How to use this Handbook

The information in this book has been divided into six parts.

Undergraduate Study outlines the programs and requirements available to each faculty.

Undergraduate Study: Subject Descriptions lists each subject offered.

- Subject prerequisites are described.
- Prerequisites and excluded subjects, where applicable.

Graduate Study is about higher degrees.

Graduate Study: Subject Descriptions lists each subject offered.

General Studies Program

Program Advice

If you require advice about enrolment, degree requirements, choice of electives or any other General Studies matters contact:

Administrative Officer
Department of General Studies
Room G54, Morven Brown Building
Telephone 697 2438.

Important: As changes may be made to information provided in this handbook, students should frequently consult the noticeboards of the Department of General Studies and the official noticeboards of the University.

Nature of the Program

The general education component of a professional degree course is designed to give students some knowledge of their social and political environment, the interaction between science and society, and the contribution of philosophy and the creative arts to society. The electives are designed for students from a wide variety of faculties and assume no prior knowledge of the subject concerned.

Electives have been placed in three main categories:

1. Social and Political Studies.
3. Philosophy and the Creative Arts.

Although the choice of electives in 1986 is completely free, the Department recommends that students choose at least one elective from each of the three categories to ensure that the aims of a program of general education are achieved.

Responsibility for the General Studies program rests with the Board of Studies in General Education which was established by Council in 1963.

Structure of Electives

The Department of General Studies restructured its electives in 1983.

• Half electives are designated by a six-digit subject number. These electives were expanded from 21 to 28 hours duration and are given over one session.
• Full electives are designated by a five-digit subject number. These electives were expanded from 42 to 56 hours duration and may be given over two sessions or compressed into one session.

Students may complete their General Studies requirements with any combination of half electives and full electives.
Undergraduate Study

General Studies Requirements

The normal General Studies requirement is 168 hours for students who are taking full-time courses of at least four years duration and 126 hours for three-year full-time courses. The corresponding hours for part-time courses are 168 hours for courses of over 6 years and 126 hours for courses of 6 years and under. Due to the change in the structure of electives (expansion of half electives from 21 to 28 hours and electives from 42 to 56 hours), students are required to take fewer of the new electives.

Students who started their General Studies requirement under the old system are required to take no more than the original requirement.

Substitution of Arts Subjects for General Studies Electives

1. Courses in all faculties other than Commerce
Students may upon the recommendation of the Head of the School offering the subject and with the approval of the Head of the Department of General Studies or their nominees substitute one or more Arts subjects for General Studies electives. For this purpose Arts subjects of six credit points may be substituted for 56 hours of General Studies and Arts subjects of twelve credit points may be substituted for 112 hours of General Studies. Further details are available from the Department of General Studies Office.

2. Courses in the Faculty of Commerce
Commerce students may substitute Arts subjects in accordance with the following rules:
(1) Candidates may include among their options subjects which are any electives other than economics that are qualifying subjects for the degree of Bachelor of Arts at the University of New South Wales.
(2) An elective taught by the Department of General Studies and the corresponding Arts subject may not both be counted towards the requirements for the degree and no more than one and a half electives taught by the Department of General Studies may be counted towards the requirements of the degree.

Restrictions on the Selection of Particular Electives

The following restrictions on counting certain General Studies electives apply to students who have completed the subjects listed below offered by the Faculties of Arts and Architecture.

1. Students who have completed 54.501 Political Science 1 may not count among their General Studies electives 26.1503 Political Conflict in Australia.

2. Students who have completed 50.511 English 1A or 50.521 English 1B may not count among their General Studies electives:
   26.3515 The Modern Novel
   26.3516 Australian Fiction since 1970

3. Students who have completed 15.001 Economics 1A may not count among their General Studies electives:
   26.1504 Political Economy: Adam Smith to Karl Marx
   26.1505 Economic Thought: Marginalism to Monetarism
   26.1506 Australian Macro-Economic Problems and Policies
   26.1507 Australian Micro-Economic Problems and Policies
   26.162 Economics
4. Students enrolled in course 3380 Landscape Architecture may not count among their General Studies electives:
26.3509 History of Landscape Architecture

5. Students who have completed 36.411 Town Planning or 36.4014 Environmental Planning or who are enrolled in course 3360 Town Planning cannot count among their General Studies electives:
26.253 Environmental Planning

6. Students enrolled in course 4030 Social Work may not count among their General Studies electives:
26.1515 Australian Welfare History

Note: Due to the change in hours required for electives, the numbering of all electives has changed. Students are requested to check subject descriptions for details of restrictions on entry to particular electives.
Subject Descriptions

Identification of Subjects by Number

A subject is defined by the Professorial Board as 'a unit of instruction approved by the University as being a discrete part of the requirements for a course offered by the University'.

Each approved subject of the University is identifiable both by number and by name as this is a check against nomination of subject other than the one intended.

Subject numbers are allocated by the Registrar and the system of allocation is based on the following guidelines:

1. The authority offering the subject, normally a School of the University, is indicated by the number before the decimal point.

2. Each subject number is unique and is not used for more than one subject title.

3. Subject numbers which have previously been used are not used for new subject titles.

4. Graduate subjects are indicated by a suffix 'G' to a number with three digits after the decimal point. In other subjects three or four digits are used after the decimal point.

Subjects taught are listed in full in the handbook of the faculty or board of studies responsible for the particular course within which the subjects are taken. Subject descriptions are contained in the appropriate section of the handbooks.

The identifying numerical prefixes for each subject authority are set out below.

Servicing Subjects are those taught by a school or department outside its own faculty. Their subject descriptions are published in the handbook of the faculty which originates the subject and also in the handbook of the faculty in which the subject is taught.

0. Student Oriented Elective

Elective (56 hours)
26.002 General Studies

Designed for students who wish to pursue independent study and/or research in the humanities and social sciences which does not fall specifically into the domain of any existing elective. Students wishing to enrol in this elective must present a detailed program of study and/or research project for approval to the Board of Studies in General Education by 31 January of the year in which they wish to enrol. Students interested in undertaking this option should contact the Head of the Department of General Studies to obtain advice on presentation of the proposed program of study.
1. Social and Political Studies

Half Electives (28 hours)

26.1503 Political Conflict in Australia
Richard Lucy

Excluded: 26.311 Political Conflict in Australia.

Political conflict within and between Australian political parties, pressure groups, trade unions and the mass media over the last 15 years. Institutions (such as federalism, the electoral system, the bureaucracy and Parliament) which affect this conflict, and Australian political issues.

26.1504 Political Economy: Adam Smith to Karl Marx
Jack Brown

A broad analysis of the development of economic thought from its scholastic origins to Karl Marx, with emphasis on the works of Adam Smith, Thomas Malthus, David Ricardo, John Stuart Mill and Karl Marx.

26.1505 Economic Thought: Marginalism to Monetarism
Jack Brown

The development of economic analysis from the 'Marginalist Revolution' of the 1870s to the current post-Keynesian Monetarist controversy. Emphasis on the works of Jevons and Menger, Marshall, Pigou, Veblen, Keynes, Samuelson, Galbraith and Friedman.

26.1506 Australian Macro-Economic Problems and Policies

The economic problems that presently confront the Australian economy and the various types of economic policies that may be brought to bear upon the problems. Topics include: inflation and unemployment, taxation, federal-state financial relations and the Australian balance of payments; also monetary policy, fiscal policy, prices and incomes policy and exchange rate policy.

26.1507 Australian Micro-Economic Problems and Policies

The micro-economic issues that presently confront the Australian economy and the various policy initiatives that may be brought to bear upon the problems. Topics include: restrictive trade practices and competition policy, assistance to industry and the Industries Assistance Commission, financial policy and the Campbell Committee Report, foreign investment, resources policy, welfare policy and nationalism policy.

26.1508 Human Differences

Ralph Hall

Excluded: 26.1012 Human Differences.

The nature and extent of human differences and their relation to human inequality. Includes attempts to explain inequality in historical perspective with particular reference to the influence of Social Darwinism, the eugenics movement and the mental testing tradition; recent hereditarian accounts of inequalities in race, sex and class and their critics; the status of the concept of intelligence; ideological considerations in the study of human differences.

26.1509 Contemporary Australian Society

Ralph Hall

The structure and functioning of Australian society. Detailed topics include the class structure of Australian society; inequalities in the distribution of wealth and income; composition of the workforce; trade unions; welfare; the role of the mass media; education and religion and the place of Australia in world capitalism.

26.1510 Social Inequality in Australian History

Richard Kennedy

A class interpretation of some aspects of Australian social history. Issues include: historical materialism; the political crisis in social history; Aboriginal resistance to and destruction by European invasion; nuclear family, sexism and mateship; distribution of wealth and poverty; unemployment in the 1890s, 1930s and today; the dominant class and the media; inflation and welfare as expressions of class struggle; the people's health.

26.1512 Multicultural Societies

Roger Bell

The nature, determinants and consequences of immigration in a number of societies — Australia, USA, Malaysia and South Africa, using a comparative approach. In the light of theories on stratification, internal colonization, mobility, acculturation and pluralism, attention is given to the history of various immigrant groups in each of these societies. Relations between settlers and indigenous peoples; relationships between ethnicity, class, status and power; and contrasts in the rates and nature of assimilation and mobility of different groups are examined. Emphasis on the impact of immigration on patterns of employment, education, health care, housing and socio-economic mobility, especially in contemporary Australia.
26.1513 World Inequality
Roger Bell

Within a broadly comparative historical framework, the principal arguments concerning the origins and nature of the inequality of nation states and the inequality of people are examined. The nature and extent of the economic gulf between the so-called 'developed' and 'developing' worlds and between classes and groups within the 'developing' world and then the various explanations of mass poverty and inequality. Emphasis on the legacies of colonialism, dependence and dependency theory, internal colonization, population pressures, scarcity of natural resources, and the roles of elites and governments in developing states.

26.1514 World Conflict and Control
Richard Lucy

Prerequisite: Pass in one other elective. Excluded: 26.4005 World Conflict and Control.

International aggression, group behaviour, national images, factors influencing relations between nations and the debate on the causes and prevention of war.

26.1515 Australian Welfare History
Richard Kennedy

An historical analysis of aspects of Australian social policy, social welfare and social work from 1788 to the present. Principal topics include: the origins of colonial charity and philanthropy; charity and ideology in colonial Victoria; 'deserving' and 'undeserving' poor; women's philanthropy; economic depressions in the 1890s, 1930s and perhaps today; social work as a profession and its contested origins; theory and practice of the Welfare State in Britain and Australia; 'less eligibility' as a key to 19th century welfare and to welfare and labour policy in the 1980s; the opposing epistemologies and methodologies of liberal and socialist historiography.

26.1516 Oral History Workshop
Richard Kennedy

Students must supply their own cassette recorder and cassettes.

Seminars and workshops on the theory and practice of oral history in Australia. Principal topics include: oral evidence throughout history (eg the Putney Debates of 1647); strengths and limitations of oral evidence compared with other forms; its relation to popular history and the 'silent people'; people's history; the new oral history in Australia, Britain, France, Italy and USA. For the workshop, every student conducts one major interviewing project.

26.1517 Problems in Pacific Studies
Norman Douglas

Controversial themes in the history and culture of the Pacific Islands including the controversy surrounding the origins of the islanders; the structure of traditional social and political institutions; the impact of European religious and economic systems and the rivalry of imperialist powers in the islands prior to 1900.

26.1518 Social and Political Change in the Pacific Islands
Norman Douglas

Introduction to the geography and indigenous cultures of the Pacific Islands. Significant aspects of social and political change in the region from the period of partition to the present. Topics include: colonial policy in the islands; decolonization; the socio-cultural impact of tourism and the survival of traditional values.

26.1518 Modern China
Roger Bell

The impact of the West and the collapse of traditional China in the 19th century, then, in detail, the origins and failures of the revolution of 1911 and the causes and nature of the Communist revolution of 1949. Emphasis on social, economic, ideological and political transformation of recent China, its impact on international relations and its role as a revolutionary model for other developing states.

26.1520 Australia in South-East Asia
Robyn Lim

Excluded: 26.3002 Australia in South-East Asia.

Australia's relations with the ASEAN countries (Indonesia, Philippines, Thailand, Malaysia, Singapore). Emphasis on political and strategic factors, as well as economic issues. Special attention paid to Australian-Indonesian relations and post-1978 situation in Indochina.

Assessment: Based on tutorial participation, tutorial essay and short class test.

26.1521 Australia and Japan
Robyn Lim

The history of Australia's relations with Japan and the current state of the bilateral relationship. Stress on political and security aspects of the relationship in the context of United States foreign policy. The importance of ASEAN (Association of South-East Asian Nations) to the Australia-Japan connection. The future of the 'Pacific Community' concept. Economic aspects of the bilateral relationship with special reference to Australian resources and industrial relations policies.

26.1522 The Central Nuclear Balance
Richard Lucy

The debate on aspects of the central nuclear balance. Topics: the assessment of national power as applied to the Soviet Union and the United States; the strategic doctrines of mutual assured destruction and counterforce; the debate about the neutron bomb; about damage limitation, the nuclear arms race, arms control, nuclear disarmament, civil defence, and the broad strategic doctrines of the Soviet Union and the United States.
26.1523 The Mass Media

Jan BrucI

Major developments of the media, and of media theory, in the 20th century as seen from the Australian context. Topics include: changes in media technology, ownership and control of the media, the transition from literate to electronic communication, the structure and politics of programming, analysis of documentary and fictional texts, the production of news, aspects of audience reception.

Electives (56 hours)

26.161 ‘Contemporary History’ and Global Problems

Joan Ritchie

Excluded: 26.416 Contemporary History and Global Problems.

1. What history is, particular content of contemporary history, how it differs from current affairs. Bias in television and newspaper reporting.

2. Selected global problems which have developed since 1945.

Assessment: Essays and class work.

26.162 Economics

Jack Brown

Excluded: 26.610 or 26.615 Economics.

Aims to acquaint students with elementary techniques of economic analysis sufficient to understand the major influences affecting the overall economic performance of the country and the particular industries in which students may be employed. Session 1: Micro-economics, ie the study of general economic forces affecting the economy as a whole. The determinants of the level of national income, the volume of employment and causes and consequences of variations in the money supply. Session 2: Micro-economics, ie the economics of the parts of the economy such as the firm and the industry, the determination of prices in different types of markets, the economic aspects of individual behaviour, and factors affecting wage rates. The economics of international trade and payments. Where appropriate, references are made to the Australian economy.

26.164 Man and Landscape in Australia

Ronnie Harding/Graham Pont

Excluded: 26.203 Man and Landscape in Australia.

The study of man and environment. The use, design and management of the landscape in Australia, and different problems (ecological, economic, political, social, ethical, aesthetic, etc) facing the modern Australian in his urban and rural and 'natural' surroundings. The general history of the Australian ecosystem from the earliest evidence of Aboriginal occupation, and changes in the natural and built environment from the pioneers to the modern town planners, developers, landscape architects and civil engineers. The tradition of landscape gardening in Europe and Australia and current research in local ecology and its applications to environmental policy, the development of an awareness of landscape as expressed in art and literature.

Assessment: Set essays or an individual research project.

2. Science, Technology and Civilization

Half Electives (28 hours)

26.2501 Technology and Development

The need for alternative theories and models of development. Trends in economic development theory. Development in practice. Current choice of science and technology in developing countries. The social, political and economic implications of choosing alternative goals and technologies in developing countries.

26.2502 Political Economy of Development

The causes of inequalities between and within nations. Topics include: economic development theory; colonialism, neo-colonialism; international trade; transnational corporations; international financial institutions; development assistance programs.

26.2503 Sociology of Development

The social and political aspects of development and underdevelopment. Topics include: theories of modernization and social change; the impact of colonialism on indigenous social structures; aid programs; education; indigenous and introduced religions; women in the changing social structure; diet and health; appropriate and inappropriate technology.

26.2504 Philosophy of Technology (Ancient)

Graham Pont

Excluded: 26.569 Philosophy of Technology.

The ancient philosophy of technology ('art imitates nature'), with special emphasis on the role of musical and mathematical ideas in the thought of Pythagoras, Plato, Aristotle and Vitruvius. Representative writings, as well as publications of recent research provide the basis for tutorial discussions.

26.2505 Philosophy of Technology (Modern)

Graham Pont

Excluded: 26.569 Philosophy of Technology.

This elective forms a sequence with 26.2504 Philosophy of Technology (Ancient), which, however, is not a prerequisite. The history of ideas about technology, arts, crafts, etc, from the early Renaissance to modern times, with special reference to recent developments in the philosophy of technology. Main topic is the development of the Mechanical World-View in the Age of Science, and the search for alternative philosophies in today's Technological Society. Weekly tutorial classes are devoted to reading and discussing significant thinkers from Roger Bacon to Lewis Mumford and Henryk Skolimowski.
General Studies

26.2508 Cosmology
Simon Prokhovnik

Excluded: 26.566 Cosmology.

Recent developments in astrophysical observations and their impact on cosmological theories. The mathematical exposition of cosmological theories and the relation of mathematical models to the physical world and our observations of it. A cosmological model based on the assumption of a uniformly expanding universe together with its implications for relativity and gravitation, and for the nature of matter and of life. Students should have an interest in mathematics and physics and the nature of the world around us. Mathematical descriptions are employed, but the emphasis is on the significance of mathematical concepts rather than on mathematical manipulation.

Electives (56 hours)

26.251 Technology and Society since 1750
Nessy Allen

Excluded: 26.564 Technology and Society since 1750.

The development of technology in the last two hundred years has probably been the most important factor determining the economic and social circumstances of contemporary Western society. Yet the social role of technology and the technologist in our community is often not sufficiently appreciated. An adequate understanding of modern society and its problems requires some knowledge of the interrelations between technology and society and the profound consequences that technological innovation can have. These issues in historical perspective and the chief developments in technology from the Industrial Revolution of the 18th century to the present day in their social and economic context. Designed for Engineering and Applied Science students but open to students from other faculties.

26.252 Man and Environment
Ronnie Harding

Within the theme population-resources-environment, examination of a wide range of topics concerned with man's interaction with the environment. The emergence and nature of modern environmentalism. Critical analysis of recent and current Australian environment issues, stressing broad-based multi- and interdisciplinary ecological assessment.

26.253 Environmental Planning
Stephen Harris

Excluded: 36.411 Town Planning, 36.4014 Environmental Planning.

The environmental planning process and the individual's rights under it. The objectives of environmental planning and how the system operates, with particular reference to New South Wales. The nature of planning philosophy, environmental law and administrative structures. Topics: the central business district of cities, housing and equity, land-use and transport interaction, urban design, location theory, and urban and rural conservation. As planning is a temporal concept, historical, contemporary and future themes are built into the subject. Assessment is by written assignment, tutorial paper, and class participation. The assignment is based on the lecture material, and students are also required to prepare a written paper for tutorial discussion.

3. Philosophy and Creative Arts

Half Electives (28 hours)

26.3501 Creative Writing Advanced A
Bob Burns

Prerequisite: Credit in either 26.352 or 26.3503.

1. Creative aspect: students undertake the writing of several short stories, varied to emphasis. These are subjected to full 'workshop' scrutiny. 2. Critical aspect: a study of the short story form with reference to the work of established practitioners.

26.3503 Creative Writing — Shorter Course
Bob Burns

Excluded: 26.7005 Creative Writing (Shorter Course).

A practical subject for students who wish to try their skill in the writing of fiction. They are expected to submit completed work regularly for group discussion. Reference is made during discussion to works of fiction by established writers which students may find helpful and instructive.

26.3504 Issues and Images In Twentieth Century Art
Catherine De Lorenzo

The subject does not attempt to cover all major aspects of 20th century art but rather focuses on a particular issue or theme. The subject attempts to: 1. introduce students to various modes of visual art, eg painting, sculpture, photography, printmaking, performances, etc; 2. include, where appropriate, examples from Australia, Europe and America; 3. inter-relate art history and theory to broader historical and socio-political themes, eg fascism, nationalism, capitalism, Marxism, feminism, war; 4. have some course work related to current major exhibitions. Tutorials reflect the themes of the lectures and encourage familiarization with both original documents and recent literature.

26.3505 Aspects of Nineteenth Century Art
Catherine De Lorenzo

Introduction to major visual concerns of painters, sculptors, printmakers, photographers and crafts people in Europe and/or Australia. Art historical themes such as realism, impressionism, symbolism, women's art and aestheticism are linked with broader art historical themes such as the urban environment, work, nationalism, colonialism and industrialism. Tutorials reflect the themes of the lectures and encourage familiarization with original documents and recent critical evaluations.
26.3506 Research Into Australian Art
Catherine De Lorenzo

Excluded: 26.9001 Research into Australian Art.

Selected aspects of Australian art, not a general historical survey of its development. 1. The study of a few styles selected by the class, viewed in the context of social and national development; in a wider framework, provincial manifestations of the parent styles. Weekly two-hour seminars: students present a short class paper and participate in class discussion. 2. Group and/or individual research projects on either an art work or an artist. Students are given time for research and individual tuition with their tutor.

26.3509 History of Landscape Architecture
C. A. Burton

The chronological development of cultural landscapes through the investigation of philosophical, aesthetic and social aspects of Eastern and Western cultures with an emphasis on the Australian context. Man's changing attitude to nature as reflected in land uses, the development of garden design and landscape architecture.

26.3515 The Modern Novel
Bob Burns

A reading and discussion subject that traces something of the tendencies and the general characteristics of novel writing in the 20th century, through consideration of a variety of works by English, Australian, American, Asian and European writers.

26.3516 Australian Fiction since 1970
Bob Burns

Australian novelists and short-story writers, during the present decade, have shown a growing awareness of the times, more than just the place in which we live. They are actively 'in touch' with what their contemporaries in other countries are about. The gain in sophistication is clear. Yet the desire remains to take a standpoint which is clearly Australian. A study of how certain writers reconcile the two pressures.

26.3517 Modern Drama
Jan Bruck

Excluded: 26.730 Modern Drama.

Major directions of 20th century European, American and Australian drama and theatre-making (social drama, epic theatre, existentialist and absurdist plays, radical and avant-garde theatre, television and popular drama) as related to changes in the political and social sphere. As part of the required work students may participate in the production of a play.

Electives (56 hours)

26.351 Gastronomy: a Philosophical Introduction to Food in Society
Graham Pont

Excluded: 26.919 Food in History.

A survey of classical and modern gastronomic thought. Lectures focus on the principal sources of antiquity, Athenaeus and Apicius; the modern literature from Platina to Grimod de la Reyniere, Brillat-Savarin, and their successors; and special attention is paid to the traditions and current developments of Australian gastronomy. Tutorials are devoted to reading and discussion of Brillat-Savarin's Physiologie de Taste.

26.352 Creative Writing
Bob Burns

Excluded: 26.713 Creative Writing.

A practical subject for students who wish to try their skill in the writing of fiction. They are expected to submit completed work regularly for group discussion. Reference is made during discussion to works of fiction by established writers which students may find helpful and instructive.

26.353 Rationality and Critical Thought
Phillip Staines

The nature of reason: in particular, its scope, place, practice and worth, aiming at an understanding of reason and a competence in its evaluation. Reflecting the pervasiveness of reason, introduction and methodology, decision theory, theory of language, psychology and the general theory of knowledge. Rational conduct and rational belief: what it is rational to do and what it is rational to believe.

Topics: 1. Rational conduct: the relation between reason and emotion; the rationality of goals, ends, wants, plans of life, etc; limitations of the rationality of decisions. 2. Rational belief: the relation between argument and belief; formal logic; the nature of critical enquiry; fallacies; rhetoric; propaganda and brain-washing; the relation between rational belief and faith; the relation between language and thought; scepticism.

26.354 Communication and the Uses of Language
Phillip Staines

Not offered in 1986.

It is widely held that the human use of signs, especially the natural languages, is what most sharply distinguishes us from other animals. The nature and function of signs and symbols both in humans and other species — a field known as semantics. Uses of signs, especially in communication. Linguistic behaviour is contrasted with other forms of purposeful behaviour. Topics include: theories of language and sign acquisition, the nature of body language, para-language, kinesics and proxemics; the conventionality of language; the nature of meaning: the means and meaning of expression; alternative systems of communication; the necessary skills and abilities of sign users.
26.355 Philosophy of Music

Graham Pont

All prospective students must contact lecturer in charge before enrolment into this subject.

What Western philosophers have said about music, its origins, nature, function, purpose, meaning and value. Special attention to classical Greek philosophy: the prehistory of Pythagorean ideas, the writings of Plato, Aristotle, Aristoxenus and Aristides Quintilianus. The influence of Greek and Roman musical thought during the Renaissance and the Enlightenment. Tutorials include preparation for students' individual research projects, the main form of assessment for the course.

26.356 Popular Culture

Jan Bruck

Contemporary forms of popular/mass culture and their historical evolution: popular literature, crime, fiction in film and TV, advertising, popular music, sport and other leisure activities, as experienced in the Australian context. Some major theoretical perspectives on popular culture and its relationship to mass media technologies. Clarification of fundamental terms and concepts applied to the analysis of culture and the media (eg high/popular culture, folk/mass culture, culture industry).
Graduate Study

1920
Doctor of Philosophy
PhD
The degree of Doctor of Philosophy may be undertaken through the Department of General Studies. Candidates who hold appropriate qualifications may submit their proposed area of research to Professor R. Hall, Head of the Department. Acceptance is determined on the basis of suitable qualifications and availability of appropriate supervision.

2430/9100
Master of General Studies
MGenStud
The Board of Studies in General Education offers for suitably qualified graduates a program of advanced studies leading to the degree of Master of General Studies. This degree is designed for graduates in an appropriate discipline in which a general studies component or its equivalent has been included, who wish to pursue advanced studies primarily of an interdisciplinary nature. The conditions for the award of this degree are set out later in this handbook.

Course Requirements
The degree of Master of General Studies is attainable by research and thesis (2430) or by course work (9100). The course work option is available on a part-time basis only. The research program may be undertaken on a full-time, part-time or external basis. Normally, the degree is completed over four sessions by part-time students and two sessions by full-time students.

Students choosing the course work option are required to complete six session-length subjects. Four of these are core subjects and the remaining two may be chosen from a list of electives. All electives are not necessarily available in any one year.

With the approval of the Higher Degree Committee, a candidate may substitute a research project for the two elective subjects.

Core Subjects
26.101G Theories of Communication
26.102G Sociology of Media
26.103G Media in Practice
26.104G Structuralism, Post Structuralism and Semiotics

Electives
26.105G Technology and Mass Communication
26.106G Narrative Theory and Text Analysis
26.107G Popular Culture
26.108G Film Theory
26.109G Project
Identification of Subjects by Number

A subject is defined by the Professorial Board as 'a unit of instruction approved by the University as being a discrete part of the requirements for a course offered by the University'.

Each approved subject of the University is identifiable both by number and by name as this is a check against nomination of subject other than the one intended.

Subject numbers are allocated by the Registrar and the system of allocation is based on the following guidelines:

1. The authority offering the subject, normally a School of the University, is indicated by the number before the decimal point.

2. Each subject number is unique and is not used for more than one subject title.

3. Subject numbers which have previously been used are not used for new subject titles.

4. Graduate subjects are indicated by a suffix 'G' to a number with three digits after the decimal point. In other subjects three or four digits are used after the decimal point.

Subjects taught are listed in full in the handbook of the faculty or board of studies responsible for the particular course within which the subjects are taken. Subject descriptions are contained in the appropriate section of the handbooks.

The identifying numerical prefixes for each subject authority are set out below.

Servicing Subjects are those taught by a school or department outside its own faculty. Their subject descriptions are published in the handbook of the faculty which originates the subject and also in the handbook of the faculty in which the subject is taught.

Note: It is not possible to offer each subject every year. Those interested should contact the Department to ascertain which are offered.

26.101G Theories of Communication

The history of communication theory in its relevant stages including linguistic models, empirical communication research, discourse analysis and critical theory (ie the Frankfurt School and Walter Benjamin). Discussion of definitions, methodologies and the rationale of media studies.

26.102G Sociology of the Media

The role and functioning of the mass media in society with particular reference to Australia. Topics include: the political economy of the mass media; ideology and bias; ownership and control; the functions of advertising; the presentation of news, politics, unions, deviance, sport and sex-roles on television, radio and in the print media; media imperialism and the effects of the mass media.

26.103G Media in Practice

The media in their everyday context. The problems and challenges experienced by media professionals (editors, journalists, producers, film-makers etc). The theory and practice of interviewing and aspects of audience reception. The potential of alternative media.

26.104G Structuralism, Post-structuralism and Semiotics

Major theoretical developments in structuralism and post-structuralism with particular reference to media studies. Topics include: structuralism and the analysis of culture; historical development of structuralism; Levi-Strauss, Saussure; the theories of Althusser and Poulantzas and their critics; Barthes; the development of semiotics and semiotic analysis; post-structuralism with particular reference to Foucault, Baudrillard and Derrida.

26.105G Technology and Mass Communication

The history and recent development of communication technology from print to electronic media (including video, cable TV, satellite, computer and word-processor). The role of technology in the production and dissemination of information, and its social and political implications.

26.106G Narrative Theory and Text Analysis

Analysis of specific media texts, both fictional and documentary, in newspapers, magazines, film, radio and television, with the aid of structuralistic and semiotic narrative theory.

26.107G Popular Culture

Recent theories of mass-culture. The high culture/popular culture debate. Analysis of major phenomena and directions in contemporary popular culture, ie television, rock music, sport, popular literature, etc.

26.108G Film Theory

Direction, issues and problems in contemporary film theory, including the nature of film theory, the apparatus and the spectator, narrative forms and reflexivity, film and reality, the social and political role of film, feminist perspectives, comparison of the film and TV media.

26.109G Project

The project topic is chosen in consultation with the supervisor and submitted for approval early in the second year of the course and the report submitted by the end of that year. The topic chosen must be related to material dealt with in the course work component of the degree.

Graduate Diplomas

*Faculty of Science.
§Faculty of Biological Sciences.

1. The degree of Doctor of Philosophy may be awarded by the Council on the recommendation of the Higher Degree Committee of the appropriate faculty or board (hereinafter referred to as the Committee) to a candidate who has made an original and significant contribution to knowledge.

2. (1) A candidate for the degree shall have been awarded an appropriate degree of Bachelor with Honours from the University of New South Wales or a qualification considered equivalent from another university or tertiary institution at a level acceptable to the Committee.

(2) In exceptional cases an applicant who submits evidence of such other academic and professional qualifications as may be approved by the Committee may be permitted to enrol for the degree.

(3) If the Committee is not satisfied with the qualifications submitted by an applicant the Committee may require the applicant to undergo such assessment or carry out such work as the Committee may prescribe, before permitting enrolment as a candidate for the degree.

3. (1) An application to enrol as a candidate for the degree shall be made on the prescribed form which shall be lodged with the Registrar at least one calendar month before the commencement of the session in which enrolment is to begin.

(2) In every case, before permitting a candidate to enrol, the head of the school* in which the candidate intends to enrol shall be satisfied that adequate supervision and facilities are available.

(3) An approved candidate shall be enrolled in one of the following categories:
(a) full-time attendance at the University;
(b) part-time attendance at the University.

*Or department where a department is not within a school.
(4) A full-time candidate shall be fully engaged in advanced study and research except that the candidate may undertake not more than five hours per week or a total of 240 hours per year on work which is not related to the advanced study and research.

(5) Before permitting a part-time candidate to enrol, the Committee shall be satisfied that the candidate can devote at least 20 hours each week to advanced study and research for the degree which (subject to (8)) shall include regular attendance at the school* on an average of at least one day per week for 48 weeks each year.

(6) A candidate shall be required to undertake an original investigation on an approved topic. The candidate may also be required to undergo such assessment and perform such other work as may be prescribed by the Committee.

(7) The work shall be carried out under the direction of a supervisor appointed from the full-time academic members of the University staff.

(8) The work, other than field work, shall be carried out in a school* of the University except that the committee:

(a) may permit a candidate to spend not more than one calendar year of the program in advanced study and research at another institution provided the work can be supervised in a manner satisfactory to the Committee;

(b) may permit a candidate to conduct the work at other places where special facilities not possessed by the University may be available provided the direction of the work remains wholly under the control of the supervisor;

(c) may permit a full-time candidate, who has been enrolled as a full-time candidate for at least six academic sessions, who has completed the research work and who is writing the thesis, to transfer to part-time candidature provided the candidate devotes at least 20 hours each week to work for the degree and maintains adequate contact with the supervisor.

(9) The progress of a candidate shall be reviewed annually by the Committee following a report by the candidate, the supervisor and the head of the school* in which the candidate is enrolled and as a result of such review the Committee may cancel enrolment or take such other action as it considers appropriate.

(10) No candidate shall be awarded the degree until the lapse of six academic sessions from the date of enrolment in the case of a full-time candidate or eight academic sessions in the case of a part-time candidate. In the case of a candidate who has had previous research experience the committee may approve remission of up to two sessions for a full-time candidate and four sessions for a part-time candidate.

(11) A full-time candidate for the degree shall present for examination not later than ten academic sessions from the date of enrolment. A part-time candidate for the degree shall present for examination not later than twelve academic sessions from the date of enrolment. In special cases an extension of these times may be granted by the Committee.

Thesis

4. (1) On completing the program of study a candidate shall submit a thesis embodying the results of the investigation.

(2) The candidate shall give in writing to the Registrar two months notice of intention to submit the thesis.

(3) The thesis shall comply with the following requirements:

(a) it must be an original and significant contribution to knowledge of the subject;

(b) the greater proportion of the work described must have been completed subsequent to enrolment for the degree;

(c) it must be written in English except that a candidate in the Faculty of Arts may be required by the Committee to write a thesis in an appropriate foreign language;

(d) it must reach a satisfactory standard of expression and presentation;

(e) it must consist of an account of the candidate's own research but in special cases work done jointly with other persons may be accepted provided the Committee is satisfied about the extent of the candidate's part in the joint research.

(4) The candidate may not submit as the main content of the thesis any work or material which has previously been submitted for a university degree or other similar award but may submit any work previously published whether or not such work is related to the thesis.

(5) Four copies of the thesis shall be presented in a form which complies with the requirements of the University for the preparation and submission of theses for higher degrees.
(6) It shall be understood that the University retains the four copies of the thesis submitted for examination and is free to allow the thesis to be consulted or borrowed. Subject to the provisions of the Copyright Act, 1968, the University may issue the thesis in whole or in part, in photostat or microfilm or other copying medium.

5. (1) There shall be not fewer than three examiners of the thesis, appointed by the Professorial Board on the recommendation of the Committee, at least two of whom shall be external to the University.

(2) At the conclusion of the examination each examiner shall submit to the Committee a concise report on the thesis and shall recommend to the Committee that:
(a) the candidate be awarded the degree without further examination; or
(b) the candidate be awarded the degree without further examination subject to minor corrections as listed being made to the satisfaction of the head of the school;* or
(c) the candidate be awarded the degree subject to a further examination on questions posed in the report, performance in this further examination being to the satisfaction of the Committee; or
(d) the candidate be not awarded the degree but be permitted to resubmit the thesis in a revised form after a further period of study and/or research; or
(e) the candidate be not awarded the degree and be not permitted to resubmit the thesis.

(3) If the performance at the further examination recommended under (2)(c) above is not to the satisfaction of the Committee, the Committee may permit the candidate to re-present the same thesis and submit to further examination as determined by the Committee within a period specified by it but not exceeding eighteen months.

(4) The Committee shall, after consideration of the examiners' reports and the results of any further examination, recommend whether or not the candidate may be awarded the degree. If it is decided that the candidate be not awarded the degree the Committee shall determine whether or not the candidate be permitted to resubmit the thesis after a further period of study and/or research.

6. A candidate shall pay such fees as may be determined from time to time by the Council.
(3) An approved candidate shall be enrolled in one of the following categories:

(a) full-time attendance at the University;

(b) part-time attendance at the University;

(c) external — not in regular attendance at the University and using research facilities external to the University.

(4) A candidate shall be required to undertake an original investigation on an approved topic. The candidate may also be required to undergo such assessment and perform such other work as may be prescribed by the Committee.

(5) The work shall be carried out under the direction of a supervisor appointed from the full-time academic members of the University staff.

(6) The progress of a candidate shall be reviewed annually by the Committee following a report by the candidate, the supervisor and the head of the school and as a result of such review the Committee may cancel enrolment or take such other action as it considers appropriate.

(7) No candidate shall be awarded the degree until the lapse of three academic sessions from the date of enrolment in the case of a full-time candidate or four academic sessions in the case of a part-time or external candidate. In the case of a candidate who has been awarded the degree of Bachelor with Honours or who has had previous research experience the Committee may approve remission of up to one session for a full-time candidate and two session for a part-time or external candidate.

(8) A full-time candidate for the degree shall present for examination not later than six academic sessions from the date of enrolment. A part-time or external candidate for the degree shall present for examination not later than ten academic sessions from the date of enrolment. In special cases an extension of these times may be granted by the Committee.

4. (1) On completing the program of study a candidate shall submit a thesis embodying the results of the investigation.

(2) The candidate shall give in writing to the Registrar two months notice of intention to submit the thesis.

(3) The thesis shall present an account of the candidate's own research. In special cases work done conjointly with other persons may be accepted, provided the Committee is satisfied about the extent of the candidate's part in the joint research.

(4) The candidate may also submit any work previously published whether or not such work is related to the thesis.

(5) Three copies of the thesis shall be presented in a form which complies with the requirements of the University for the preparation and submission of theses for higher degrees.

(6) It shall be understood that the University retains the three copies of the thesis submitted for examination and is free to allow the thesis to be consulted or borrowed. Subject to the provisions of the Copyright Act, 1968, the University may issue the thesis in whole or in part, in photostat or microfilm or other copying medium.

5. (1) There shall be not fewer than two examiners of the thesis, appointed by the Professorial Board on the recommendation of the Committee, at least one of whom shall be external to the University unless the Committee is satisfied that this is not practicable.

(2) At the conclusion of the examination each examiner shall submit to the Committee a concise report on the thesis and shall recommend to the Committee that:

(a) the candidate be awarded the degree without further examination; or

(b) the candidate be awarded the degree without further examination subject to minor corrections as listed being made to the satisfaction of the head of the school; or

(c) the candidate be awarded the degree subject to a further examination on questions posed in the report, performance in this further examination being to the satisfaction of the Committee; or

(d) the candidate be not awarded the degree but be permitted to resubmit the thesis in a revised form after a further period of study and/or research; or

(e) the candidate be not awarded the degree and be not permitted to resubmit the thesis.

(3) If the performance at the further examination recommended under (2)(c) above is not to the satisfaction of the Committee, the Committee may permit the candidate to re-present the same thesis and submit to further examination as determined by the Committee within a period specified by it but not exceeding eighteen months.

(4) The Committee shall, after consideration of the examiners' reports and the results of any further examination, recommend whether or not the candidate may be awarded the degree. If it is decided that the candidate be not awarded the degree the Committee shall determine whether or not the candidate may resubmit the thesis after a further period of study and/or research.

6. A candidate shall pay such fees as may be determined from time to time by the Council.

1. The degree of Master of General Studies by formal course work may be awarded by the Council to a candidate who has satisfactorily completed a program of advanced study.

2. (1) A candidate for the degree shall have been awarded an appropriate degree of Bachelor from the University of New South Wales or a qualification considered equivalent from another university or tertiary institution at a level acceptable to the Higher Degree Committee of the Board of Studies in General Education (hereinafter referred to as the Committee).
(2) In exceptional cases an applicant who submits evidence of such other academic and professional qualifications as may be approved by the Committee may be permitted to enrol for the degree.
(3) If the Committee is not satisfied with the qualifications submitted by an applicant the Committee may require the applicant to undergo such assessment or carry out such work as the Committee may prescribe, before permitting enrolment.

3. (1) An application to enrol as a candidate for the degree shall be made on the prescribed form which shall be lodged with the Registrar two calendar months before the commencement of the session in which enrolment is to begin.
(2) A candidate for the degree shall be required to undertake such formal subjects and pass such assessment as prescribed.
(3) The progress of a candidate shall be reviewed at least once annually by the Committee and as a result of its review the Committee may cancel enrolment or take such other action as it considers appropriate.
(4) No candidate shall be awarded the degree until the lapse of two academic sessions from the date of enrolment in the case of a full-time candidate or four sessions in the case of a part-time candidate. The maximum period of candidature shall be four academic sessions from the date of enrolment for a full-time candidate and eight sessions for a part-time candidate. In special cases an extension of these times may be granted by the Committee.

4. (1) The program of advanced study may include a project on an approved topic.
(2) The work shall be carried out under the direction of a supervisor appointed from the full-time academic members of the University staff.
(3) The candidate shall give in writing to the Registrar two months notice of intention to submit a report on the project.
(4) Three copies of the project report shall be presented in a form which complies with the requirements of the University for the preparation and submission of project reports for higher degrees.
(5) It shall be understood that the University retains the three copies of the project report submitted for examination and is free to allow the project report to be consulted or borrowed.
Subject to the provisions of the Copyright Act, 1968, the University may issue the project report in whole or in part, in microfilm or other copying medium.

5. (1) There shall be not fewer than two examiners of the project report, appointed by the Professorial Board on the recommendation of the Committee.
(2) At the conclusion of the examination each examiner shall submit to the Committee a concise report on the project report and shall recommend to the Committee that:
(a) the project report be noted as satisfactory; or
(b) the project report be noted as satisfactory subject to minor corrections being made to the satisfaction of the Head of the Department of General Studies; or
(c) the project report be noted as unsatisfactory but that the candidate be permitted to resubmit it in a revised form after a further period of study and/or research; or
(d) the project report be noted as unsatisfactory and that the candidate be not permitted to resubmit it.

(3) The Committee shall, after considering the examiners' reports and the candidate's results of assessment in the prescribed formal subjects, recommend whether or not the candidate may be awarded the degree. If it is decided that the project report is unsatisfactory the Committee shall determine whether or not the candidate may resubmit it after a further period of study and/or research.

Fees

6. A candidate shall pay such fees as may be determined from time to time by the Council.

This Handbook has been specifically designed as a source of reference for you and will prove useful for consultation throughout the year.

For fuller details about the University — its organization, staff membership, description of disciplines, scholarships, prizes and so on, you should consult the Calendar.

The Calendar and Handbooks also contain a summary list of higher degrees as well as the conditions for their award applicable to each volume.

For detailed information about courses, subjects and requirements of a particular faculty you should consult the relevant Faculty Handbook.

Separate Handbooks are published for the Faculties of Applied Science, Architecture, Arts, Commerce, Engineering, Law, Medicine, Professional Studies, Science (including Biological Sciences and the Board of Studies in Science and Mathematics), the Australian Graduate School of Management (AGSM) and the Board of Studies in General Education.

The Calendar and Handbooks are available from the Cashier's Office.

The Calendar costs $5.00 (plus postage $1.20, interstate $1.55). The Handbooks vary in cost. Applied Science, Architecture, Arts, Commerce, Engineering, Professional Studies, and Sciences are $3.00. Postage is $1.20 in each case ($1.55 interstate). Law, Medicine and AGSM are $2.00. Postage is 90 cents in each case (90 cents interstate).

A set of books is $32.00. Postage is $2.50 ($6.00 interstate).

The General Studies Handbook is free. Postage is 90 cents (90 cents interstate).
