Session 1. Students who attempt to enrol after this date will be required to apply in writing to the Registrar showing cause why they should be permitted to enrol. If permission is granted, students will be liable for a late enrolment fee of $250 if enrolling in Week 1, and $500 if enrolling in Week 2 or subsequently. An official receipt of payment of this fee must be shown before enrolment can be completed.

Some categories of student are exempt from this requirement – see the 1993 Enrolment Booklet for details. See 7. Other Fees (below) for details of penalty fees.

1.4 New Postgraduate Students
Students enrolling for the first time in postgraduate courses will be advised by letter concerning the method of enrolment. Enrolment other than in accordance with the procedure set out in this letter may incur a penalty.

1.5 Re-enrolling Postgraduate Students
Students enrolled in research degrees will receive re-enrolment instructions in January.

Students re-enrolling in postgraduate degree, diploma or certificate courses should enrol in accordance with the procedures set out in the 1993 Enrolment Booklet for Graduate Courses, available from the Student Centre at their campus and from course offices.

1.6 Summer Session Enrolments
Students will be required to complete formal enrolment procedures prior to the commencement of their Summer Session of study.

Enrolment at this time will only be for a student's approved Summer Session program. When students complete formal re-enrolment with the University in February, Student Activity Fees will be levied together with an estimate of HECS liability based on the total year’s approved program of study.

1.7 Restrictions Upon Re-enrolling
Students who have infringed the rules governing re-enrolment should not attempt to re-enrol but should follow the written instructions they have received from the Registrar.

1.8 Non-award Enrolment
Non-award students are students who are enrolled in subject's but are not proceeding to a degree or diploma of the University.

Voluntary subject enrolment is where a student elects to enrol in subjects additional to his/her UNSW degree or diploma. Enrolment in these subjects is on a non-award basis.

Enrolments by non-award students are governed by the following rules:

(1) Enrolment in a particular subject or subjects as a non-award student may be permitted provided that in every case the Head of the School offering the subject considers that the student will benefit from the enrolment and provided also that accommodation is available and that the enrolment does not prevent a place in that subject being available to a student proceeding to a degree or diploma.

(2) A student who is under exclusion from any subject in the University may not enrol in that subject.

(3) A student who is under exclusion from any course in the University may not enrol in any subject which forms a compulsory component of the course from which the student is excluded.

(4) A student who is subsequently admitted to a course of the University for which subjects completed as a non-award student form a part, may receive standing for those subjects.

(5) As a general rule the University does not permit non-award students to enrol in first year undergraduate subjects.

Enquiries concerning eligibility for enrolment and the availability of subjects should be made at the relevant School.

Non-award students are required to pay subject tuition fees. The amounts are set out below in item 6 under 'Schedule of Subject Tuition Fees for Non-award Enrolments'.

1.9 Cross-institutional Enrolment
Students proceeding to an award at another tertiary institution who have been permitted to count a subject undertaken at the University towards their award at the other institution, require the permission of the Head of the School offering the subject in the same manner as other non-award enrolments. (See 1.7 above).

Enquiries concerning application procedures and eligibility should be made at the Student Centre at your campus.

Cross-institutional non-award students will incur a HECS liability for their enrolment except that where such students are permitted to enrol in a subject for which a tuition fee is charged, they will be required to pay the tuition fee in lieu of a charge under HECS.

1.10 Final dates for Enrolling in Subjects
No enrolments for subjects extending over the whole year or for Session 1 only will be accepted from students after the end of the second week of Session 1 except with the express approval of the Registrar and the Head(s) of the School(s) concerned. No enrolments for subjects in Session 2 only will be accepted after the end of the second week of Session 2 except with the express approval of the Registrar and the Head(s) of the School(s) concerned.

1.11 Variations in Enrolment (including Discontinuation of a course)
(1) Students wishing to vary their enrolment program must make application on the Variation of Enrolment form available from course offices.

(2) Discontinuation of a course
Students discontinuing courses are required to notify the Registrar in writing or to complete the discontinuation form available from the Student Centre. Such students may be entitled to a fee refund. (See item 2, Student Fees). Discontinuation of a course is acknowledged in writing by the Registrar.

(3) Discontinuation of subjects
Applications to discontinue subjects may be submitted throughout the year but applications lodged after the following dates will result in students being regarded as having failed the subjects concerned, except in special circumstances.

(a) Session One subjects: 31 March
(b) Whole Year subjects: end Week 2 of Session 2
(c) Session Two subjects: 31 August

All variations to subject enrolments are acknowledged by the 'Confirmation of Enrolment' notice issued each session.

(4) Variation to Summer Session enrolment

Students wishing to vary their Summer Session enrolment program must apply on the Variation of Enrolment form within 5 working days of the subject commencing. Applications lodged after this time will result in students being regarded as having failed the subject(s) concerned, except in special circumstances.

(5) Discontinuation of 1st year undergraduate students

First year students who enrol and subsequently discontinue without failure their whole course will be permitted to re-enrol the following year providing they do not enrol in another tertiary course. They must confirm their intention to re-enrol by lodging an application with the Universities Admissions Centre.

1.12 Deadlines for Payment of Fees, Charges and HECS

The University has introduced deadlines for the payment of all fees – these are set out below. Students who do not pay all fees by the due dates may be disenrolled. Students who are permitted to be re-instated following disenrolment will be required to pay a penalty fee of $250.00 plus all outstanding fees and HECS before re-instatement.

Session 1 (All fees for 1993; Session 1 HECS) Friday 12 March 1993
Session 2 (Session 2 HECS) Friday 6 August 1993

2. Student Fees

Students are liable to pay Student Activity Fees and may incur a liability under the Higher Education Contribution Scheme (HECS). In the case of some postgraduate courses, students are also liable for course tuition fees, payment of which exempts them from HECS liability.

Tuition fees are also charged for any subject in which a student has enrolled on a non-award basis. In the case of such subjects, tuition fees are levied in lieu of HECS charges.

Students who are not Australian citizens or who have not been granted permanent residence in Australia are required to pay the full-fee cost of their degree or diploma. The full-fee amount includes both Student Activity Fees and course tuition fees. Full-fee students are not HECS liable. See 5.4 (below) for details of full-fee courses.

Students may be liable for one or more of the following Fees:

- Higher Education Contribution Scheme (HECS)
- Postgraduate Course fees
- Subject fees (voluntary or non-award)
- Student Activity fees
- Other fees

Payment of fees and HECS must be made in accordance with instructions contained on the Student Charges Notice issued during enrolment. Any requests for variation from those instructions should be referred to the Senior Assistant Manager, Treasury, Financial Services Department.

2.1 Student Activity Fees

Student Activity Fees have 3 components: the University Union Entrance Fee, Annual Subscriptions to the various student organizations listed in (b) below, and the Miscellaneous Fund Annual Fee.

(a) University Union Entrance Fee: Kensington Campus only.

Payable on first enrolment in the University $36

All students must pay the full University Union entrance fee including those enrolling for one session only.

(b) Annual Subscriptions:

All students (with the exceptions set out below) are required to pay Annual Subscriptions if enrolling for a program involving two sessions. Those enrolling for only one session will pay half any subscriptions due.

Annual subscriptions are adjusted annually by a system of indexation and those set out below have been approved for 1993.

Kensington Campus:

University Union annual subscription: $174
Sports Association annual subscription: $43
Students' Union annual subscription:
  full-time students: $52
  part-time students: $42

St George Campus:

St George Students' Union annual subscription:
  full-time students: $182
  part-time students: $172

College of Fine Arts:

College of Fine Arts Students' Union annual subscription:
  full-time students: $191
  part-time students: $182

(c) Miscellaneous Fund Annual Fee:

This fee is used to finance expenses generally of a capital nature relating to student activities and includes an allocation for insurance cover for students. Funds are allocated for projects approved by the University Council. Those enrolling for only one session will pay half the annual fee.

Kensington: $61
St George: $61
College of Fine Arts: $61

2.2 Exemption from Student Activity Fees

Students often seek exemption from Student Activity Fees for reasons other than those set out below. It is stressed that the fees charged are a contribution by students towards services and amenities for the University community both now and in the future and exemption from them cannot be claimed because a student is unable or unwilling to make use of some of those services or amenities.

(1) Life members of the University Union and the Sports Association are exempt from those Annual Subscriptions.
Students who consider themselves eligible for life membership of the University Union or the Sports Association should make enquiries at the offices of those organisations.

(2) Students enrolled in courses classified as External or who are enrolling in courses where for a session or sessions the formal academic requirements are undertaken at a part of the University away from their campus such as a teaching hospital or field station or at another tertiary institution or elsewhere, are exempt from the University Union Entrance Fee and all Annual Subscriptions but not the Miscellaneous Fund Annual Fee.

(3) Students enrolled in courses at the University College Australian Defence Force Academy are exempt from the Student Activity Fees and the University Union Entrance Fee, but shall pay such other fees and charges as the Council may from time to time determine.

(4) Students who while enrolled at and attending another tertiary institution in a degree or diploma course are given approval to enrol at the University in subjects to be credited towards the degree or diploma for which they are enrolled elsewhere are exempt from all Student Activity Fees.

(5) Graduate students who have completed all the experimental and research work for their degree at the commencement of session, except for the submission of their thesis or project report, may be exempted from the payment of all Student Activity Fees by the Registrar on production of an appropriate statement from the student's supervisor or head of school certifying that the student is no longer using University facilities.

(6) Graduate students required to resubmit their thesis or project report where resubmission requires no further experimental or research work may be exempted from payment of all Student Activity Fees by the Registrar on production of an appropriate statement from the supervisor or head of school.

(7) The Registrar is empowered to grant exemption from membership of the University Union, Students' Union and/or the Sports Association to students who have a genuine conscientious objection to such membership, subject to payment of all prescribed fees to the Miscellaneous Fund.

2.3 Refund of Student Activity Fees

(a) If notice of discontinuation of a course is received before the first day of Session 1, a refund of all Student Activity Fees paid will be made.

(b) Any person who has paid the University Union Entrance Fee in any year and who discontinues membership of the University Union after the commencement of Session 1 in the same year, or who does not renew membership in the immediately succeeding year may on written application to the University Union Warden receive a refund of half the entrance fee paid.

(c) If notice of discontinuation of a course is received on or before 31 March a full refund of Annual Subscriptions and the Miscellaneous Fund Annual Fee paid will be made; if notice is given on or before 31 August a refund of one-half of the Annual Subscriptions and the Miscellaneous Fund Annual Fee paid will be made; thereafter no refund will be made except that provided for in (f) below.

(d) If a student’s enrolment is for one session only and notice of discontinuation is received on or prior to either 31 March or 31 August a full refund of Annual Subscriptions and the Miscellaneous Fund Annual Fee paid will be made; thereafter no refund will be made except that provided for in (f) below.

(e) The refunds mentioned above may be granted to a student unable to notify the Registrar in writing by the dates required provided evidence is supplied that the student had ceased attendance by those dates.

(f) The refunds mentioned in (a), (c) and (d) above also apply to graduate students who submit a thesis or project report for examination or whose enrolment is discontinued by the dates given.

3. Higher Education Contribution Scheme (HECS)

The Higher Education Contribution Scheme, (HECS), is a scheme introduced by the Commonwealth Government in 1989 whereby students contribute towards the cost of their higher education. In 1993 the annual charge will be $2,328 for a full-time equivalent study load. All students are liable for HECS unless exempted from the charge. The categories of HECS exemptions are set out below.

HECS is calculated each session at the HECS census dates and represents the proportion of the normal full-time equivalent load for the year of the course in which the student is enrolled. The load for full-year subjects is assessed and reported separately for session 1 and session 2. Load for summer session subjects is assessed two weeks after teaching in the subjects begins and is reported at the same time as session 1 load. Similarly, subjects studied in the mid-year break (winter session) are assessed two weeks after teaching in the subjects begins and reported at the same time as session 2 load. Students are assessed for session 1 subject load and the session 1 load of full-year subjects on 31 March and for session 2 subject load and the session 2 load of full-year subjects on 31 August.

For most students there are two options available for payment of the charge. Students may pay 'up-front' and receive a 25% discount on the calculated charge or 'defer' payment in which case their liability is discharged through the taxation system when their income reaches certain levels. Students may also opt to make a partial payment 'up-front', in which case they receive no discount. At enrolment each student must choose a payment option and complete the Payment Options Form. Beginning in 1993, the Commonwealth Government requires that New Zealand citizens resident in Australia for less than two years and permanent residents of Australia whose term address is overseas pay their HECS contribution 'up-front'.

Students who wish to pay 'up-front' must follow the instructions they receive at enrolment and make the payment within the specified time. The 'deferred' payment option requires students to provide their Tax File Number or for those who have not been issued with a number or do not know their Tax File Number, to complete a Tax File Number Application/Enquiry Form.

After the HECS census dates, all students are sent a notice confirming their enrolment details and outlining HECS liability information. For those students who have chosen the 'deferred' payment option, the liability which appears on the form will be reported to the Australian Taxation Office.

3.1 HECS Exemptions
(1) All students who have received a HECS exemption scholarship;
All Doctorate and Masters by research students who have not exceeded the maximum period of enrolment;
Full-time and part-time students enrolled in a separate honours year as well as students enrolled in a postgraduate qualifying program which is identical to a honours program.
(2) Full-fee paying, sponsored, and subsidised overseas students.
(3) Students awarded a scholarship from education authorities for the professional development of teachers.
(4) All students enrolled in courses where tuition fees are payable.

5. International Students

5.1 Study Abroad Students
The Study Abroad Office administers arrangements for fee paying international students wishing to study at the University for up to one year. The course categories available are:

- Regular undergraduate academic subjects and internships generally for students in the second and third year of their tertiary education;
- Graduate-level coursework or projects;
- Short credit and non-credit courses convened on particular topics and offered during session breaks;
- Non-credit study programs for the enhancement of professional skills and knowledge.

Offers of admission for the session are made to qualified candidates in the sequence of application until all places have been filled. Applicants will have completed a year or more of post-secondary study at an accredited degree-granting institution of higher education prior to enrolment.

Qualified applicants need to be recommended for Study Abroad by a Dean or designated adviser, but will have attained an academic average of 3.0 GPA, or a credit in coursework completed at the time of application in the subject areas nominated for study at the University of New South Wales. Applicants should have obtained approval from their home institution for course preferences.

Applicants to the Study Abroad Program are normally notified of the selection decision no later than two weeks after their application is received. Successful candidates will receive a letter of provisional offer and a request for the full fee. On receipt an Acceptance Advice form will be forwarded along with instructions on how to obtain a student visa and other pre-departure information.

Further information is available from the Study Abroad Office located on the 16th Floor of the Mathews Building.

5.2 Exchange Students
The University is party to several exchange agreements whereby students from the University of New South Wales may undertake courses at an overseas university and have subjects credited towards their degree. Students from the overseas universities enrol as non-award students at the University of New South Wales and undertake subjects for credit at their home universities.

Exchange students pay no tuition fees or subscription fees to students or sports unions, but are responsible for their own airfares, accommodation and living expenses.

Students from this University who study overseas on exchange should obtain course authority approval for proposed subjects prior to departure and submit official transcripts of the results to the course office upon their return. Australian exchange students will incur a liability under the Higher Education Continuation Scheme. Further information regarding exchange programs can be obtained from the International Student Centre.

5.3 International Students
All international students wishing to enrol in formal courses at the University are required to enrol on a full-fee paying basis. The fees are determined annually by the University in accordance with Government guidelines.

International students currently undertaking an Australian Year 12 examination or enrolled in an Australian university apply for admission through the Universities Admissions Centre in the same way as local students. All other overseas students seeking admission to the University apply direct to the University.

To accept an offer of a place, an overseas student must lodge a deposit of 50% of the first year's fee. When this is received, the University is able to issue an Acceptance Advice Form which must be submitted when the applicant applies for a student visa.

The balance of the first year's fee must be paid on enrolment. Australian Government regulations require that international students must enrol in and remain enrolled in a full-time program.

Further information is available from the University's International Programs Office or the Student Centre located in The Chancellery Building, and Point 9, following, provides a full schedule of award courses and tuition fees for overseas students.

6. Other Fees

Special Examination Fees
Examinations conducted in special circumstances for each subject: $30
Penalty Fees
(1) Failure to lodge enrolment form or pay fees*, according to enrolment procedure: $50
(2) Late enrolment penalty for re-enrolling students:
enrolment in Week 1 of Session 1: $250
enrolment in Week 2 of Session 1 or subsequently: $500
(3) Reinstatement of enrolment fee: $250

Penalties (1) and (2) may accumulate.

* Fees include Student Activity Fees, the Miscellaneous Fund annual fee, fees levied for voluntary enrolment, non-award enrolment, international student fees, tuition fees for postgraduate courses, and up-front HECS liability.

7. Sponsored or Assisted Students
Scholarship holders and sponsored students must present an enrolment voucher or appropriate letter of authority from their sponsor at the time they attend to enrol.

8. Debts
Any student who is indebted to the University and who fails either to make a satisfactory settlement of indebtedness upon receipt of due notice or to receive a special exemption will be disenrolled and will cease to be entitled to membership and privileges of the University. Such a student is not permitted to attend classes or examinations, or to be granted any official credentials. Re-enrolment in a subsequent session or year will not be permitted until such time as the debt is either paid in full, together with any enrolment reinstatement penalty fee (if appropriate) or agreement reached between the student and the Registrar on the method of repayment.

In exceptional cases the Registrar may grant exemption from the provisions referred to in the preceding paragraph upon receipt of a written statement from the student setting out all relevant circumstances.

(a) Per subject per session
(b) Per credit point
(c) Per unit (as defined in course)
(d) Per subject per term
(e) Per subject per session for studio based subjects
(f) Per subject per session for theory and education subjects
(g) Students enrolled in course code 6084 in subject MDSG4001 are charged the discounted HECS of $1,746 applicable in 1993. These are ‘overseas trained’ doctors ‘permitted to enrol in Year 4 of course 3800 as miscellaneous students but undertake a full Year 4 load.

Subject tuition fees are payable only where the completion of the subject/s will not count towards a degree or diploma currently being undertaken by the student. These fees also apply to students undertaking voluntary subjects ie subjects not required for the University of New South Wales degree or diploma in which the student is currently enrolled.

Students counting the subject/s towards a degree or diploma at another Australian tertiary institution will incur a HECS liability for the subject/s undertaken.

A refund of tuition fees paid will be made only if notification of discontinuation is received before 31 March for Session 1 and whole year subjects or 31 August for Session 2 subjects. Thereafter no refund will be made except in cases where the student, for reasons of illness or misadventure, was unable to notify the Registrar by the dates required.

Student ID Card – Conditions of Use

All students enrolling at the University are issued with a student identification card. The number appearing on the card is the student identifier used in the University’s records. This number should be quoted in all correspondence.

(1) The card must be carried at the University and shown on request. It must be presented when borrowing from the University libraries, when using Library facilities and when applying for concessions.

(2) The card is not transferable.

(3) The student to whom the card has been issued must notify the Circulation Office of the Library of its loss or theft. Failure to do so may result in the cardholder being held responsible for items issued on the card after its loss or theft.

(4) The card is valid only for the period of enrolment indicated on the enrolment program notice issued at enrolment each year.

(5) The cardholder accepts responsibility for all Library books issued on his/her card and agrees to return books by the due date.

(6) If the card is damaged or becomes otherwise unusable, it is the cardholder’s responsibility to seek replacement.

(7) The card always remains the property of the University and must be returned to it when the holder leaves the University.

Course Leave

Leave of absence from a course of study may be granted to undergraduate or postgraduate students. Leave is generally restricted to a total of two sessions; applications for leave in excess of two sessions will be approved only in exceptional circumstances at the discretion of the course authority.

Undergraduate students may be granted leave before commencement of the course. This type of leave, usually referred to as deferment of enrolment, will normally be granted once only and for a maximum of 2 sessions.

Undergraduate Students

A new undergraduate student in Stage 1 of a course who discontinues that course without failure must reapply through UAC and is guaranteed re-admission to the same course the following year. A student who does not resume study in the following year must compete for a place, if and when re-admission is sought.

An undergraduate student in Stage 1 of a course who has obtained results in Session 1 subjects may apply for leave for Session 2 prior to the withdrawal date of 31 August. Leave sought after this date will be subject to the University’s rules for discontinuation and may result in failures being recorded.
All students

1. A request for leave should be made in writing to the Registrar either by letter or by using the Discontinuation/Leave form available from course offices and the Student Centres at each campus.

2. Leave should be sought prior to the census date: 31 March for Session 1 or whole year leave, or prior to 31 August for Session 2 leave.

3. A student who discontinues a course with or without failure after the census date for a session retains an enrolment record for that session and is subject to the rules on re-enrolment. A student who discontinues after the Session 1 census date may apply for leave for Session 2.

4. A student whose application for leave is rejected or who does not resume study at the end of the approved leave period must formally apply, in the usual manner, for re-admission to the course.

5. Enquiries about re-admission to a course should be directed to the Undergraduate Admissions Office or the Postgraduate Section, as appropriate.

Undergraduate Course Transfers

Students wishing to transfer from one program to another within the following awards should apply through their School office: Bachelor of Commerce, Bachelor of Economics, Bachelor of Science (Science and Mathematics), Bachelor of Engineering (Aerospace Engineering, Industrial Engineering, Manufacturing Management, Mechanical Engineering and Naval Architecture), Bachelor of Laws.

All other students wishing to transfer from one course to another must either apply through the Universities Admissions Centre (UAC) by the end of September (late applications are accepted until the end of October) on payment of a late fee or complete an Internal Transfer Application and submit it to the Student Centre by 23 December. Application forms are available from the Student Centre in the Chancellery. No late Internal Course Transfer applications will be accepted.

Students will be notified of the result of their application by the end of January.

Admission with Advanced Standing

Any persons who make application to register as a candidate for any undergraduate degree or award granted by the University may be admitted to the course of study leading to such degree or award with such standing on the basis of previous attainments as may be determined by the Academic Board provided that:

1. the Board shall not grant such standing under these rules as is inconsistent with the rules governing progression to such degree or award as are operative at the time the application is determined;

2. where students transfer from another university such students shall not in general be granted standing in this University which is superior to what they have in the University from which they transfer.

3. the standing granted by the Board in the case of any application based on the completion of part or all of the requirements for any degree or award of a recognised tertiary institution shall not be such as will permit the applicant to qualify for the degree or award for which they seek to register by satisfactory completion of a program of study deemed by the Board to be less than that required of students in full-time attendance in the final year of the course concerned.

4. where Faculty/Board of Studies rules permit, candidates who have been awarded the degree of bachelor at pass level may be admitted to candidature for the award of the degree at honours level with credit for all subjects completed if, during their studies for the pass degree, they have satisfied the prerequisites for entry to the honours level laid down by the school or schools concerned or the equivalent of those prerequisites.

Resumption of Courses

Students who have had a leave of absence for twelve months and wish to resume their course should follow the instructions about re-enrolling given in the letter granting leave of absence. If these instructions are not fully understood or have been lost students should contact the Student Centre in the Chancellery before November in the year preceding the one in which they wish to resume their course.

If students have not obtained leave of absence from their course and have not been enrolled in the course over the past twelve months or more, they should apply for re-admission to the course through the Universities Admissions Centre before the end of September in the year preceding that in which they wish to resume studies.

Assessment and Examinations

Examinations are held in June/July and in November/December.

Timetables

Provisional timetables indicating the dates and times of examinations are posted on the University noticeboards in May and October. Students must advise the Student Centre of any clash in examinations.

Final timetables indicating the dates, times, locations, and authorized materials are available for students two weeks before the end of each session.

Assessment of Course Progress

In the assessment of a student's progress in a course, consideration may be given to work in laboratory and class exercises and to any term or other tests given throughout the year, as well as to the results of written examinations.
Results of Assessment
Assessment result advices include the final composite marks students achieve in subjects taken that session.

Grading of Passes
Passes are graded as follows:

- High Distinction: an outstanding performance
- Distinction: a superior performance
- Credit: a good performance
- Pass: an acceptable level of performance
- Satisfactory: satisfactory completion of a subject for which graded passes are not available

Pass Conceded
A pass conceded may be granted provided that the overall performance is considered to warrant such a concession. A pass conceded in a subject will allow progression to another subject for which the former subject is a prerequisite.

Pass Terminating
A pass terminating may be granted provided that the overall performance is considered to warrant such a concession. A pass terminating does not allow progression to another subject for which the former subject is a prerequisite.

Notification of Results
Final assessment results will be posted to a student’s postal address, or vacation address if requested. Forms requesting that results be posted to a vacation address and change of address forms are obtainable at the Student Centre at your campus.

No assessment results are given by telephone.

Review of Results
A student may make application to the Registrar for the review of a result. The application form, accompanied by an appropriate fee, must be submitted not later than fifteen working days after the date of issue of the Notification of Result of Assessment form.

In reviewing a result, the subject authority shall ensure that all components of the assessment have been assessed and a mark assigned.

A review of a result is not a detailed reassessment of a student’s standard of knowledge and understanding of, and skills in, the subject. It is rather a search for arithmetic error in arriving at the composite mark and for gross and obvious error in assignment of marks in components of the final composite mark.

When an increase in marks is recommended, the application fee will be refunded by the Registrar.

Special Consideration
Students who believe that their performance in a subject, either during session or in an examination, has been adversely affected by sickness or any other reason should inform the Registrar and ask for special consideration in the determination of their standing.

Such requests should be made as soon as practicable after the occurrence and in any event no more than seven days after the final examination in a subject.

When submitting a request for special consideration students should provide all possible supporting evidence (eg medical certificates) together with their student I.D. and enrolment details. Refer to the Student Guide for full details on consideration procedures.

Physical Disabilities
Students with a physical disability which puts them at a disadvantage in written examinations, should advise the Head, Examinations and Assessment Unit (Ground Floor, the Chancellery, telephone 697 3088) immediately their disability is known to discuss special examining conditions.

All students who need special examining conditions should contact the Student Centre and fill out the appropriate forms as soon as the Provisional Timetable is displayed.

Use of Computers and Electronic Calculators
The use of computers or electronic calculators may be permitted in examinations conducted within the University. Computers and electronic calculators which are authorized by the University for this purpose must be hand-held, internally powered, and silent. Computers are distinguished from electronic calculators for this purpose by the existence of a full alphabetic keyboard on them. Computers are not permitted in examinations for which an electronic calculator has been specified. When an electronic calculator is permitted in any examination, any programmable memory on it must be cleared prior to entering an examination room.

The University does not provide computers or electronic calculators of the kind described in this rule for use in examinations although some schools may make them available in special circumstances.

Examinations Held Away from the Campus
Except in the case of students enrolled in external courses, examinations will not be permitted away from the campus unless the candidate is engaged in compulsory industrial training. Candidates must advise the Head, Examinations and Assessment Unit, telephone 697 3088, immediately the details of the industrial training are known.

Arrival at Examinations
Morning examinations commence at 9am and afternoon examinations at 2pm. Candidates are required to be in their seats 15 minutes before the starting time to hear announcements regarding examinations and to take advantage of the reading time.

Use of Linguistic Dictionaries
The answers in all examinations and in all work submitted must be in English unless otherwise directed. Students may apply for permission to use standard linguistic dictionaries in the presentation of written work for assessment. The dictionary must be shown to the Head, Examinations and Assessment Unit at the time the application is made.

Academic Misconduct
Students are reminded that the University regards academic misconduct as a very serious matter. Students found guilty of academic misconduct are usually excluded from the University for 2 years. Because of the circumstances in individual cases the period of exclusion can range from one session to permanent exclusion from the University.

The following are some of the actions which have resulted in students being found guilty of academic misconduct in recent years:

1. taking unauthorized materials into an examination;
2. submitting work for assessment knowing it to be the work of another person;
3. improperly obtaining prior knowledge of an examination paper and using that knowledge in the examination.
4. failing to acknowledge the source of material in an assignment.

Acknowledgement of Sources
Students are expected to acknowledge the source of ideas and expressions used in submitted work. To provide adequate documentation is not only an indication of academic honesty but also a courtesy enabling the marker to consult sources with ease. Failure to do so may constitute plagiarism, which is subject to a charge of academic misconduct.

Conduct of Examinations
Examinations are conducted in accordance with the following rules and procedure:

1. Candidates are required to obey any instruction given by an examination supervisor for the proper conduct of the examination.
2. Candidates are required to be in their places in the examination room not less than fifteen minutes before the time for commencement.
3. No bags, mobile telephones or other communications equipment, writing paper, blotting paper, manuscript or book, other than specified material, is to be brought into the examination room.
4. Candidates are required to sit in the seat allocated to them by an examination supervisor.
5. Candidates shall not be admitted to an examination after thirty minutes from the time of commencement of the examination.
6. Candidates shall be not permitted to leave the examination room before the expiry of thirty minutes from the time the examination commences.
7. Candidates shall not be re-admitted to the examination room after they have left it unless, during the full period of their absence, they have been under approved supervision.
8. Candidates shall not by any improper means obtain, or endeavour to obtain, assistance in their work, give, or endeavour to give, assistance to any other candidate, or commit any breach of good order.
9. All answers must be in English unless otherwise stated. Foreign students who have the written approval of the Registrar may use standard linguistic dictionaries.
10. Smoking is not permitted during the course of examinations.
11. A candidate who commits any infringement of the rules governing examinations is liable to disqualification at the particular examination, to immediate expulsion from the examination room and to such further penalty as may be determined in accordance with the By-laws.

Writing in Examinations
Candidates are permitted to take pens, pencils and erasers into the examination room but are advised that all answers must be written in ink. Except where expressly required, pencils may be used only for drawing, sketching or graphical work.

Further Assessment
In special circumstances further assessment including assessment or further assessment on medical or compassionate grounds may be granted.

Further assessment may be given at the discretion of the subject authority at any time prior to the meeting of the relevant faculty assessment committee (normally the fourth week of the Midyear recess and the second week of December). Further assessment may also be awarded at the faculty assessment committee and students affected may need to be free to undertake further assessment in the last week in the Mid-year Recess and in the period up to the end of the second week in January. Students should ensure that they are familiar with the further assessment arrangements established by their subject authorities, and should consult their subject authority for details of further assessment immediately their results are known.

Provision of Information on Student Assessment
The University is committed to a policy of openness regarding exchange of information in matters involving the assessment of students. To this end:

(a) Subject authorities are responsible for ensuring that there is provided for each subject a clear written statement of expectations which should include a statement of objectives of the subject; its assessment plan, including weights allocated to each significant assessable component and related submission dates; the kind of evidence required for consideration to be given to late submissions; attendance, timetable and other requirements, to be presented at the first class of each session/term, recognizing always the ability to negotiate changes with the students concerned within the first week.
(b) All items of assessment completed during session should be marked promptly and returned to students with a mark or grade and, where appropriate, comments. Subject authorities where appropriate should provide information on the distribution of results in all items of assessment so that students can gauge their own performance against that of the other members of the class.
(c) Final composite marks in subjects as determined by faculty/board of studies Assessment Committees should continue to be provided to students on result notifications.
(d) Final examination scripts (other than those returned to students) are to be retained in the School for six months. Students should have access to their own scripts and be able to consult the examiner or the subject authority on their performance.

Faculties and boards of studies may determine the conditions under which access may be granted.
(e) Where examination question papers or other forms of assessment need to be kept confidential (e.g. multiple choice question papers where questions are re-used in later examinations) arrangement should be made for students to receive advice on their own performance with reference to their own examination script but in a way which does not prejudice the examination mode.
(f) In the case of the examination of theses and project reports, the examiners' reports should be released to the student, following determination of the student's results. The names of examiners, while remaining undisclosed prior to assessment, should be released subsequently unless a particular examiner requests that this information be not released.
Restriction upon Students
Re-enrolling

The University Council has adopted the following rules governing re-enrolment with the object of requiring students with a record of failure to show cause why they should be allowed to re-enrol and retain valuable class places.

First Year Students
1. Students enrolled for the first time in the first year of an undergraduate course of study in the University shall be advised that their academic progress is unsatisfactory if they do not pass the minimum number of subjects, units or credits prescribed by the relevant faculty or board of studies. Students will not be asked to show cause why they should be allowed to continue their course, but will be advised of courses of action they may take to improve their academic progress.

The minimum requirement for most faculties/boards is to advise of courses of action they may take to improve their academic progress.

The above does not apply to students who discontinue without failure all Session 2 and whole-year subjects.

Repeated Failure Rule
2. Students shall be required to show cause why they should be allowed to repeat a subject which they have failed more than once. Where the subject is prescribed as part of the course they shall also be required to show cause why they should be allowed to continue that course.

General Rule
3. (1) Students shall be required to show cause why they should be allowed to repeat a subject they have failed if the assessment committee of the faculty or board of studies so decides on the basis of previous failures in that subject or in a related subject. Where the subject is prescribed as part of the course they shall also be required to show cause why they should be allowed to continue that course.

(2) Students shall be required to show cause why they should be allowed to continue their course if the assessment committee of the faculty or board of studies so decides on the basis of their academic record.

The Session-Unit System
4. (1) Students who infringe the provisions of Rule 2. at the end of Session 1 of any year will be allowed to repeat the subjects if offered and/or continue the course in Session 2 of that year, subject to the rules of progression in the course.

(2) Such students will be required to show cause at the end of the year, except that students who infringe Rule 2. at the end of Session 1, and repeat the subjects in question in Session 2, and pass them, will not be required to show cause on account of any such subjects.

Exemption from Rules by Faculties
5. (1) A faculty or board of studies assessment committee may, in special circumstances, exempt students from some or all of the provisions of Rule 2.

(2) Such students will not be required to show cause under such provisions and will be notified accordingly by the Registrar.

Showing Cause
6. (1) Students wishing to show cause must apply for special permission to re-enrol. Application should be made on the form available from the Registrar and must be lodged with the Registrar by the dates published annually by the Registrar. A late application may be accepted at the discretion of the University.

(2) Each application shall be considered by the Admissions and Re-enrolment Committee of the relevant faculty or board of studies which shall determine whether the cause shown is adequate to justify the granting of permission to re-enrol.

Appeal
7. (1) Students who are excluded by the Admissions and Re-enrolment Committee of a course and/or subject under the provisions of the Rules have the right of appeal. A Re-enrolment Appeal Committee of the Academic Board will be constituted for the purpose of hearing such appeals.

(2) This Committee will have a membership of five and will be chaired by a senior member of the Academic Board nominated by the President. The remaining members of the Committee will preferably have had experience on a faculty Admissions and Re-enrolment Committee but will not be currently serving as members of such committees and need not be members of the Academic Board.

The decision of the Committee shall be final.

(3) The notification to students of a decision upheld by an Admissions and Re-enrolment Committee of the Academic Board to exclude them from re-enrolling in a course and/or subject shall indicate that they may appeal against that decision to the Re-enrolment Appeal Committee. The appeal must be lodged with the Registrar within fourteen days of the date of notification of exclusion; in special circumstances a late appeal may be accepted at the discretion of the chairman of the Appeal Committee. In lodging such an appeal with the Registrar students should provide a complete statement of all grounds on which the appeal is based.

(4) The Appeal Committee shall determine appeals after consideration of each appellant’s academic record, application for special permission to re-enrol, and stated grounds of appeal. Students may elect to appear before the Committee and/or be represented.

Exclusion
8. (1) Students who are required to show cause under the provisions of Rule 3. and either do not attempt to show cause or do not receive special permission to re-enrol from the relevant Admissions and Re-enrolment Committee (or the Appeal Committee on appeal) shall be excluded, for a period not in excess of two years, from re-enrolling in the subjects and courses on account of which they were required to show cause. Where the subjects failed are prescribed as part of any other course (or courses) they shall not be allowed to enrol in any such course.

(2) Students required to show cause under the provisions of Rule 2. who either do not attempt to show cause or do not receive special permission to re-enrol from the relevant Admissions and Re-enrolment Committee (or the Appeal Committee on appeal) shall be excluded, for a period not in excess of two years, from re-enrolling in any subject they have failed twice. Where the subjects failed are prescribed as part of a course they shall also be excluded from that course. Where the subjects failed are prescribed as part of any other course (or courses) they shall not be allowed to enrol in any such course.

(3) Students who are required to show cause under the provisions of Rules 2, or 3. and do not receive special permission to re-enrol may be excluded under one of the following categories:
(a) One year with automatic re-admission.
(b) Two years without automatic re-admission
Students excluded under (b) will be advised by the Registrar of courses of action they may take to improve their chances of re-admission.

Re-admission after Exclusion
9. (1) Excluded students may apply for re-admission after the period of exclusion has expired.
(2) (a) Applications for re-admission to a course should be made to the Universities Admissions Centre before the closing date for normal applications in the year prior to that in which re-admission is sought. Such applications will be considered by the Admissions and Re-enrolment Committee of the relevant faculty or board of studies.
(b) Applications for re-admission to a subject should be made to the Registrar before 30 November in the year prior to that in which re-admission is sought. Such applications will be considered by the relevant subject authority.
(3) Applications should include evidence that the circumstances which were deemed to operate against satisfactory performance at the time of exclusion are no longer operative or are reduced in intensity and/or evidence of action taken (including enrolment in course/s) to improve capacity to resume studies.
(4) Students whose applications for re-admission to a course or subject are unsuccessful (see 9.2(a),b) respectively) will be invited to appeal to the Re-enrolment Appeal Committee. The decision of the committee will be final. Students may elect to appeal before the Committee and/or be represented.
(5) Students who were excluded prior to 1990 under a category of 'two years without automatic re-admission and with re-admission subject to competing for a place with the current year's intake' have no right of appeal to this Committee.

Restrictions and Definitions
10. (1) These rules do not apply to students enrolled in programs leading to a higher degree or graduate diploma.
(2) A subject is defined as a unit of instruction identified by a distinctive subject identifier.

Admission to Degree or Diploma
The University's policy is to graduate at the next series of ceremonies all students who have completed requirements for their degree or diploma in the previous academic session.
The Registrar writes in December and June to all students eligible to complete requirements for their degree or diploma in the current academic session. Students who expect to complete requirements and who do not receive a letter by the end of December or June, respectively, should contact Student Administration (697 3092).
The letter from the Registrar confirms that students will be eligible to graduate on completion of their current enrolment program and asks students to notify any corrections to the University's records regarding name, address, telephone number and qualification sought. Students enrolled in courses where an honours qualification may be obtained through an additional year's study will be given the opportunity to advise that they will proceed to honours and, therefore, will not take out a pass degree.

Graduands who are indebted to the University will not be permitted to graduate until the debt has been cleared.

Information about graduation ceremonies
The University usually holds graduation ceremonies in the following periods:
February - Faculty of Medicine (note: not in 1993)
April/May - All Degrees and Diplomas
June - Degrees and Diplomas conferred at ceremonies in Jakarta and Kuala Lumpur
October - All Degrees and Diplomas
December - Australian Defence Force Academy

A schedule of graduation ceremonies, published by the Registrar, may be obtained from the Student Centre at each campus.

Information about arrangements for graduation ceremonies will be forwarded to graduands approximately six weeks before the date of the ceremony.

Attendance at Classes
Students are expected to be regular and punctual in attendance at all classes in the subjects in which they are enrolled. All applications for exemption from attendance at classes of any kind must be made ir. writing to the Registrar.

In the case of illness or of absence for some other unavoidable cause students may be excused by the Registrar for non-attendance at classes for a period of not more than one month or, on the recommendation of the Dean of the appropriate faculty, for a longer period.

Absence from Classes
Explanations of absences from classes, or requests for permission to be absent from forthcoming classes, should be addressed to the Registrar and, where applicable, should be accompanied by a medical certificate. If examinations or other forms of assessment have been missed, this should be stated in the application.

If students attend less than eighty per cent of their possible classes they may be refused final assessment.
Release of Information to Third Parties

The University treats results of assessment and information it receives from a student as confidential and will not reveal such information to third parties without the permission of the student except at the discretion of senior officers in circumstances considered of benefit to the student and when it is either impossible or impracticable to gain the student's prior permission. This happens rarely. This policy is considered so important that it often involves officers of the University in very difficult situations, for example, when they must refuse to reveal the address of a student to parents or other relatives.

All students should be aware that students’ addresses are eagerly sought by various commercial agents and that subterfuges of various kinds can be used to obtain them. From time to time, for example, people claiming to be from the University telephone students or their families and ask for information (usually another student's address) which is often given unsuspectingly. There is evidence that this is a technique used by some commercial agents.

It would be generally helpful if students, their families and friends were cautious in revealing information, making it a practice to ask the name, position, and telephone extension of any caller claiming to be from the University and, if suspicious, returning the call to the extension given.

Change of Address

Student Administration should be notified as soon as possible of any change of address. Failure to do this could lead to important correspondence (including results of assessment) going astray. The University cannot accept responsibility if official communications fail to reach students who have not given notice of their change of address. Change of Address Advice forms are available at Faculty and School offices and from the Student Centre at each campus.

All communications from the University will be sent to the postal address except when arrangements are made otherwise in the case of results of assessment (see Assessment and Examinations: Notification of Results earlier in this section). Change of Address Advice forms will be accepted up to the end of November, except for final-year students wishing to change their address for the purpose of receiving graduation information. Changes to this form will be accepted up to a date six weeks before the student's graduation ceremony.

Procedures for the Resolution of Student Grievances and Disputes

The University of New South Wales recognises that all decisions which affect a student’s standing or progress in a course or subject must be made fairly and must be based on appropriate academic criteria.

Guidelines

The University is committed to providing a harmonious work and study environment, and will seriously listen to complaints and resolve them quickly if possible. The resolution procedures ensure that students are able to air legitimate complaints, knowing that ad hoc, vindictive or arbitrary action will not be taken against them or the staff complained about. By providing a clear set of procedures, it is hoped that grievances can be dealt with satisfactorily and expeditiously, and will prevent a minor grievance from becoming major problem.

These procedures apply to all enrolled students and to any decisions which may affect a student’s standing in a subject or course. Many of these decisions concern assessment, but they may relate to other matters which could adversely affect a student’s standing such as the granting of advanced standing, discontinuation, supervision arrangements, access to facilities, the award of scholarships and prizes, and decisions regarding fees. Research students may have a grievance concerning a thesis topic, access to facilities or supervision.

As there are many different decision-making processes in the University potentially affecting academic standing, not all of them can be covered specifically in one set of procedures. It is however the University’s intention that a student’s right to resolution of a grievance or dispute is not limited by this statement of procedures. Existing appeal procedures established for the re-enrolment rules for undergraduate students or for decisions on allegations of academic misconduct are not affected by these procedures. Information on these procedures is available earlier in the Calendar, in the Student Guide or from the Student Centre in the Chancellery.

A student is required to make his/her grievance known within a reasonable time frame, normally within a month of the decision being communicated.

The University expects that student grievances and claims of unfair treatment should in most instances be able to be resolved through informal discussion and consultation without recourse to formal appeal. However, where resolution is not possible, the University is committed to listen seriously to complaints and resolve them quickly if possible, by the following procedures.

Grievance Procedure

Step 1
The student should attempt to resolve the grievance with the staff member(s) concerned within a reasonable time frame.

Step 2
If the grievance is still unresolved, it should be directed to the Head of School (or other responsible officer nominated by the Faculty) who will attempt to resolve the grievance informally. Reasons should be provided by the Head of School (or nominated officer) for any recommendation or decision in respect of the matter.
Step 3
If the matter is not satisfactorily resolved at this stage, the student should refer the grievance to the Registrar.

Step 4
Except when insufficient or unfounded reasons have been given by the student to support the complaint, the Registrar will take the complaint in writing, inform the respondent officially, commence an investigation, including reference to the Dean or Presiding Member of the Faculty, and give an answer (including reasons) normally within 7 days.

Step 5
If the student is still dissatisfied, an appeal may be lodged in writing with the Presiding Member of the Postgraduate or Undergraduate Studies Committee within 14 days of receiving the Registrar’s notification. The Presiding Member may decline to take action in cases where insufficient or unfounded reasons have been given by the student and shall inform the student accordingly.

If the matter has not already been considered by the Postgraduate or Undergraduate Studies Committee, this appeal will be heard by an Appeal Sub-committee, empanelled for the purpose by the Presiding Member of the appropriate Studies Committee. The Presiding Member will appoint as Chair of the Appeal Sub-Committee a member of the corresponding Studies Committee.

If the matter has already been considered by the Postgraduate or Undergraduate Studies Committee, this appeal will be heard by an Appeal Sub-Committee of the Academic Board, empanelled for the purpose by the President of the Board. The President will appoint as Chair of the Appeal Sub-Committee a member of the Academic Board.

The Appeal Sub-Committee will consist of at least three members, one of whom will be a student. The student member will be drawn from the Academic Board or from the current list of student members of faculties and boards of studies.

No member of the Appeal Sub-Committee will have been associated with either the original decision or any earlier step in the appeal process.

Within two months the Appeal Sub-Committee will make a decision on the matter. Decisions made by the Appeal Sub-Committees will be reported annually to the Academic Board. There will be no further right of appeal.

Each stage is to be handled expeditiously.
Since its foundation in 1949 the University of New South Wales has played an important role in tertiary education and, through its teaching and research, has contributed to the prosperity and development of industry and commerce in New South Wales and indeed throughout Australia. The quality of community life of the individual has also been enhanced by its work in medicine, environmental studies, engineering, the sciences and the humanities. While it receives a large measure of support from governments, the University relies to a considerable extent on funds from other sources to maintain and expand its research and to provide facilities for students and, also, to give it that additional measure of independence and freedom so necessary for the continuation of research and teaching.

In 1988 the University established The University of New South Wales Foundation Limited as the principal vehicle for its fundraising activities. Individuals and companies who wish to foster the University's independent advancement are encouraged to contribute to the Foundation, which can be contacted through the External Affairs Directorate.

For those wishing to contribute by Will, the following is a suggested form of bequest:

'I give to the University of New South Wales the sum of $ ......... which I direct to be paid free from all duties thereon to the Vice-Chancellor of the said University and to be applied for the purposes of the University in such manner as the Council thereof may determine.'*

The University could also be nominated as a residuary beneficiary in the event that other beneficiaries predecease the testator/testatrix. Solicitors would assist drafting an appropriate will.

It is desirable that any request as to the application of a donation or bequest be expressed in terms as general as possible unless, of course, previous consultation has taken place with a representative of the University. Otherwise the University may be hampered in carrying out the real intention of a donor or testator by detailed directions which become unsuitable in some future conditions.

A bequest to the University frequently takes the form of shares and inscribed stock. It is suggested that intending benefactors may care to consider making the necessary legal arrangements to permit the University to invest in a wide range of securities, thus allowing the University to protect the bequest against monetary depreciation.

This particular provision could be made in the following form:

'In addition to its express powers of investment, the University may invest moneys, the subject of this bequest, and any income earned thereon in shares, stocks, bonds, notes, debentures or other securities or obligations of any company which is listed on any Stock Exchange in Australia.'

*Any request or conditions which the testator may wish to attach to the bequest may be added here.

Death duty & Estate duty

A bequest to the University is at present exempt from the payment of death duty and estate duty.

Donations and Gifts – Taxation

Gifts not being testamentary gifts of the value of two dollars and upwards of money, or of property other than money which was purchased by the taxpayer within twelve months immediately preceding the making of the gifts, and made by the taxpayer in the year of income, are at present allowable taxation deductions under a provision of the Income Tax Assessment Act (Commonwealth).
The scholarships and prizes listed below are available to students whose courses are listed in this book. Each faculty handbook contains in its Scholarships and Prizes section the scholarships and prizes available with that faculty. The General Information section of the Calendar contains a comprehensive list of scholarships and prizes offered throughout the University. Applicants should note that the awards and conditions are subject to review.

(5) The candidate may undertake the research as an internal student i.e. at a campus, teaching hospital, or other research facility with which the University is associated, or as an external student not in attendance at the University except for periods as may be prescribed by the Committee.

(6) An internal candidate will normally carry out the research on a campus or at a teaching or research facility of the University except that the Committee may permit a candidate to spend a period in the field, within another institution or elsewhere away from the University provided that the work can be supervised in a manner satisfactory to the Committee. In such instances the Committee shall be satisfied that the location and period of time away from the University are necessary to the research program.

(7) The research shall be supervised by a supervisor and where possible a co-supervisor who are members of the academic staff of the School or under other appropriate supervision arrangements approved by the Committee. Normally an external candidate within another organisation or institution will have a co-supervisor at that institution.

Progression

4. The progress of the candidate shall be considered by the Committee following report from the School in accordance with the procedures established within the School and previously noted by the Committee.

(i) The research proposal will be reviewed as soon as feasible after enrolment. For a full-time student this will normally be during the first year of study, or immediately following a period of prescribed coursework. This review will focus on the viability of the research proposal.

(ii) Progress in the course will be reviewed within twelve months of the first review. As a result of either review the Committee may cancel enrolment or take such other action as it considers appropriate. Thereafter, the progress of the candidate will be reviewed annually.

Thesis

5. (1) On completing the program of study a candidate shall submit a thesis embodying the results of the investigation.

(2) The candidate shall give in writing to the Registrar two months notice of intention to submit the thesis.

(3) The thesis shall comply with the following requirements:

(a) it must be an original and significant contribution to knowledge of the subject;

(b) the greater proportion of the work described must have been completed subsequent to enrolment for the degree;

(c) it must be written in English except that a candidate in the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences may be required by the Committee to write a thesis in an appropriate foreign language;

(d) it must reach a satisfactory standard of expression and presentation;

(e) it must consist of an account of the candidate's own research but in special cases work done conjointly with other persons may be accepted provided the Committee is satisfied about the extent of the candidate's part in the joint research.

(4) The candidate may not submit as the main content of the thesis any work or material which has previously been submitted for a university degree or other similar award but may submit any work previously published whether or not such work is related to the thesis.

* 'School' is used here and elsewhere in these conditions to mean any teaching unit authorised to enrol research students and includes a department where that department is not within a school, a centre given approval by the Academic Board to enrol students, and an interdisciplinary unit within a faculty and under the control of the Dean of the Faculty. Enrolment is permitted in more than one such teaching unit.
(5) Four copies of the thesis shall be presented in a form which complies with the requirements of the University for the preparation and submission of theses for higher degrees.

(6) It shall be understood that the University retains the four copies of the thesis submitted for examination and is free to allow the thesis to be consulted or borrowed. Subject to the provisions of the Copyright Act, 1968, the University may issue the thesis in whole or in part, in photostat or microfilm or other copying medium.

Examination

6.(1) There shall be not fewer than three examiners of the thesis, appointed by the Committee, at least two of whom shall be external to the University.

(2) At the conclusion of the examination each examiner shall submit to the Committee a concise report on the thesis and shall recommend to the Committee that one of the following:

(a) The thesis merits the award of the degree.

(b) The thesis merits the award of the degree subject to minor corrections as listed being made to the satisfaction of the head of school.

(c) The thesis requires further work on matters detailed in my report. Should performance in this further work be to the satisfaction of the higher degree Committee, the thesis would merit the award of the degree.

(d) The thesis does not merit the award of the degree in its present form and further work as described in my report is required. The revised thesis should be subject to re-examination.

(e) The thesis does not merit the award of the degree and does not demonstrate that resubmission would be likely to achieve that merit.

(3) If the performance at the further work recommended under (2)(c) above is not to the satisfaction of the Committee, the Committee may permit the candidate to re-present the same thesis and submit to further examination as determined by the Committee within a period specified by it but not exceeding eighteen months.

(4) The Committee shall, after consideration of the examiners' reports and the results of any further work, recommend whether or not the candidate may be awarded the degree. If it is decided that the candidate be not awarded the degree the Committee shall determine whether or not the candidate be permitted to resubmit the thesis after a further period of study and/or research.

Fees

7. A candidate shall pay such fees as may be determined from time to time by the Council.

(vi) positions or offices held at any time in public bodies, clubs and institutions with dates of tenure; and the information is to be edited by the Registrar and printed as a summary of information for distribution with the voting papers.

38. On the expiration of the time for receiving nominations, the Registrar is to cause the name of each person so nominated, the names of the 2 nominators and the fact of the candidature to be posted as soon as practicable at the University and in such other places as the Council may determine.

39. (a) Where only 1 candidate is nominated the Registrar is to declare the candidate duly elected.

(b) Where 2 or more candidates are nominated the election is to be by postal ballot.

40. The ballot is to be conducted in the manner prescribed by By-laws 49 and 50 (a)-(e) inclusive and the counting of votes is to be in the manner prescribed by By-law 51.

Members Elected by Graduates

41. The election of members of the Council pursuant to section 9 (5) (e) of the Act is to be conducted in accordance with By-laws 42-48 of this Chapter.

42. The election is to be held on such day in June 1994 and on such day in the month of June in every fourth year thereafter as the Council appoints. The term of office of an elected member is to be 4 years commencing on 1 July immediately following the member's election.

43. Seventy clear days' notice of the day appointed for the election is to be given by advertisement in 2 or more of the daily newspapers published in Sydney, and by notices posted at the University and in such other places as the Council may determine.

44. The Registrar is to prepare a list of voters comprising all graduates of the University, completed to the last day for receiving nominations for the election, and a copy of the list is to be available for inspection at the University during the period from that day to the day appointed for the election.

45. (a) No person is to be eligible for election unless the person's name has been communicated to the Registrar in writing under the hands of 2 qualified voters 35 clear days before the day appointed for the election.

(b) Every nomination of a person for election is to contain the written consent of that person to the nomination.

(c) Each candidate may provide at the time of the candidate's nomination a statement of not more than 150 words which may include information relating to the candidate as follows:

(i) full name and age;
(ii) academic and professional qualifications and experience;
(iii) honours and distinctions;
(iv) positions or offices held in the candidate's field of occupation with dates of tenure;
(v) positions or offices held at any time in student, University and graduate clubs and societies with dates of tenure;
(vi) positions or offices held at any time in public bodies, clubs and institutions with dates of tenure;
(vii) a recent photograph, and the information is to be edited by the Registrar and printed as a summary of information which is to include a copy of the photograph, if any, provided for distribution with the voting papers.

46. On the expiration of the time for receiving nominations, the Registrar is to cause the name of each person so nominated, the names of the 2 nominators and the fact of the candidature to be posted as soon as practicable at the University and in such other places as the Council may determine.

47. If the number of nominations received is equal to or less than the number of candidates to be elected, the Registrar is to declare the candidate or candidates duly elected. If the number of candidates exceeds the number of candidates to be elected, the election is to be by postal ballot.

48. The ballot is to be conducted in the manner prescribed by By-laws 49 and 50 (a)-(e) inclusive and the counting of votes is to be conducted in the manner prescribed by By-law 52.

Conduct of Elections when Ballot is Necessary

49. In the case of members to be elected by the graduates, 21, and in all other cases, 14 clear days before the day appointed for an election the Registrar is to transmit a voting paper through the post to each person whose name appears on the relevant list of voters, addressed to the last known address of the person as noted in the records of the Registrar. Each voting paper is to be accompanied by an envelope marked "voting paper" and by a second envelope addressed to the Registrar on the inside of which is to be printed a form of declaration to be signed by the voter stating that the voter is duly qualified to vote at the election.

50. (a) The voting paper is to contain the names of all duly nominated candidates arranged in the order which the Registrar is to determine by lot. The voter is to record a vote by placing the number "1" opposite the name of the candidate to whom the voter desires to give the voter's first preference vote. The voter may then, at the voter's discretion, give contingent votes to some, or to all, of the remaining candidates by placing the number "2", "3", "4" and so on, as the case may require, opposite the names of such candidates respectively so as to indicate by numerical sequence the order of the voter's preference for them.

In this paragraph, "determine by lot" means determine in accordance with the following directions:

The name of each candidate concerned having been written on separate and similar slips of paper and the slips having been folded so as to prevent identification and mixed and drawn at random, the candidates' names are to be listed in the order drawn.

(b) Having marked the voting paper and signed the declaration the voter is to place the voting paper without any other matter in the envelope marked "voting paper", which the voter is to seal and transmit to the Registrar in the envelope provided for that purpose. Subject to paragraph (e), all voting papers so transmitted and received by the Registrar not later than 5 p.m. on the day of the election are to be counted in the ballot.

(c) In conducting the ballot, the Registrar may be assisted in the counting of the votes by scrutineers to be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor. Each candidate is entitled to nominate 1 scrutineer.

(d) As soon as practicable after the closing of the ballot the Registrar, in the presence of such of the scrutineers as choose to be present, is to proceed to the examination of the voting papers.

(e) The Registrar is to reject as informal any voting paper in respect of which the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) have not been complied with.

(f) The method of counting votes at any election where only 1 candidate is to be elected is as prescribed by By-law 51.

(g) The method of counting votes at any election where 2 or more candidates are to be elected is as prescribed by By-law 52.

Method of Counting Votes at Elections where Only One Candidate is to be Elected

51. (a) The Registrar is to count the total number of first preference votes given to each candidate.

(b) If any candidate has received an absolute majority of votes, the Registrar is to declare that candidate elected, but if no candidate has received an absolute majority of votes, the candidate who has received the fewest votes is to be excluded and each voting paper counted to that candidate is to be allocated to the continuing candidate next in order of the voter's preference.

(c) The Registrar is to then make a second count and, if any candidate then has received an absolute majority of votes, the Registrar is to declare that candidate elected; but if no candidate then has received an absolute majority of votes, the process of excluding the candidate who has received the fewest votes, of allocating each voting paper counted to that candidate to the continuing candidate next in order of the voter's preference, and of making a further count is to be repeated until a count reveals that 1 candidate has received an absolute majority of votes. The Registrar is to then declare that candidate elected.

(d) If, after any count other than the final count, 2 or more candidates have received an equal number of votes and 1 such candidate has to be excluded, the Registrar is to determine by lot which of them is to be excluded.

In this paragraph, "determine by lot" means determine in accordance with the following directions:
The name of each candidate concerned having been written on separate and similar slips of paper and the slips having been folded so as to prevent identification and mixed and drawn at random, the candidate whose name is first drawn is to be excluded.

(e) If, after the final count in which there are only 2 continuing candidates, both candidates having received an equal number of votes, the Registrar is to determine by lot which of them is to be elected.

In this paragraph, "determine by lot" means determine in accordance with the following directions:
The name of each candidate concerned having been written on separate and similar slips of paper and the slips having been folded so as to prevent identification and mixed and drawn at random, the candidate whose name is first drawn is to be elected.

(f) If, after the final count in which there are only 2 continuing candidates, such candidates not having received an equal number of votes, the continuing candidate who has the larger number of votes is to be elected even if the number is below an absolute majority of votes.

(g) In this By-law: "an absolute majority of voters" means a number greater than one half of the total number of ballot papers counted; "continuing candidate" means a candidate who has not been excluded from the ballot.

Method of Counting Votes at Elections where two or more Candidates are to be Elected

52. (a) The Registrar is to reject all informal ballot papers, and arrange the unrejected ballot papers under the names of the respective candidates by placing in a separate parcel all those on which a first preference is indicated for the same candidate. The first preference votes given for each candidate on all unrejected ballot papers are then to be counted.

(b) The number of first preference votes given for each candidate and the total number of all such votes is to be ascertained and a quota is to be determined by dividing the total number of first preference votes by one more than the number of candidates required to be elected and by increasing the quotient so obtained (disregarding any remainder) by 1, and any candidate who has received a number of first preference votes equal to or greater than the quota is to be elected.

(c) Unless all the vacancies have been filled, the number (if any) of votes in excess of the quota (here referred to as "surplus votes") of each elected candidate is to be transferred to the continuing candidates as follows:

(i) the number of surplus votes of the elected candidate is to be divided by the number of first preference votes received by that candidate and the resulting fraction is to be the transfer value;

(ii) The total number of ballot papers of the elected candidate that express the first preference vote for that candidate and the next available preference for a particular continuing candidate are to be multiplied by the transfer value, the number so obtained (disregarding any fraction) is to be added to the number of first preference votes of the continuing candidate and all those ballot papers are to be transferred to the continuing candidate, and any continuing candidate who has received a number of votes equal to or greater than the quota on the completion of any such transfer is to be elected.

(d) Unless all the vacancies have been filled, the surplus votes (if any) of any candidate elected under paragraph (c), or elected subsequently under this paragraph, are to be transferred to the continuing candidates in accordance with sub-paragraphs (i) and (ii) of paragraph (c), and any continuing candidate who has received a number of votes equal to or greater than the quota on the completion of any such transfer is to be elected.

(e) Where a continuing candidate has received a number of votes equal to or greater than the quota on the completion of a transfer under paragraphs (c) or (d) of the surplus votes of a particular elected candidate, no votes of any other candidate are to be transferred to the continuing candidate.
For the purposes of the application of sub-paragraphs (i) and (ii) of paragraph (c) in relation to a transfer of the surplus votes of an elected candidate, each ballot paper of the elected candidate that was obtained on a transfer is to be dealt with as if any vote it expressed for the elected candidate were a first preference vote, as if the name of any other candidate previously elected or excluded had not been on the ballot paper and as if the number indicating subsequent preferences had been altered accordingly.

Where after the counting of first preference votes or the transfer of surplus votes (if any) of elected candidates, no candidate has, or fewer than the number of candidates required to be elected have, received a number of votes equal to the quota, the candidate who stands lowest in the poll is to be excluded, and:

(i) the total number of ballot papers expressing a first preference vote for an excluded candidate and the next available preference for a particular continuing candidate are to be transferred, each ballot paper at a transfer value of 1, to the continuing candidate and added to the number of votes of the continuing candidate;

(ii) the total number (if any) of other ballot papers obtained by an excluded candidate or candidates are to be transferred beginning with the ballot papers received by that candidate or those candidates at the highest transfer value and ending with the ballot papers received at the lowest transfer value, as follows:

the total number of ballot papers received by the excluded candidate or candidates at a particular transfer value from a particular candidate and expressing the next available preference for a particular continuing candidate are to be multiplied by that transfer value, the number so obtained (disregarding any fraction) is to be added to the number of votes of the continuing candidate and all those ballot papers are to be transferred to the continuing candidate.

Any continuing candidate who has received a number of votes equal to or greater than the quota on the completion of a transfer is to be elected and unless all the vacancies have been filled the surplus votes (if any) of the candidate so elected are to be transferred to the continuing candidates except that where the candidate is elected before all the votes have been transferred the surplus votes (if any) of the candidate so elected are not to be transferred until the remaining votes of the excluded candidate have been transferred.

Subject to paragraph (k), where after the transfer of all of the ballot papers of an excluded candidate or candidates, as the case may be, no continuing candidate has received a number of votes greater than the quota the continuing candidate who stands lowest in the poll is to be excluded and his or her ballot papers transferred in accordance with sub-paragraphs (i) and (ii) of paragraph (g).

Where a candidate is elected during a transfer of ballot papers under paragraphs (g) or (i), no other ballot papers of an excluded candidate or candidates are to be transferred to the candidate so elected.

In respect of the last vacancy for which 2 continuing candidates remain, the continuing candidate who has the larger number of votes is to be elected even if that number is below the quota.

Where the number of continuing candidates is equal to the number of remaining unfilled vacancies those candidates are to be elected.

In this By-law: "continuing candidate" means a candidate not already elected or excluded from the count.

Filling of Casual Vacancy

Any vacancy in the office of an elected member, or member appointed by the Council, is to be filled in such manner as the Council may by rule determine.

This Calendar has been specifically designed as a summary volume of the University's academic and administrative procedures.

It contains detailed information about the University - its organization, staff membership, description of disciplines, scholarships and prizes.

The UNSW Handbooks also contain a summary list of higher degrees as well as the conditions of their award applicable to each volume.

For detailed information about courses, subjects and requirements of a particular faculty consult the relevant Faculty Handbook.

Separate Handbooks are published for the Faculties of Applied Science, Architecture, Arts and Social Sciences, Commerce and Economics, Engineering, Law, Medicine, Professional Studies, Science (including Biological and Behavioural Sciences and the Board of Studies in Science and Mathematics), the Australian Graduate School of Management (AGSM), the College of Fine Arts and the University College (ADFA).

The Calendar and Handbooks, which vary in cost, are available from the Cashier's Office.
